WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

4/15/2013 55 MIN Brannon Howse
M-F 1:00PM Brannon began the program by using an illustration comparing the deaths of Americans in different wars and how many Americans have died due to abortion. He then talked about those who take John 17 where Christ is praying that all of His people may be one. Many in the NAR and other movements such as Word of Faith and Emergent Church take this passage out of context and say Christ is praying that all would be one--all Catholics, Methodists, Lutherans, Baptists, etc. Many of these are not even part of the Body of Christ, because they have never been truly born again. This is nothing more than a new ecumenical movement that may very well unite all beliefs into the apostate church of the Tribulation Period.

WVCM

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

4/17/2013 55 MIN Brannon Howse

M-F 1:00PM

Brannon began the program by talking briefly about the connection between the UN and the Roman Catholic Church or the Vatican with UN Secretary General Ban Ki-moon calling Pope Francis the spiritual leader of the world. Then he spent the remainder of the program talking about Brennan Manning who just passed away April 12, 2013, was a Franciscan Priest, and was author of "The Ragamuffin Gospel." Many Evangelicals such as Beth Moore and others quote Manning quite often. He was a Post-Modern thinker. He was one of the people who had tried to bring "mysticism" such as contemplative prayer into Evangelical churches. He attended a Jesuit camp one time each year. He is not a man we should hold up as having great Biblical knowledge.

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

4/23/2013 55 MIN Brannon Howse and Jim Fletcher

M-F 1:00PM

Jim Fletcher is a columnist and has a website, "ProphecyMatters.com," and he discussed how so many second generation Christians of high profile pastors such as Charles Stanley's son Andy has decided to move farther to the left of his father, but his father still has him speak often. Jim Fletcher also talked about his newest article entitled, "Unraveling." Many of these sons of high profile pastors are embracing the social justice and social gospel messages and are becoming more friendly with Muslims, NAR, Rick Warren, the UN, and others who have left the simple message of the Gospel and are more concerned with world peace, social justice, and embracing a one-world government and religion.

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

4/24/2013 55 MIN Brannon Howse

M-F 1:00PM

Brannon continued his study that he started on Monday where he discussed how many Muslims are being said to becoming followers of Jesus through dreams and visions of angels and men appearing in long, white robes. He also talked about the book, "Epicenter" by Joel Rosenberg who talks about many Muslims becoming followers of Jesus through visions of angels and a man appearing in a long, white robe. Rosenberg quotes one who said he doesn't know any Muslim who has gotten saved other than those who were saved through visions. Brannon also quotes from an article in the Southern Baptist Convention's "North American Mission Board" where the author says we need to pray for Afghan Muslims in North America to get saved through visions and dreams. This kind of mysticism is being accepted by denominations and church groups today that would never have accepted it before.

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

5/2/2013 55 MIN Brannon Howse and Dr. Randy White

M-F 1:00PM

Dr. Randy White is the Teaching Pastor of "First Baptist Church" of Katy, Texas, and has a website called "RandyWhiteMinistries.org," and he discussed how some major denominations such as the Southern Baptists and Assemblies of God are saying that we must have unity within the churches at any cost. They have combined with groups that are obviously false teachers, just for the sake of unity. They try to make a key doctrinal issues minor and are willing to sacrifice those important issues for the sake of unity.

WVCM

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

5/6/2013 55 MIN Brannon Howse and Ed Newby

M-F 1:00PM

Ed Newby is with "The Berean Call" out of Oregon, and he discussed a recent article he wrote entitled, "The Shocking Lack Of Discernment" which talks about Evangelicals promoting the heresies of Herbert W. Armstrong and his "British Israelism" and "Worldwide Church of God." These teachings are total heresy, and yet they are being more accepted in some Evangelical churches today. "World Net Daily" News Editor Joe Kovacs seems to parallel the teachings of Herbert W. Armstrong's "Worldwide Church of God." In Kovacs' latest book "The Divine Secret" he parallels Armstrong's teachings. They also talked about Michael Rude who seems to be a proponent of "Jewish Roots," which is a movement for people to become Jews, because they believe Christ is coming back soon to establish His Kingdom.

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

5/9/2013 55 MIN Brannon Howse and Dr. Randy White

M-F 1:00PM

Dr. Randy White is the Teaching Pastor of "First Baptist Church" of Katy, Texas, and he discussed some of the false teachings and teachers that many formerly conservative and pro-family organizations such as AFA are embracing. Brannon played some audio clips of Steve Hill doing an interview on an AFA radio program. He also played an audio clip of Heidi Baker on AFA radio. Both of these individuals teach extra-Biblical revelation, mysticism, and all the other NAR teachings. These false teachers do not recognize the sufficiency or authority of the Scriptures. These are literally false teachers warning about false teaching.

