

KCQL Q3, 2015 Quarterly Issues Report Addendum

Specifics related to Four Corners Focus Public Affairs Program

Issue: Education, Recreation, Physical Activity, Family Activity

Program Title: Services and activities San Juan College provides students and community.

Guest: Marsha Sterling/Student Activities/San Juan College

Date: 07/05/2015

Time: 7:30am

Duration: 28:27

Description: Talked about fun and exciting ways community members and students can become more involved in various activities planned and provided by the Office Of Student Activities at San Juan College. Some examples discussed were Outdoor Movie Nights shown on the wall of the Henderson Arts Center, the yearly Native American Pow Wow, and The Human Growth & Performance Center, a world class facility located on campus.

---

Issue: Cultural Entertainment, Community Involvement, Education, Performing Arts

Program Title: Silhouette Series

Guest: Linanne Easley, Director, Silhouette Series, San Juan College

Date: 07/12/2015

Time: 7:30am

Duration: 29:26

Description: Discussed the many opportunities for members of the general public to get to see world class entertainment here in Farmington by way of the Silhouette Series, a group of Performing Arts shows presented year round in performance spaces at San Juan College. Talked about interesting performances in the past like Blue Man Group, various Chautauqua artists, Chinese Acrobats and more. Also discussed upcoming events including Choir, Jazz, Orchestra concerts all for the community.

---

Issue: Law Enforcement, Community Safety, Children and community police relations

Program Title: Aztec National Night Out

Guest: Police Chief Mike Hill/Aztec Police Department

Date: 07/19/2015

Time: 7:30am

Duration: 28:42

Description: Discussed upcoming National Night Out evening in Aztec, centered on improving Citizen/Law Enforcement relations and the need nationwide for better ways to accomplish this task. Night will feature Emergency/Fire & Police personnel to meet and greet the public, especially focusing on children, to introduce them to the idea that Police are the "Good Guys" who are ready to help them. Also discussed ways to be vigilant in the community to help Law Enforcement do their job day to day.

---

Issue: Health Care, Race Relations, Education, Culture, Drug Treatment

Program Title: Navajo Medical & Social Services

Guest: Wilfred Moses-Navajo Traditional Health Initiative

Date: 07/26/2015

Time: 7:30am

Duration: 29:37

Description: Mr. Moses is a Medicine Man and treatment educator with the Navajo Nation tribe. He has taken both and combined them into a treatment philosophy that combines Navajo religious tradition with practical modern medicine practices. He described the two ancient paths to the audience that he has brought into play to battle what he believes are the two biggest abuse threats to his people: Meth and Suicide.

---

Issue: Continuing Education, Healthcare, Career Advancement, Growing Economy, Jobs

Program Title: San Juan College New Health Science Certificates

Guest: Dr. Teddy Farias

Date: 08/02/15

Time: 7:30am

Duration: 28:50

Description: Introduced Dr. Farias as new head of Health Sciences Department at San Juan College. Discussed his background and ideas to improve the program including the addition of new certificates related specifically to the nursing program aimed at helping community members continue to advance to get better jobs and higher wages. Also discussed the need for well trained medical professionals in the area.

---

Issue: Community Relations, Advocacy, Racism, Culture, Citizenship

Program Title: Companeros Immigration Advocacy in Durango

Guest: Danny Quinlan

Date: 08/09/15

Time: 7:30am

Duration: 28:55

Description: Talked about basic, yet very complicated issues facing both documented and undocumented immigrants in the region, such as jobs, racism, becoming citizens of the United States, getting healthcare, avoiding deportation and how to survive as they struggle for the freedoms Americans enjoy. Discussion also centered on trying to eliminate the many stereotypes and open up about the myths surrounding this large portion of our community.

---

Issue: Battered Women, Domestic Violence, Volunteerism, Family Advocacy

Program Title: Masada House

Guest: Mo Tiga

Date: 08/16/15

Time: 7:30am

Duration: 30:21

Description: Discussion about Masada House, a non-profit shelter for women and their children who are victims of domestic violence and abuse. Free of charge, Masada House offers women a place to be safe away from their abuser while they are offered various appropriate social services and counseling to help break the chain of abuse. They are held accountable for behavior in and outside of the house to staff and each other. Limited number of beds, (8), means clients need to be serious. Also discussed upcoming benefit golf tournament that will provide funds for the facility.

