COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1810) (2R-1/21/06) (TV-PG)
FT. MEYERS TAXI CAB BUSTS" Detective Richard Davis, Jr. of the Fort Meyers Police Department coordinates a "buy bust" sting designed to apprehend street level drug dealers. Using a taxi as a decoy, an officer poses as a "buyer" in hopes to avoid detection by the streetwise peddlers. "HE SHAVED HER CAT" Officer Nicholas Farse of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department responds to a reported stabbing at a nearby apartment complex. At the scene, the officer immediately detains a female resident. The male complainant is questioned and tells an officer that woman threatened his life and then stabbed him in the arm with a pair of scissors. "CALL OUT YOUR CHILDREN" Officers David Miramontes and Paul Cervantes of the Fresno Police Department respond to a domestic disturbance call. The officers question a distraught woman who claims that her husband threatened her with a knife and threatened to kill their children. The suspect is apprehended without incident and eventually admits to assaulting and threatening his wife after she failed to return from a meeting. During a routine search of the house, the officers confiscate a large knife and a shotgun

COPS "COAST TO COAST " (CP-1811) (2R- 1/28/06) (TV-PG: D,
"BROKEN WINDOWS" Officer Christopher Curtis of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department responds to a vandalism call. When the officer arrives, he assists a male individual who has physically detained a young man that was involved in the incident. During questioning the man tells the officer that three young men busted out the window in his SUV. When the vandals tried to flee, he pursued them in his vehicle and was able to capture one of them. "BAD VIBRATIONS" Deputy Ronnie Hawkins of the Travis County Sheriff's Office investigates a reported domestic disturbance at a local residence. At the scene the officer questions a woman who claims that she was trying to comply with a court order to move out of the home but the inebriated owner refused to let her movers enter the residence "WILL & GRACE" Officers Daniel Betts and Scott Demester of the Atlanta Police Department lend assistance on a traffic stop of a stolen vehicle. The officers question the driver who claims that he borrowed the car from a friend and was not aware that it was stolen. The officers investigate the driver's explanation but are unable to verify the facts.

08:00 - 08:30P COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1812) (2R-3/4/06) (TV-PG: L,V)
"STREET SMARTS" Officer Ken Witt of the Santa Ana (California) Police Department receives instruction from Range Master Dan Dolan on the use of a firearm at a driving range. Subsequently, Officer Witt encounters a young male riding an unlicensed bicycle in a neighborhood known for gang and narcotics-related activities. "THROW MOMMA FROM THE HOUSE" Officer Robert Bell of the Gwinnett County (Georgia) Police Department looks for individuals involved in drug dealing in a neighborhood with "lots of foot traffic." Upon arriving in an apartment complex's parking lot, he encounters a young male who runs off when approached. "LOVE TRIANGLE / SQUARE" An officer sees a man with a bicycle grabbing a woman. Upon questioning them, he learns they are quarreling lovers. The man is upset because his girlfriend was with someone else.

08:30 - 09:00P COPS "COAST TO COAST " (CP-1822) (TV-14: L,V)
"I'M A LOSER" Detectives Tony Moreno and Brian Nicholas of the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania Bureau of Police approach two individuals (one male and one female) they suspect are involved in an illegal "hand to hand" transaction. When the male suspect pulls out a handgun, the officers draw their own weapons and handcuff the pair. "FOOT PURSUIT TAKEDOWN" Officers Doug Strosahl, Tim Moses and Steve Arrendondo of the Spokane, Washington Police Department respond to a call for back-up on a domestic violence call. A young woman had phoned the police saying that her boyfriend was threatening to shoot her with a shotgun. When the officers arrive, the male suspect flees a vehicle on foot. "TRADING BABY FOR CRACK" Officers Jack Carson and Sally Jones of the Anchorage, Alaska Police Department respond to a call regarding a male trying to sell a juvenile. Two male juvenile witnesses report that the suspect tried to sell a little girl to them for ten dollars worth of crack. They refer to him as a "crack fiend." The suspect denies any wrongdoing and claims he was just joking but refuses to take a drug test.

"DEFENSIVE BROTHERS" Officer Kevin Berardinelli of the Gwinnett County Georgia Police Department arrives at a residence where we hear blood curdling screams as a man is attacked by another man. While other members of law enforcement attempt to get the situation under control, the victim assaults one of the officers and is subsequently stung by a taser. "SON OF THE FATHER" Officers John Campor and George Godfrey of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department respond to a call regarding a family dispute. We first meet the male complainant/son who claims his father is drunk, throwing rocks and threatening him with a knife. The son alleges his brother also came at him with a knife in front of his wife and children. "THAT THERE BE DOPE" Deputy Randy Ivy and Jeff Williams of the Travis County, Texas Sheriff's Office pull a vehicle over on an interstate freeway for an equipment violation. As the male driver is questioned, the odor of marijuana is detected.

