SPEAKERS:

CHRIS WALLACE, HOST

MIKE HUCKABEE, FORMER GOVERNOR OF ARKANSAS

SEN. ARLEN SPECTER, R-PA.

SEN. KAY BAILEY HUTCHISON, R-TEXAS

JUAN WILLIAMS, FOX NEWS

NINA EASTON, FOX NEWS

BRIT HUME, FOX NEWS

BILL KRISTOL, FOX NEWS

WALLACE: I'm Chris Wallace. A deadly weekend for U.S. forces in Iraq, next on "Fox News Sunday."

He's not a frontrunner yet, but he's moving up. We'll sit down with former governor and Republican candidate Mike Huckabee to find out his plan for victory as we continue our series Choosing the President.

Then the battle over immigration reform within the GOP. We'll talk with Senators Arlen Specter, who helped write the plan, and Kay Bailey Hutchison, who says it's still amnesty.

Plus, the president gets a win in Congress on spending for the Iraq war. What will the Democrats do now? We'll ask our Sunday panel, Brit Hume, Nina Easton, Bill Kristol and Juan Williams.

And our Power Players of the Week offer some words of wisdom to the class of '07, all right now on "Fox News Sunday."

Subject: This Week

This week on Fox News Sunday: (6/10)

The immigration bill falls apart in the Senate, delivering a blow to the President. With his party deeply divided over the controversial bill, can the President unite them and get the legislation approved? The White House's chief spokesman joins Chris live.

Guest: Tony Snow, White House Press Secretary

Then, we'll get response from the other side of the aisle. With the Senate Democratic leaders facing opposition of their own, how will they solve the immigration problem? Their number two man joins Chris exclusively to talk about immigration and their next order of business.

Guest: Senator Dick Durbin (D-IL), Senate Assistant Majority Leader

And, a very special Power Player of the Week: Lizzie Palmer may only be 15 years old, but she's delivering a powerful message.