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

5/13/2013 55 MIN Brannon Howse and Mike Gendron

M-F 1:00PM

Mike Gendron is a former Roman Catholic for over 30 years and is with "ProclaimingTheGospel.org," and he discussed how more and more Evangelicals are embracing Catholicism. He related the recent occasion when he spoke at Francis Chan's church "Cornerstone Community Church" in California where after Mike had spoken for about an hour and a half about the errors of Catholicism, Francis Chan got up and apologized to the audience for what Mike had just said. At a "Steeling The Mind" conference after Mike spoke, Tim LaHaye got up and told the audience not to believe anything that the previous speaker had said. Political correctness and fear of offending Catholics or Muslims are keeping many Evangelical pastors from speaking the truth of the Gospel, and are rather moving more toward ecumenicalism.

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

5/14/2013 55 MIN Brannon Howse

M-F 1:00PM

Brannon discussed why pastoral rule is not Biblical. He talked about some Sunday School classes being worthless, because the teacher is not qualified nor prepared. Some churches are run by one man who has no accountability to any deacon or elder board. This type of church leadership and polity has no foundation in the New Testament.

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

5/16/2013 55 MIN Brannon Howse and Pastor Anonymous

M-F 1:00PM

Pastor anonymous has been a pastor for a number of years, and he continued the discussion that Brannon began two days previous about why a Senior Pastor as opposed to a plurality of elders is not the Biblical model of church government. They talked about the problems that can arise when one senior pastor is given too much power. They discussed how a board of elders provides accountability and checks and balances in a church government.

WVCM

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

5/27/2013 55 MIN Brannon Howse

M-F 1:00PM

Brannon began the program by using an illustration comparing the deaths of Americans in different wars and how many Americans have died due to abortion. He then talked about those who take John 17 where Christ is praying that all of His people may be one. Many in the NAR and other movements such as Word of Faith and Emergent Church take this passage out of context and say Christ is praying that all would be one--all Catholics, Methodists, Lutherans, Baptists, etc. Many of these are not even part of the Body of Christ, because they have never been truly born again. This is nothing more than a new ecumenical movement that may very well unite all beliefs into the apostate church of the Tribulation Period.

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

5/28/2013 55 MIN Brannon Howse and Pastor Jordan Hall

M-F 1:00PM

Brannon played an audio clip of a message by Pastor Jordan Hall who is a Southern Baptist Pastor in Montana. In the message he challenged not only the Southern Baptists but all other Evangelical denominations to get back to the simple Gospel, holiness, repentance, and New Testament Christianity. He told of all of the great edifices that Southern Baptist Churches have erected, the great colleges and seminaries, baptisms, salvation decisions, programs, and many other things, but they have more people leaving Baptist churches now more than ever before. They have some of the most worldly people in their churches, and they are losing their young people as soon as they leave the home. Pastor Hall joined Brannon live during the second half of the program. He gave some follow up on the message.

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

5/30/2013 55 MIN Brannon Howse and Steve Camp

M-F 1:00PM

Steve Camp is a former CCM artist and now pastors "The Cross Church" in Palm City, Florida, and he discussed a conference hosted by Pastor John Piper entitled "The Romantic Rationalist" which is about the life of author and lay theologian C.S. Lewis. He also discussed the worldview of Lewis and a little about his theology.

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

6/10/2013 55 MIN Brannon Howse and Pastor Jesse Johnson

M-F 1:00PM

Brannon played an audio clip of Pastor Jesse Johnson speaking at the Branson, Missouri, "Worldview Weekend." He spoke about how Social Justice has crept into the churches and changed the mission of the churches. The mission of the churches is not to impact society, but to preach the Gospel and let it transform society one person at a time. He compared the mission of Old Testament Israel to the mission of the New Testament churches. It is not the churches' mission to feed the world.

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

6/11/2013 55 MIN Brannon Howse and Pastor Jesse Johnson

M-F 1:00PM

Jesse Johnson is the Teaching Pastor at "Immanuel Bible Church" in Springfield, Virginia, and he discussed what it means to be under the authority of the Devil, what his church is going to do in allowing the Boy Scouts to use their church facilities with the new policy of allowing homosexuals in the scouts, and the difference in the mission and model of the nation of Israel and the New Testament Church.