---

Issue: Community Events, Race Relations, Art, Performing Arts, Education

Program Title: Totah Festival

Guest: Bart Wilsey/Farmington Museum

Date: 08/23/15

Time: 7:30am

Duration: 27:17

Description: Talked about long running local Totah Festival, a yearly event celebrating the art of the local indigenous peoples. The festival includes many activities such as a Native American Pow Wow, traditional dancing, contests, arts & crafts, silver smithing, drum circles and more. The festival's top attraction is the rug auction, known for the incredible and vast array of Indian woven rugs, attended each year by buyers literally worldwide, live and by phone.

---

Issue: Arts, Community Service, Entertainment, Local Historical Education

Program Title: Kiwanis Dining With The Dead

Guest: Jill McQuery

Date: 08/30/15

Time: 7:30am

Duration: 29:23

Description: An annual fund raising event put on by one of two Kiwanis (service) Clubs in Farmington, Dining With The Dead features dinner and a tour through one of this area of the country's oldest graveyards. On the tour, clients stop at gravesites of some of the areas most colorful long deceased citizens, who "come back" from the grave to tell tales of their lives and the times they lived in. The monies raised go to Kiwanis for use in their many community service programs, many of which deal with helping underprivileged kids.

---

Issue: Community Service, Legal Advice, Charitable Services

Program Title: San Juan County Legal Fair

Guest: Judge Daylene Marsh

Date: 09/06/15

Time: 7:30am

Duration: 30:02

Description: Local lawyers and judges took a day and provided totally free legal advice to those in need. No matter the financial situation or case, well over 1,000 were served last year with more expected this year. Also provided will be free seminars regarding legal precedent, including an informational seminar for farmers and landowners regarding the recent Gold King Mine Disaster which spilled millions of gallons of toxic wastewater into the San Juan and Animas rivers.

---

Issue: Community Service, Healthcare, Senior Care, Exercise, Education

Program Title: Alzheimer's Walk

Guest: Katie Roper/Vangie Neal

Date: 09/13/15

Time: 7:30am

Duration: 28:50

Description: Talked with two advocates about Alzheimer's disease. Who gets it? Why? What are the causes and what are myths about the disease? Where can both victims and their families, caretakers, loved ones go for resources in the area to help cope with the disease on a daily basis? Also discussed the upcoming Memory Walk intended to bring attention to a silent disease that robs many families of their loved ones. Is there a cure coming? More research?

---

Issue: Children's Issues, Child Safety, Exercise, Education, Children's Arts, Family Activities

Program Title: Sycamore Park Community Center

Guest: Vonna Victor/Programming Director

Date: 09/20/15

Time: 7:30am

Duration: 29:07

Description: Discussed calendar of events and activities upcoming at Sycamore Park Community Center, a place for children to go for daily and after-school programs, including games, crafts, homework help, computer bank, pool and foosball tables, gymnasium play and yearly activities like the Daddy/Daughter Dance, Family Campout and Mother/Son Dodgeball Tournament and Ice Cream Social.

---

Issue: Women's Rights, Domestic Violence, Women's Safety, Family Help, Volunteerism

Program Title: Gena Rych 5K Memorial Run for Durango Women's Resource Center

Guest: Danielle Enea/Sister Of Gena Rych

Date: 09/27/15

Time: 7:30am

Duration: 28:58

Description: Gena Rych was a well respected member of the Durango community and a tireless advocate of the Women's Resource Center who tragically lost her life in a mountain plane crash a few years ago. Since then, her sister and friends have recognized her by putting on the Memorial 5K Run with all proceeds benefiting the center which provides services like legal assistance, emergency housing, business and job help, counseling and women's empowerment and self sufficiency classes. Also discussed the many ways to volunteer at the center.