Topic: President Obama introduces himself to the world and promises a different type of diplomacy. In the midst of his first multi stop overseas trip, the President began in London by offering his economic leadership on the best way to battle the global financial crisis. So what was the G-20's first impression of our new President and his plan to turn around the world economy?

Segment 1: David Axelrod, Senior Advisor to President Obama.

Topic: As President Obama's budget gets batted about Congress, Republicans offer up their own alternative. So does the debate over the proposed budget pose a larger question for the Republican Party? Now that there's a popular Democratic President in the White House, many conservatives wonder, "What's the best way for the GOP to frame their ideas?" Chris Wallace finds out the future of the GOP when he sits down with influential Republican voices.

Segment 2: Gov. Mark Sanford (R-SC)
Newt Gingrich, Former Speaker of the House.

AMERICA’S MOST WANTED takes on the nation’s hottest crime issues. This crime-fighting program focuses on capturing fugitives, protecting victims and empowering citizens within the criminal justice system. The series also takes an in-depth look at laws that harm victims, champions the cause of lawmakers fighting to protect victims’ rights and presents news of recent captures, convictions and missing children cases.
