08:00 - 08:30P COPS (CP-1611) "RESCUES #1 SPECIAL EDITION"
(TV-14) (SEASON PREMIERE)
Deputies of the Passaic County, New Jersey, respond to a report of a man who fell into a rushing river. At the scene, deputies lend a hand to the rescue effort when two officers and several brave civilians form a human chain and manage to grab hold of the man's arm. Meanwhile, Officers of the Palm Springs, California Police Department assists a unit who has apprehended a burglary suspect at a local casino. Although the suspect is told that he was identified by surveillance video, the suspect denies the charges.

08:30 - 09:00P COPS (CP-1613) "RESCUES #2 SPECIAL EDITION"
(TV-14) (SEASON PREMIERE)
A Corporal of the Indio, California Police Department is en route to a domestic disturbance call and discovers a distraught husband holding his wife hostage upon arrival. When backup arrives, a number of officers storm the door and rescue the injured victim while a scuffle with the delirious suspect breaks out. In another segment featuring a Corporal of the Passaic County's Sheriff's Office, New Jersey, stops a vehicle for a traffic violation in a high drug area of the city to question a naive driver who eventually admits that her boyfriend was looking for drugs.

SEALING THE DEAL

Getting ready to go into the boss' office and ask for a raise? Or, maybe you're shopping for a new car. Monday, we'll talk about the fine art of negotiation.

Tuesday September 23, 2003
POLITICS & MONEY

More and more U.S. jobs are headed overseas as manufacturers find it cheaper to pay for labor and equipment – so what does this have to do the dollar? And what companies are moving abroad? We'll talk to the experts.

Wednesday September 24, 2003
BUDGET: WITHOUT BEING A CHEAPSKATE

As consumers try to keep their spending in check as the economy continues to lose jobs, we take First Business to the grocery store and talk to the editor of the 11-year old newsletter, Cheapskate Monthly about how you can save – starting today.

Thursday September 25, 2003
RICH DAD, POOR DAD

We talk to the author of the widely successful series about what it takes to retire wealthy, and early. Robert T. Kiyosaki joins us for a lively discussion on the markets and what to do if your nest egg isn't as well-padded as it once was.

08:00 - 08:30P COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1533) (TV-14)
In Alberquerque NM, Officers attempt to solve a case involving a man who was stabbed in the bedroom of his home. In Riverside County, CA, a Deputy questions a man seen loitering in a private park after hours, and when he conducts a search of the suspect, he discovers drugs hidden inside a deodorant can. Meanwhile in Pierce County, WA, a Deputy pulls over a suspicious driver operating a car with a stolen license plate and the driver claims ownership... despite operating the ignition with a screwdriver.

08:30 - 09:00P COPS "COAST TO COAST" (CP-1524) (R-05/03/2003) (TV-PG: V)
"LAZARUS" - Deputies of the Pierce County Police Department investigates a 911 hang-up call. At the scene, a female victim tells the officers that two men kicked in her front door. She identifies one of the suspects as "John" - a man she has a restraining order against. "WOODEN LEG, CAN'T RIDE" - A Sgt. of the Albuquerque Police Department investigates three suspects he observed trying to steal a bicycle in an alley. "TYCO TURMOIL" - A Deputy of the Davidson County Sheriff's Department responds to an incomplete 911 call. At the scene of the call, a man answers the door and deceptively tells Deputy Soles that nobody called 911. Following routine questioning of the man's petrified and bruised wife, the Deputy arrests the husband for domestic abuse.
