09:00 - 10:00P AMERICA'S MOST WANTED "JACKSONVILLE COPS -
AMW CROSSOVER FOLLOW UP SPECIAL EDITION"
(MW-1408) (TV-PG: V)

When JOHN WALSH, the host of AMW, rode with the FOX TV show COPS last May, he did what anyone would after working for hours on end -- he took a dinner break. After finishing a steak at The American Cafe, Walsh and the officers returned to patrolling the streets of Jacksonville, FL. Two weeks later, when the COPS/AMW crossover show aired, Walsh and the officers were shocked to learn that one of the profiled fugitives had cooked MR. WALSH's dinner the night of the COPS taping. ASGAR ALI of Orlando, FL, the cook wanted for attempted murder and attempted armed robbery with a weapon, was promptly arrested by the same officers who had eaten dinner with Walsh.

FOX NEWS SUNDAY TOPICS FOR OCTOBER 15, 2000

FOX NEWS SUNDAY TALKS WITH FORMER PRIME MINISTER OF ISRAEL
BENJAMIN ETANYAHU

TOPICS & GUESTS:

Benjamin Netanyahu, former Prime Minister of Israel, will talk about the recent violence in the Middle East and the future of peace in the region.

Saturday, October 14, 2000

08:00 - 08:30P COPS "JACKSONVILLE" (CP-1306) (TV-PG: V)
"BEST BUY 2" - The Sheriff's Vice Unit conducts an undercover "buy-bust" sting operation designed to capture drug dealers engaged in illegal activity in a problem area of the city. "ROCKY RACCOON" - Officers respond to an animal call, where a homeowner reported finding hissing raccoons in her chimney. "THAT'S MY STORY" - Police pull over a vehicle after seeing the driver pick up a prostitute in a neighborhood known for prostitution. During questioning, the male driver gives several assorted explanations as to why he was in the area. The passenger admits she's a prostitute and tells the officer that the driver was looking for a date, but a deal was never made.

08:30 - 09:00P COPS "ALBUQUERQUE" (CP-1233) (R-05/20/2000)
(TV-14)
"THE LAST STING" - The Albuquerque Police Vice Unit sets up a sting operation designed to catch prostitutes and drug dealers engaged in illegal activity. "GENE'S FIRST STORY" - Police respond to a traffic incident involving two male suspects who were driving in a pick-up truck and spotted a van containing suspects with whom they had a dispute several days earlier. Both parties began throwing items at each other's vehicles and the drivers of the pick-up eventually rammed the van off the road. "DERICK SPLITNOSE" - Police respond to a reported fight taking place outside a nearby apartment complex, where a suspect is found wandering outside with serious injuries to his face. The suspect, clearly intoxicated, is belligerent and uncooperative with the officers.

09:00 - 10:00P AMERICA'S MOST WANTED "MOST DANGEROUS JOB IN AMERICA SPECIAL EDITION" (MW-1409) (TV-PG: V)

With 243 murdered and more than 10,000 robbed at gunpoint in the past 10 years, there's no doubt why the Occupational Safety and Health Administration have labeled it "the most dangerous job in America."

AMERICA'S MOST WANTED introduces viewers to New York City's livery cab drivers, the bearers of this unwelcome distinction. These cabbies make a living riding some of the meanest streets in America, provide transportation for residents of neighborhoods to which other cab companies refuse to travel. AMW viewers learn why these drivers continue to work under such great risks and what they do to cope. Join us, as we go undercover with New York City Police working as decoy drivers to put an end to the New York City livery cab driver's backseat nightmare

09:00 - 10:00P AMERICA'S MOST WANTED "UNDERCOVER SPECIAL
EDITION" (MW-1413) (TV-PG)

AMERICA'S MOST WANTED goes undercover with police agencies throughout the country to catch the worst of the worst. AMW correspondents will ride with New Jersey State Police to bust the most elusive car thieves. Then the show will travel with the US Coast Guard to nab international drug runners. AMW will also air footage of an armed robbery caught on tape and an action-packed re-enactment of a high speed car chase and gunfight. Viewers will get an "insider's look" into what it's like to be with police during undercover, top secret stings.

TOPICS & GUESTS:

Senate Democratic Campaign Committee Chairman Robert Torricelli (D-NJ) and Senate Majority Leader Trent Lott (R-MS) discuss the new composition of the Senate and the uncertainty of the presidential election. Rep. William Tauzin (R-LA), chairman of the House Commerce Subcommittee on Telecommunications, talks about upcoming hearings regarding the media's mistaken reporting of the Florida vote count.

08:00 - 08:30P COPS "JACKSONVILLE" (CP-1307) (TV-14)
"BEST BUY" - The Sheriff's Vice Unit serves a warrant on a trailer where a female resident "Silvia" is suspected of selling crack cocaine. Silvia's quickly arrested without incident. As planned, undercover Vice Officers pose as drug dealers who aim to capture customers who enter an agreement to make an illegal drug transaction at the residence. "T-BIRD TAKEDOWN" - A Jacksonville sheriff pulls over a vehicle which is suspected of being stolen. A male driver and his two passengers are ordered to exit the vehicle and are taken into custody and the vehicle is confirmed as stolen. "CHUMP CHANGE" - At a robbery call, three males are reported to have burglarized a change machine at a coin operated car wash.

08:30 - 09:00P COPS "ALBUQUERQUE" (CP-1228) (RR-02/26/2000, 07/08/2000) (TV-14)
"PIT STOP" - Deputies chase a male suspect driving a sports car. The suspect, wanted for numerous armed robberies, has apparently run from law enforcement on several past occasions and reportedly fired shots at the officers. "I LOVE YOU" - Police respond to a distress call involving a female suspect who is extremely despondent following the recent death of her husband. "ALL TIED UP" - Police respond to a domestic dispute call involving an under-age male suspect who was apparently arguing with his family inside their apartment. At the scene, the bloodied young suspect is found being held down by family members with his arms tied behind his back.

09:00 - 10:00P AMERICA'S MOST WANTED (MW-1414) (TV-PG: V)
AMERICA'S MOST WANTED goes on the trail of Richard Vallee, a reported demolitions expert and drug smuggler for the Hell's Angels motorcycle gang in Quebec. In 1997, with the help of an undercover informant, police took Vallee into custody on cocaine trafficking charges. But according to police, Vallee got his jaw broken in a jailhouse fight so that he could escape while receiving treatment in the hospital. After Vallee's escape, the undercover informant, scheduled to be a lead witness in Vallee's trial, died in a car explosion
