Saturday, January 7, 2006

08:00 - 08:30P

COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1805) (TV-PG: V)
"UNRULY CALLER" Officer John Smaistrila of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department investigates a distress call from a nearby apartment complex. At the scene, the officer attempts to detain an uncooperative male individual. When the man tries to walk away, a brief scuffle takes place. "GOT MILK?" Officer James Griffith of the Lee County Sheriff's Office in Florida, stops a vehicle with a busted rear brake light. The officer questions the suspicious driver who reluctantly confesses that he tried to eat crack before pulling over. Concerned for his safety and for the driver's health, the officer immediately takes the man into custody. During a routine search of the vehicle, a large amount of crack is found. The driver is arrested for possession with the intent to distribute. "BASKETBALL JONES" Deputy Robert Smith of the Lee County Sheriff's Office in Florida responds to a complaint from a woman regarding a group of male juveniles playing ball near her house. The officer questions the boys who claim that the woman cursed at them. The concerned woman tells the officer that she wants the boys to go away because she's afraid that they will injure themselves on her property. The officer helps the kids move their basketball court a few feet over and then plays a quick game of one-on-one with them.

08:30 - 09:00P

COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1808) (2R- 9/10/5) (TV-PG)

"THEM BONES" Detectives Rudy Reynoso and Juan Gonzalez of the Las Vegas Police Department respond to a call regarding the discovery of a human skull in a local park. During an extensive and cautious search, the detectives with the assistance of a forensic anthropologist find additional human bones and discarded clothing in the immediate area. "WORM EYES" While on routine patrol, Officers Rudy Reynoso and Juan Gonzales of the Santa Ana Police Department in California detain three suspicious individuals who were hanging out in an alley known for heavy drug activity. One of the male individuals is arrested after the officers find cocaine on him during a routine search. "BOYS DON'T CRY" Officer Christopher Curtis of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department responds to a domestic disturbance call.

Saturday, January 14, 2006

COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1806) (TV-PG)

"A CONCERNED CITIZEN" Officer Jason Pate of the Fort Meyers Police Department in Florida, responds to a call involving a concerned citizen who reported that he was approached by an armed man who claimed that he used his gun in a bank robbery. Officer Pate locates the suspect in the parking lot of an apartment complex and immediately takes him into custody without incident. During a routine search, the officers discover a loaded handgun, drug paraphernalia, and two news articles about bank robberies. "FOUND BY THE BIRD" Officer Jason Hansen of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department investigates a call involving a suspected drunk driver. A concerned citizen reported that he saw the man driving erratically and followed him as he ran over curbs and eventually crashed into a house. Officer Hansen searches for the desperate suspect after he reportedly jumped out the vehicle and fled the scene.. "REVERSE BUY BUSTS" Sgt. Gary Desrosier of the Lee County Sheriff's Office in Florida supervises a reverse buy-bust string designed to apprehend street level buyers. Corporal Bubba Green poses as drug dealer on a local street corner in an attempt to attract interested customers.

08:30 - 09:00P

COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1809) (2R- 9/24/05) (TV-PG)

"PEACEWALKER" Officer Ryan Cook of the Las Vegas Police Department is dispatched to a fast food restaurant where a disturbed man has reportedly threatened a customer. The officer immediately detains the suspect (white) and interviews a male victim who describes how the man disparaged him by calling him President Bush while challenging him to a fight. "TRUE CONFESSIONS" Deputy Robert Elwell & Sgt. Kim Falk of the Lee County Sheriff's Office pull over a vehicle with an equipment violation. The officers become suspicious of the occupants (a male and two females) when they give conflicting information regarding their relationship. "REMEMBER THIS DAY" Officer Christopher Curtis of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department pulls over a vehicle with numerous violations. The driver (white female) claims that the wrecked vehicle belongs to a friend and that it is a work in progress. Suspicious of the woman's demeanor the officer questions her about her history of drug use and learns that she was previously under the influence of methamphetamine.

08:00 - 08:30P COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1816) (TV-14: L,V)
"DEFENSIVE BROTHERS" Officer Kevin Berardinelli of the Gwinnett County Georgia Police Department arrives at a residence where we hear blood curdling screams as a man is attacked by another man. While other members of law enforcement attempt to get the situation under control, the victim assaults one of the officers and is subsequently stung by a taser. "SON OF THE FATHER" Officers John Campor and George Godfrey of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department respond to a call regarding a family dispute. We first meet the male complainant/son who claims his father is drunk, throwing rocks and threatening him with a knife. The son alleges his brother also came at him with a knife in front of his wife and children. "THAT THERE BE DOPE" Deputy Randy Ivy and Jeff Williams of the Travis County, Texas Sheriff's Office pull a vehicle over on an interstate freeway for an equipment violation. As the male driver is questioned, the odor of marijuana is detected.

08:30 - 09:00P COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1818) (TV-14: L,V)
"MAN DOWN" Officers Andy Fincher and James Kettle of the Atlanta, Georgia Police Department arrive at an apartment building where a shooting reportedly occurred. We immediately hear screams and a young male comes running down the stairs. We learn that he claims to have been shot by another young male named "Johann." The victim swings his arms wildly and tries to flee before being detained and eventually strapped into an ambulance. "THREE AMIGOS" Officers Rick Howe, Chad Finney and Detective Kenneth Simon of the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania Bureau of Police apprehend three male suspects in the parking lot of a convenience store. This location is a place where people allegedly go to buy cheap heroine. "SMOKING THE REEFER" Deputy Belinda Mangum of the Travis County, Texas Sheriff's Office pulls over a vehicle with three male occupants. The officer smells marijuana coming from the vehicle and sees what appears to be pot on the driver's shirt.

AMERICA'S MOST WANTED "EXPOSING SEXUAL PREDATORS SPECIAL EDITION" (MW-1918) (TV-PG: V)

A heroic move by an alert woman has saved two children from alleged abusers. Tracie Dean was determined to get to the bottom of an awkward chance encounter with a young girl in a convenience store in Conecuh County, Alabama. She wouldn't give up or take no for an answer. As a result, two children are now safe and two accused sexual predators are behind bars. There's much more to the story than what's been reported so far. AMW goes inside the investigation of a case that could have nationwide repercussions.

COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1819) (TV-14: L,V)
GUN TOSS Detective Joe Lewis and Sgt. Jason Snyder of the Pittsburg, Pennsylvania Bureau of Police stop a vehicle and the driver immediately speeds off. After pursuing him by car and apprehending him, the undercover officers attempt to determine the suspect's reason for fleeing. He claims that he was afraid of being sent to jail for having a small amount of "weed" in his pocket. WHINE ONE ONE Officers Derrick Pendergrass and Zach Fuller of the Chattanooga (Tennessee) Police Department stop a vehicle for having tags that don't match the car they are allegedly registered to and for failure to maintain lanes. The driver appears very nervous and immediately hands the officers an empty plastic baggy. No drugs are found in the vehicle but the officers do find a cold open beer can in the front passenger seat. In addition, we are told that beer has spilled on the front passenger seat. PAPA DON'T PREACH Deputy Belinda Mangum of the Travis County (Texas) Sheriff's Office responds to a call regarding a domestic dispute. After watching a TV program with his spouse, an angry husband was allegedly screaming at his wife (Caucasian) that he would hit any child of theirs who turned out to be homosexual. Since their only child is a sixteen month old female infant, it is not clear why he became so enraged.