COPS "BAD GIRLS #9 SPECIAL EDITION" (CP-1830) (TV-

"BITE ME!" Chattanooga, Tennessee Police respond to a call regarding a bleeding woman found in a street. She appears to have been drinking and does not know what happened to her. After trying to bite a police officer and some paramedics, she is arrested for disorderly public intoxication and assault on police. "BUT WHY?" Spokane, Washington Police pull over the female driver of a car which was reported stolen. After telling a far-fetched story to the officers about why she was in possession of the vehicle and resisting an officer's attempt to restrain her, crystal meth is found in her purse. She is subsequently arrested for obstruction and drug possession. "CRACK GRANNY" An officer from the Martin County, Florida Sheriff's Office responds to a call regarding a female hitchhiker. After pills are found in the woman's purse, she is found to have hidden crack in her pants as well. The suspect is thus arrested for possession of crack cocaine.

COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1808) (3R- 9/10/05, 1/7/06)(TV-PG)

"THEM BONES" Detectives Rudy Reynoso and Juan Gonzalez of the Las Vegas Police Department respond to a call regarding the discovery of a human skull in a local park. During an extensive and cautious search, the detectives with the assistance of a forensic anthropologist find additional human bones and discarded clothing in the immediate area.

"WORM EYES" While on routine patrol, Officers Rudy Reynoso and Juan Gonzales of the Santa Ana Police Department in California detain three suspicious individuals who were hanging out in an alley known for heavy drug activity. One of the male individuals is arrested after the officers find cocaine on him during a routine search. "BOYS DON'T CRY" Officer Christopher Curtis of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department responds to a domestic disturbance call. At the scene, the officer interviews a woman who claims that her unstable ex-boyfriend tried to break into her apartment. The ex-boyfriend confirms the woman's account and eventually comes to the realization that he loves a woman who obviously doesn't love him.

THE TRADES OF THE WEEK

The Najarian brothers revisit their Trades of the Week.

Saturday, June 3, 2006

08:00 - 08:30P

COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1826) (TV-14: L,V)

"TEK 9" Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania police apprehend an suspect after noticing a bulge in his pants. After performing a pat-down, they find him to be in possession of a "tech 9" gun as well as a container of crack cocaine. The suspect is subsequently arrested and will face a felony charge of carrying a concealed firearm without a license as well as felony drug charges. "SLIPPING THE CUFFS" Martin County, Florida police respond to a call regarding a female causing a disturbance on the grounds of a private residence. Although the complainant says she tore part of his fence down, the suspect appears inebriated (as well as incoherent) and denies any wrong-doing. She is subsequently arrested and will face charges for criminal mischief. "TAKE IT TO COURT" Anchorage, Alaska police respond to a call regarding a verbal disturbance involving a male and female. We learn that the female has thrown her boyfriend out of the residence that they shared (although he was not on the lease) and has thrown all of his belongings into a nearby dumpster. The officers inform the female that, under Alaskan law, she needed to obtain a court order to evict him.

08:30 - 09:00P

1/14/06) (TV-PG)

COPS " COAST TO COAST " (CP-1809) (3R-9/24/05,

"PEACEWALKER" Officer Ryan Cook of the Las Vegas Police Department is dispatched to a fast food restaurant where a disturbed man has reportedly threatened a customer. The officer immediately detains the suspect (white) and interviews a male victim who describes how the man disparaged him by calling him President Bush while challenging him to a fight. "TRUE CONFESSIONS" Deputy Robert Elwell & Sgt. Kim Falk of the Lee County Sheriff's Office pull over a vehicle with an equipment violation. The officers become suspicious of the occupants (a male and two females) when they give conflicting information regarding their relationship. "REMEMBER THIS DAY" Officer Christopher Curtis of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department pulls over a vehicle with numerous violations. The driver (white female) claims that the wrecked vehicle belongs to a friend and that it is a work in progress. Suspicious of the woman's demeanor the officer questions her about her history of drug use and learns that she was previously under the influence of methamphetamine.

08:00 - 08:30P

COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1827) (TV-PG)

"WEED RUN" Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania police pursue a vehicle for a stop sign violation. The automobile attempts to flee but crashes into another car. Officers detain the female driver and her two male passengers. Apparently a package of marijuana was thrown from the car during the chase. "CAN I HAVE A KISS" Palm Springs, California police respond to a call regarding sounds of a breaking glass and a man seen bleeding at a motel. When they arrive at the scene, we meet a male who is injured and incoherent. "DV LOVE SHACK" Spokane, Washington police respond to a call regarding a woman who ran out of her home naked saying she had been assaulted. Arriving at the scene, we meet the female victim who describes her altercation with the male suspect.