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

6/25/2013 55 MIN Brannon Howse and Pastor Randy White

M-F 1:00PM

Brannon began the program by talking about the Immigration Reform Bill that is being pushed by many Christian leaders and what that bill contains and what would be its impact on our society. Pastor Randy White is Senior Pastor of "First Baptist Church" of Cady, Texas, just outside of Houston, and he discussed how many Southern Baptists and other Evangelicals have gotten on the green bandwagon, supporting the radical environmental agenda of climate control and almost worshipping the planet as being part of God's revelation, and not taking care of God's creation as being likened to tearing a page out of the Bible. He also talked about the push by many Christians to accept the homosexual lifestyle as normal. The "Exodus International" organization has released an apology statement for trying to change homosexuals into being "straight," but instead accepting homosexuals as they are.

CROSSTALK

M-F 2:00PM, Dr. Katherine Albrecht is a privacy expert, a consumer activist, award- winning author, and broadcaster who helped develop startpage.com, the world's most private search engine. She detailed how such well-used websites as Google.com, while useful for searching or managing email, is at the same time using multiple technologies to collect data on those using their services, and even to glean--through Googlemaps.com--photographic images that provide detailed information about nearly every square inch of the planet, including the back yards of Google users. She detailed an alternate website, startpage.com, which provides private access to Google searches that isolate their ability to gather information from individual users.
REPEAT 8:00PM

REVEALING THE TRUTH ABOUT ISLAM

5/6/2013 25 MIN Usama Dakdok
M-F 12:30PM Usama concluded his study of who is greater--Jesus Christ or Mohammed?
Sept. Mohammed killed and forced people to believe in Islam, while Christ saw millions of followers come to Him because of His own personal character and teaching. Mohammed was demon possessed, but Christ cast demons out of people and delivered them. Christ taught a life of love, while Mohammed taught a religion of hate, terror, and murder. Mohammed taught his disciples to use the sword, but Christ taught His disciples to reach out to the world in love and share the Word of truth about Jesus Christ.

REVEALING THE TRUTH ABOUT ISLAM

5/28/2013 25 MIN Usama Dakdok
M-F 12:30PM Usama continued his study of "Finding Jesus In The Koran." He continued his Sept. discussion of the death of Jesus in the Koran. Muslims teach that Christ did not die on the cross, but another young man who looked just like Jesus or Isa did. The Koran says that Isa had 17 disciples instead of 12, and he asked them which one would be willing to take his place and be crucified on the cross for him. One young man who Allah made to look just like Isa died in his place on the cross. Muslims teach that Christ was not killed by the Jews. All of these fabrications just again show how the Koran is just a cheap inaccurate counterfeit of the true Biblical account.

Muslims do not have any verses that teach Muslims should love all men, but it only talks about the love in a sexual way between a husband and a wife. The New Testament clearly teaches that God and all Christians are to love all men, even non-Christians in John 3:16 and many other verses. Muslims are taught to hate the infidels, Christians and Jews. Allah teaches them to hate the infidels and perform Jihad against them. When we talk about the Four Gospels, we simply mean the "good news" about Jesus' birth, death, and resurrection according to Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. Mohammed did not know what this meant. He thought the Gospel meant the fact that Mary became pregnant and moved to the East to fast and give birth under a palm tree. The Koran says that Jesus spoke to His mother Mary as soon as He was born and comforted her. He told His mother to shake the palm tree, and fresh dates would fall off for her. The Jesus of the Koran told His mother to disobey her fast and eat and drink. If any people came by she was to lie and tell them she was still fasting. But when the Bridegroom is taken away, his friends will fast often. Mohammed also fabricated the account of the Lord's Supper different from the actual account in the Bible. Dr. John Whitcomb is with "WhitcombMinistries.org," and he discussed and answered questions sent in by listeners such as: 1) The first plague by Moses in Exodus was turning water to blood and Jesus' first miracle was turning water to wine. Is there any significance to this? 2) Exodus 20 tells the direction of the steps leading up to the temple and other places have the steps in the opposite direction. Is there a contradiction? 3) How can Jesus be God and still be a servant to God? 4) What rules of interpretation do we have when we study the Old Testament so we do not claim promises that were only made to Israel? 5) My pastor says after praying, we should stop and listen to God to talk back to us in a still small voice. He says prayer is a two-way street. Is this nothing more than contemplative prayer? Should we listen for God to answer us in a still small voice? 6) My pastor believes you can lose your salvation if you lose your faith in Jesus Christ. Is an apostate one who never trusted Christ as Savior? Once you lose your faith, can you ever get it back again? 7) Does Matthew 24:15-20 indicate that the Church will go through at least a portion of the Tribulation Period? 8) The Bible says that the Antichrist cannot be revealed until the restrainer, the Holy Spirit, is taken out of the world. If that is true, how shall people get saved during the Tribulation Period?

