The following list contains some of the significant issues KHSV has identified as being of interest to our audience in Las Vegas and the surrounding communities.

Issues

Tuesday, September 15, 2020 Sun Outage Alert from Start TV Network - We are approaching sun outage season once again. The September equinox sun fades for SES-1 start on October 1st, peak around October 8th, and will be done by October 12th. The days with the most solar interference will be October 7th through the 9th in the Northeast, October 5th through the 7th in the far West, October 8th through the 10th in the Northwest, and October 2nd through the 4th in the Southern portion of the United States. At the peak, the fades will start at 1:34pm and end at 1:42pm here in Chicago (Central Time). The severity of these outages will depend on your location and the equipment that you use to receive our signal.

Friday, August 28, 2020 10:10 AM Start TV's new fall schedule begins this Monday, August 31st This season, we are excited to bring two excellent series to our already strong line-up of contemporary dramas: Major Crimes and Any Day Now. Major Crimes, the spin-off series to The Closer, will follow its predecessor on weeknights with back-to-back episodes at 8 pm and 9 pm ET. This program has a committed fan base who will enjoy seeing Major Crimes Division leader Sharon Raydor, played by Mary McDonnell, continuing to solve crimes. Airing Monday through Friday only, at 8 pm and 9 pm ET, Major Crimes will not air on the weekends. Any Day Now, starring Annie Potts and Lorraine Toussaint, addresses issues of race and inequality through the characters' close friendship. The show will air at 10am ET every day.
