COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1801) (TV-PG)
"JOE DIRT" Deputy Michael Ellis of the Lee County Sheriff's Office in Florida pursues a reckless vehicle after the driver refuses to pull over. The slow speed chase ends when the driver inadvertently drives into ditch and disables his car. "AVON CALLING" Officer Ryan Cook of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department in Nevada responds to a home invasion robbery in a local apartment complex. At the scene, Officer Cook questions a male and female victim who describes how an unknown suspect kicked in their front door and then demanded to see his wife. "CRIME OF PASSION" Officer Frank Brown and Deputy Mark Fry of the Pierce County Sheriff's Department investigate a suspicious fire and a shooting at a trailer park. Upon arrival, the officers canvas the scene and question the startled residents. When the officers find a suspicious that belongs to a resident's ex-husband, they immediately search the surrounding dark wooded area and unexpectedly encounter gunfire.

08:30 - 09:00P

COPS "TAZED & CONFUSED SPECIAL EDITION" (CP-1710) (3R -11/6/04, 3/19/04) (TV-14: V)

When Officer Erik Nelson of the Norwood, OH, Police Division lends assistance on a routine traffic stop, the uncooperative driver becomes combative and Officer Nelson is forced to use his stunt gun, triggering a dangerous high-speed car chase.

COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1709) (3R-3/5/05, 6/11/05) (TV-PG: L,V) (IF NO BASEBALL)
Andrew Patzer and Jason Rose of the Las Vegas, NV, Metropolitan Police Department respond to a domestic disturbance call at a local apartment complex. At the scene, the officers interview a man who is clearly annoyed by their inquisition and tells the officers that he had an argument with his girlfriend and insists that everything's cool. However, after getting his girlfriend's version of the story and seeing his hostile outbursts, the police arrest him for disorderly conduct. Meanwhile, when Fort Worth, TX, Police Officer Brian Clark pursues a speeding vehicle that ran a red light, the desperate driver leads the officer to his home, where he bails out of the vehicle, runs into the residence and barricades himself inside the bathroom.

08:30 - 09:00P

COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1711) (3R-3/12/05, 6/18/05) (TV-14: D,V) (IF NO BASEBALL)
Fort Worth, TX, Police Officers Steve Groppi and Robert Guerrero pay a visit to an apartment building where a suspect wanted for several outstanding warrants was recently spotted with his girlfriend. At the scene, the girlfriend denies having seen the suspect and permits the officers to search the premises. They eventually find the suspect hiding under a bed.

09:00 - 09:30P

COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1731) (2R- 7/9/05) (TV-PG:V) (IF NO BASEBALL)
When Officers James Rosetti and Bryan Craft of the Fresno, CA, Police Department respond to a call involving a man with a knife in a back alley, they encounter a woman with a large bloody knife in her back pocket. After officers locate the injured suspect and question several witnesses about the incident, it is discovered that when the suspect attempted to stab a male victim with the knife, the victim's son hit him with a shovel.

COPS "DINNER DATE WITH DEATH" (CP-1719) (3R-3/26/05, 6/25/05) (TV-14: D,L) (IF NO BASEBALL)
In Covington, KY, Police Officer Derek Uhl responds to a neighborhood domestic dispute where a man claims that, after he told a woman that he and her husband had an affair, the husband directed a homosexual slur at him and then threatened him with violence. When interviewed by Officer Uhl, the accused man denies both threatening and sleeping with the accuser. Meanwhile, the wife can only confirm the dispute between the two men.

08:00 - 08:30P COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1804) (TV-PG)
When Officer James Griffith of the Maricopa County, AZ, Sheriff's Office pulls over a vehicle with a busted license plate light, it's discovered that the male passenger has two felony warrants. The handcuffed man tries to run, but his escape is tripped up when he falls on face. Another segment features Sgt. Dan Flaherty of the Las Vegas, NV, Metropolitan Police Department supervises a sting operation designed to capture wanted fugitives. An anonymous tip leads the detectives to a local convenience store where they find a male fugitive that gives a false name and a portable finger print device is used to confirm his identity

08:30 - 09:00P COPS "HIGH CRIMES SPECIAL EDITION" (CP-1730) (3R-2/5/05, 7/9/05) (TV-PG: V)
When Officer Gary Couso of the Santa Ana, CA, Police Department stops a suspicious vehicle coming out of an alley in an area of the city known for heavy drug activity, the officers question and conduct a routine search, and the passenger attempts to swallow a small amount of what is later determined to be crack cocaine. Another segment features Officer Gibson Smith of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department offering assistance on an investigation of a suspicious male who reportedly passed out in his vehicle at a local gas station for four hours. Although the suspect cannot account for a significant portion of his morning, he insists that he was searching for his keys the entire time.

- 08:00 - 08:30P COPS "LAS VEGAS HEAT #2 SPECIAL EDITION" (CP-1813) (TV-PG:L,V)
"CRY FOR MOMMA" Sgt. Tom Jenkins of the Metropolitan Police department investigates a public disturbance. When the officer attempts to question a hostile male individual, he is forced to physically restrain the man when he does not comply with directives. "BUGSY'S FLAMINGO" Officer Peter Connell of the Metropolitan Police Department detains two male college students after they try to steal a flamingo from hotel on the strip. "15 CELL PHONES AND A HUMMER" Officers Mark Cirkosz and Peter Connell of the Metropolitan Police Department assist another unit on a traffic stop. The officers question the suspicious occupants and conduct a routine search of the vehicle. Based on an overwhelming amount of circumstantial evidence found in the vehicle, the officers surmise that the female passenger is a prostitute and the driver is a pimp.
- 08:30 - 09:00P COPS "RESISTING ARREST #3 SPECIAL EDITION" (CP-1718) (3R-2/5/05, 7/2/05) (TV-14: L,V)
"ARMED ROBBER CAUGHT ASLEEP" Joe Kelp and Russ Martin of the Pierce County Sheriff's Office investigate an armed robbery. The officers question the victim who describes how a man armed with a hand gun broke into the back of his boss' truck. "BECAUSE I GOT HIGH" FTO John Comeau of the Little Rock Police Department in Arkansas joins units in pursuit of a stolen Jeep vehicle. A black male suspect is apprehended after he bails out of the vehicle and is found hiding in a storm drain. UNDER THE BED Fort Worth, TX Police Officers Steve Groppi and Robert Guerrero respond to a call involving a suspect wanted for several outstanding warrants who was spotted at his girlfriend's house.

