

QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMS LIST FOR STATION - WFXX

JULY 1 - SEPTEMBER 30, 2019

PLACED IN THE PUBLIC FILE - OCTOBER 10, 2023

SECTION 1 - ISSUES

The station has identified the following issues pertaining to our community this quarter:

1. Community Affairs

SECTION 2 - RESPONSIVE PROGRAMMING

WFXX has broadcast the following programming with the referenced identified issues

1. Community Affairs

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on July 3 at 5:02 pm, Barry Outlaw, President of the Andalusia Rotary Club, was interviewed for 11 minutes about the upcoming Andalusia World Championship Domino Tournament. With only a few days left until the big money drawing, Barry Outlaw discussed how to get the remaining tickets, sharing contact information for members with remaining tickets. He also talked about registration for players on the day of the event. For additional information, Outlaw urged listeners to visit the website, www.worldchampionshipdomino.com.

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on July 5 at 4:03 pm, Andalusia Chamber of Commerce Director Laura Wells was interviewed for 15 minutes concerning this years July Jamz concert series, to be held each Thursday evening for the entire month of July. The first concert is scheduled for tomorrow night, July 6 and will feature the bands Yachtfather and The Park Band. Gates will open at 5:30 and attendees are urged to bring lawnchairs or blankets. Concessions will be available and new activities for kids have been added. The concert is a free event and will conclude at approximately 9:30 pm. For additional information listeners are urged to contact the Chamber at 334-222-2030, or find the event information on the Chamber's Facebook page.

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on July 12 at 5:05 pm, Andalusia Chamber of Commerce Director Laura Wells was interviewed for 9 minutes concerning this years July Jamz concert series, to be held each Thursday evening for the entire month of July. The second concert is scheduled for tomorrow night, July 13 and will feature the award-winning Straughn High School String Band, as well as the soul and blues band, Accent. Gates will open at 5:30 and attendees are urged to bring lawnchairs or blankets. Concessions will be available and new activities for kids have been added. The concert is a free event and will conclude at approximately 9 pm. For additional information listeners are urged to contact the Chamber at 334-222-2030, or find the event information on the Chamber's Facebook page.

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on July 19 at 5:03 pm, Andalusia Chamber of Commerce Director Laura Wells was interviewed for 7 minutes concerning this years July Jamz concert series, to be held each Thursday evening for the entire month of July. The final concert is scheduled for tomorrow night, July 20 and will feature the bands Ten Mile Branch and The Springs. Gates will open at 5:30 and attendees are urged to bring lawnchairs or blankets. Concessions will be available and new activities for kids have been added. The concert is a free event and will conclude at approximately 9 pm. with a large fireworks show to signify the end of the annual free concert event. For additional information listeners are urged to contact the Chamber at 334-222-2030, or find the event information on the Chamber's Facebook page.

AUGUST

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on August 4 at 5:10 pm, Andalusia Chamber of Commerce member Jeff Johnson was interviewed for 11 minutes about the annual Andalusia Chamber of Commerce Golf Tournament. The 16th annual tournament is scheduled for August 12 at the Andalusia Country Club with registration beginning at 7 am. The tournament will conclude around 7 pm with awards and door prizes. The tournament is a 3-man scramble format and serves as the Chamber's only yearly fundraiser. The proceeds help fund the Chamber operating budget, as well as the many scholarships given away to students, along with 3 educator scholarships.

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on August 17 at 5:04 pm, Cindy Howard, pastor of St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Andalusia, was interviewed for 10 minutes about the church's Annual Bayou Feast, schedule for Friday, August 18 from 5 - 7 pm. The cost per plate is $25 and each plate includes Jambalaya, blackened fish, seafood gumbo, shrimp and grits, cold boiled shrimp, Mardi Gras cole slaw, New Orleans French bread, bread pudding and beverage. Free hotdogs will be available for kids under the age of 12. Howard said those interested can dine in or get a carry out plate at the church, located at 1307 East Three Notch Street. This event is the major fundraiser for the church and supports the many ministries of the church. For additional information contact the church at 334-222-2487.

