Drone Test Over Fargodome PKG 1:45

After a successful first public flight, local law enforcement is encouraged to find ways to use drones in the metro. KVRN's Tim Scott tells us how one officer from the Cass County Sheriff's Office looks to use drone technology to help others. Back in February, a fire burst out at the Magellan Partners tank farm in West Fargo. A big help in extinguishing the flames was a drone flown in from Grand Forks.