Saturday, December 10, 2005

08:00 - 08:30P COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1803) (TV-PG:L)
"LAZY SLEEPY EYE" Officer Patrick Burke of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department pulls over a vehicle with a busted tail light. When the officer attempts to restrain the uncooperative driver, a jar filled with a large amount of methamphetamine falls out off his pocket. "LITTLE BIG BIRD" Deputy Robert Smith of the Lee County Sheriff's Office in Florida investigates a child custody dispute. The officer questions a man who claims that his wife fled North Carolina with his two-year-old son. "LEARNING NEW TRICKS" Officers Scott Sikes and Stacey James of the Fort Worth Police Department pull over a vehicle they observed leaving an area known for drug activity. The officers question the female occupants who are hard-pressed to explain why they are in the area.

08:30 - 09:00P COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1729) (2R- 7/2/05) (TV-PG: V)
"I HAVE A TWIN BROTHER" Officer Joe Kolp of the Lakewood Police Department in Washington conducts a traffic stop on a male suspect who gave a false name in during an encounter earlier that day. With the assistance of Officer John Henterly, the suspect and his female passenger are removed from the vehicle and questioned. Officer Kolp obtains a picture of a suspect who is wanted on a warrant – he closely resembles the man in custody. When confronted with the photo, the suspect says it's his twin brother but later admits he's their man "ANACONDA" Corporal Pete Enderle of the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office in Ohio, responds to an animal complaint. A frightened female resident reported finding a snake in her home. At the location, Corporal Enderle retrieves a small snake from behind a floorboard in a closet. "WHEELS UP!" Officers Chad Mills and Curtis Miller of the Forth Worth Texas Police Department responds to a burglary in progress.

Saturday, December 10, 2005

09:00 - 10:00P AMERICA'S MOST WANTED "COLLEGETOWN CREEPER
SPECIAL EDITION" (MW-1910) (TV-PG: V)

In 2004 police in Ithaca, NY, started getting calls from college coeds living around the Cornell University campus in an area known as "Collegetown." The women told of being awakened by a strange man standing over their bed. After 20 incidents in one year, campus coeds and police made it their priority to arrest this "Collegetown Creeper." Then cops got a lucky break when one of the victims was able to pick the man out of a lineup. Cops say they questioned the man for hours. The father of six was a cook at a Collegetown restaurant and had a minor criminal history. While police tried to link him to all of the incidents, they could only charge him with two counts of criminal trespassing. A judge set bail at $5,000, and after he bailed out, police say the "creeper" went on the run. Cops ask AMW viewers to help bring in a dangerous man who could be preying on women in another college town somewhere on the West Coast.

08:00 - 08:30P COPS " HO! HO! HO! #3 SPECIAL EDITION " (CP-1828)
(TV-14:L,V)
"CRAZY CRACK" Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania police investigate a report of a vehicle in an abandoned lot frequented by drug users and prostitutes. Arriving on the scene, we meet the vehicle's female driver who claims to be waiting for her daughter. The officers recognize the daughter as "known prostitute" who they encounter frequently. "BREAK HER DOWN WITH COMPASSION" Las Vegas, Nevada police stop a young female on the Vegas "strip." While they suspect she is "on the stroll", she is told she can leave if she gives them her real name and admits what she is doing. "WARRANTS AND HEROINE" Spokane, Washington police respond to a call for back-up on a traffic stop. There we meet a young woman who initially claims to have been picked up by a family friend while walking along the road. Eventually, she confesses that she didn't know the guy at all. Drug paraphernalia (including syringes, a pipe and heroine) are subsequently found in her purse.

08:30 - 09:00P COPS "HO! HO! HO! #2 SPECIAL EDITION" (CP-1712)
(2R- 12/11/04) (TV-14: D)
When Santa Ana County, CA, Police Officer Jose Gonzales questions a known prostitute, the woman insists that she is doing nothing wrong and claims that she was only escorting her disabled male acquaintance to a nearby fast food restaurant. Another segment features Deputy Steve Sabers and Corporal Brian Shepard of the Hamilton County, OH, Sheriff's Office, responding to a domestic disturbance. At the scene, a man explains that his ex-wife plans to marry a man she recently met on the Internet and move their children out of state.

AMERICA'S MOST WANTED "TOP TEN MOST WANTED
OF 2005 SPECIAL EDITION" (MW-1911) (TV-PG: V)

John Walsh looks back at 2005 and names his personal list of "Ten Most Wanted" fugitives from the past year. The candidates for Most Wanted include:

- An ex-cop who is accused of murder and child molestation.
- A toy salesman-turned-accused killer.
- A Voodoo-believing man accused of brutally beating his girlfriend to death and then binding and gagging the victim's 12-year-old daughter, leaving her tied up for almost 24 hours.