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on August 24 at 5:11 pm, The City of Andalusia's Adult Activity Center and Senior Nutrition staff members are seeking sponsors for their annual Praying Hands program. The staff organizes the gift drive for senior citizens each fall, making sure that no seniors are forgotten at Christmas. Adult Activity Center director Sonja Godwin said she and other staff members have asked clients who might be in need to complete questionnaires about their Christmas wishes. Godwin said typically, they ask people to come by and pick up an information sheet on a senior from their Praying Hands tree. This year, they are seeking helpers to make Christmas special for more than 50 individuals, all of whom are 60 years or older and many of whom are homebound. Listeners were urged to call 334 222-6891 to choose your praying hands revealing a senior's wishes, or individuals can make a financial contribution and the AAC staff will shop for the senior adults. Gifts should be dropped at the Adult Activity Center no later than Friday, November 17. For additional information, call Godwin at 222-6891 or email her at sonja.godwin@cityofandalusia.com.

SEPTEMBER

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on September 1 at 4:04 pm, Kiwanis Club member Don Cotton provided information about the upcoming county fair. The annual Kiwanis Covington County Fair is just around the corner. Week of October 23 at the Kiwanis Community center and fairgrounds south by pass Andalusia. This year the Kiwanis Club of Andalusia will bring back arts and crafts along with flower decorations. New for this year – Karaoke Contest. A preliminary contest will be held September 16 at 5 Runs Farm venue, the winner and runner up will earn free entry in the Kiwanis Covington County Fair contest, with the winner awarded $500 and one of the featured performers at the Fair. Also, the 2nd annual Miss and Little Miss Kiwanis Covington County Fair will be held September 30 at the LBW Dixon Center. Many more activities will be announced later and for more information and to keep up with all the happenings, listeners were urged to visit the Kiwanis Covington County Fair Facebook page or the web site at kiwanisccf.org

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on September 15 at 5:08 pm, Representing the Sav-A-Life foundation, Jan White provided listeners with the following information. The 31st Annual Sav-A-Life Banquet will be held Monday, September 25, 2023, at 6:30 p.m. in the Kiwanis Community Center in Andalusia. Tickets ($25) are available in the Andalusia area at Christian Book & Gift and Sav-A-Life's Family Hope Center, in Opp at Larry's Prescriptions, and in Florala at First Baptist Church. For more info, call Sav-A-Life at 334-222-0644. Our guest speaker will be Dr. William Lile. Dr. Lile is board certified in obstetrics and gynecology, and former OB-GYN Department Chair at Sacred Heart Hospital in Pensacola. He has always had a passion for educating the church about the personhood of the unborn. He has delivered over 4000 babies during his medical career. Dr. Lile is licensed to practice medicine in Florida and Alabama and is a Medical Advisor of the Florida Human Life Amendment. He serves as a member of the Focus on the Family's Physician Research Council. He is a frequent guest on both television and radio shows such as Focus on the Family. For more information, call 334-222-0644, or call Jan White at 334 222-2907. Sav-A-Life is a non-profit Christian ministry helping women in crisis pregnancies and teaching life choices to youth. We offer free pregnancy testing, ultrasounds, maternity and baby clothing and diapers, as well as parenting classes.

"The Jim Walker Show" - Broadcast on September 21 at 5:06 pm, Mark Glisson, member of the Straughn High School Quarterback Club, provided the following information for broadcast. This year marks the 50th season of Straughn Tiger football since the program was restarted in 1974. A celebration will be held on Friday, October 6th at Straughn's home game against Houston Academy. All former players, coaches, staff and cheerleaders are invited to attend. A tailgate-styled event is planned for inside the stadium prior to the game. Players, coaches, staff and cheerleaders from the 1974 team should arrive at 5:00 PM and all other former players and cheerleaders should arrive at 5:30 to the tailgate tent. Check out the Straughn Football Lettermen Club Facebook page or call Mark Glisson at 334-804-4323 for more information.