08:30 - 09:00P

COPS " COAST TO COAST " (CP-1807) (3R-9/17/05, 1/21/06) (TV-14: D,L)

"SLAP-U-SILLY" Officers Judy Abercrombie and Diane King of the Gwinnett County Police Department in Georgia respond to a domestic disturbance call from a local motel. "ANGER MANAGEMENT" Officer Jeff Harper of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department investigates a report of a man with a knife. "I'VE SEEN THE METH" Deputy David Jones of the Maricopa County Sheriff's Office responds to a 911 hang-up call. The call leads him to a residence where he's greeted by deputy who has taken a male and female couple into custody.

08:00 - 08:30P

COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1829) (TV-14: L,V)
"OFF SIDES" Officers from the Chattanooga, Tennessee Police Department detain a suspicious looking male driver and his male passenger for questioning when an acquaintance interferes and becomes violent. The driver is subsequently arrested for being a "habitual traffic offender" as well as "improper registration of a vehicle." His acquaintance is arrested as well and the passenger is let go. "GENEROUS POTHEAD" Officers from the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania Bureau of Police respond to a call regarding a drug deal witnessed behind a high school. Three male suspects have been detained when the officers arrive at the scene. A quick search reveals that one of the suspects had purchased two bags of marijuana. According to his friends, he is a "pothead" but regularly shares it and is quite "generous." He is then arrested for the drug transaction and his two friends are let go. "GARAGE THIEF" Spokane, Washington police respond to a call regarding two individuals seen breaking into a garage at 4AM. A male and female are then apprehended at the scene. According to the male, someone named "Dewey" gave him the key to the garage and asked him to "collect some memorabilia" that belonged to his mother.

08:30 - 09:00P

COPS " COAST TO COAST " (CP-1801) (3R-10/1/05,1/28/06) (TV-PG)
"JOE DIRT" Deputy Michael Ellis of the Lee County Sheriff's Office in Florida pursues a reckless vehicle after the driver refuses to pull over. The slow speed chase ends when the driver inadvertently drives into ditch and disables his car. "AVON CALLING" Officer Ryan Cook of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department in Nevada responds to a home invasion robbery in a local apartment complex. At the scene, Officer Cook questions a male and female victim who describes how an unknown suspect kicked in their front door and then demanded to see his wife. "CRIME OF PASSION" Officer Frank Brown and Deputy Mark Fry of the Pierce County Sheriff's Department investigate a suspicious fire and a shooting at a trailer park. Upon arrival, the officers canvas the scene and question the startled residents. When the officers find a suspicious that belongs to a resident's ex-husband, they immediately search the surrounding dark wooded area and unexpectedly encounter gunfire.

COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1802) (3R- 12/3/06, 2/18/06) (TV-PG: L)
HONEY I'M HOME" Deputy Michael Ellis of the Lee County Sheriff's Office in Florida responds to a domestic dispute. Deputy questions a distressed man at a local convenience store who claims that he is in fear for his life because his wife had become violent after returning home following a drinking binge. "TWEAKER ANGEL" Officer Jeff Harper of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department in Nevada responds to the scene of a car accident. The officer quickly detains two witnesses before an EMT advises him that an injured female driver is possibly under the influence "BICYCLE BUSTS" Detectives Richard Davis and Enrico Doro of the Fort Meyers Police Department conducts an undercover sting designed capture drug dealers engaged in illegal activity in a problem area of the city. Davis rides around the neighborhood posing as a filthy addict who's looking to score drugs.

08:30 - 09:00P

COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1819) (2R- 3/11/06) (TV-14: L,V)
GUN TOSS Detective Joe Lewis and Sgt. Jason Snyder of the Pittsburg, Pennsylvania Bureau of Police stop a vehicle and the driver immediately speeds off. After pursuing him by car and apprehending him, the undercover officers attempt to determine the suspect's reason for fleeing. He claims that he was afraid of being sent to jail for having a small amount of "weed" in his pocket. WHINE ONE ONE Officers Derrick Pendergrass and Zach Fuller of the Chattanooga (Tennessee) Police Department stop a vehicle for having tags that don't match the car they are allegedly registered to and for failure to maintain lanes. The driver appears very nervous and immediately hands the officers an empty plastic baggy. No drugs are found in the vehicle but the officers do find a cold open beer can in the front passenger seat. In addition, we are told that beer has spilled on the front passenger seat. PAPA DON'T PREACH Deputy Belinda Mangum of the Travis County (Texas) Sheriff's Office responds to a call regarding a domestic dispute. After watching a TV program with his spouse, an angry husband was allegedly screaming at his wife (Caucasian) that he would hit any child of theirs who turned out to be homosexual. Since their only child is a sixteen month old female infant, it is not clear why he became so enraged.