The leader of the "Family Research Council," Tony Perkins, claims to be a watchman on the wall, but he continues to unite with those in the NAR, Word of Faith, Prosperity Gospel, David Barton, Glenn Beck, Pastor Jim Garlow, and other questionable groups. He has also promoted things such as the "Oak Initiative," the prayer conference held in Texas, and other questionable events. If he doesn't have the spiritual discernment to separate from these obvious heretical groups, how can we trust him to be a discerning watchman on the wall to warn us about anything genuinely dangerous?

WORLDVIEW WEEKEND RADIO

M-F 1:00PM

Brannon talked about some instances of so-called conversions of Muslims through mystical happenings such as visions of Jesus Christ or a man dressed in a bright white robe with bleeding wounds in his hands coming to them. There is no Gospel presented to them however. Gary Gilley of "Southern View Chapel" in Springfield, Illinois, wrote an article called "Don't You Dare Believe It" which is about these mystical conversions. Brannon quotes from that article many times. Many of these mystical conversions of Muslims take place through the Roman Catholic Church. The RCC says that Muslims will make it to Heaven, whereas Evangelicals who do not recognize the pope's authority, will not. These mystical conversions and experiences have no Biblical basis since salvation is through repentance from one's sins, faith in Christ's finished work on the cross and His promises in the Word of God, and regeneration by the Holy Spirit.

Brannon started the program talking about the fact that 16 new Jesuit priests have just been ordained along with a Jesuit Bishop since the choice of the first Jesuit pope. Jimmy DeYoung is with "ProphecyToday.com," and he gave an update on the news in the Middle East. The Jews are celebrating the reunification of the city of Jerusalem. A record number (100,000) are turning out to celebrate a Gay Pride Festival in the Jewish city of Tel Aviv. The mayor of Tel Aviv has stated that Tel Aviv is the most gay-friendly city in the world. Brannon began the program talking about breaking news that the Evangelical Immigration Table is pushing for passage of the Immigration Bill which will include requiring a National ID Card that would control whether or not you could get a job or travel. It would contain all of your biometric information. It would control your whole life. Could this be a precursor to the Mark of the Beast? Jimmy DeYoung is with "ProphecyToday.com," and he discussed some current events taking place in the Middle East such as: The Syrian Civil War may eventually draw America into another war. This could be a distraction to get people's eyes off of the scandal-ridden Obama Administration. This civil war could erupt into a regional war, involving the whole Middle East. Iran just had an election, and Mahmoud Ahmadinejad was ousted as President. He was not allowed to run for a third term. He had served as President of the Islamic Republic for 12 years. In Turkey the Prime Minister, who is a radical Islamist, wanted to build a mall in the middle of Istanbul park, but many people protested against it. The Prime Minister wants to make Turkey into an Islamic State. Israel is celebrating the formation of the Israeli Defense Force.

M-F 2:00PM,

REPEAT 8:00PM

Jim gave an update on stories in the news today such as: The U.S. Senate voted to pass an amnesty bill to give millions of illegal aliens a path to U.S. citizenship, which has much "pork" attached to it. Several Republican Senators voted along with all of the Democratic Senators to pass the bill. GOP Senators are predicting a quick death to the Senate bill in the U.S. House. Employers will be fined $5,000.00 per employee if they hire a natural born American or a legal alien, but if they hire an illegal alien or amnestied alien, they will not be fined. The IRS employee who pleaded the fifth amendment may be forced to testify, since she gave up her right at an earlier time. Liberals are trying to say Liberals were also scrutinized by the IRS, just like Conservatives. The ACLU is trying to convince conservatives to be more accepting of same-sex freedom to marry issues. They are spending 10 million dollars for this. The Christian Post says pastors were slow to react to the decisions by SCOTUS. This only shows more of the condition of churches in America. A Washington florist, that refused to supply flowers for a gay wedding, is facing a civil suit by the gay couple. A Christian pastor in Nigeria was murdered by Muslim militants, because he refused to convert to Islam. More and more schools are changing their menus to offer more healthy choices for children to eat. Some vending machines are replacing normal snacks with more healthy choices of granola bars and diet drinks. Muslims are saying the revolution in Syria may be the beginning of the worldwide conflagration that will usher in Muslim rule of the world with the return of the last Muslim Mahdi with Jesus Christ at his side. President Obama is using school children to promote and be spokesmen for Obamacare around the nation as the propaganda arm of the healthcare program. In Colorado an elected official is facing a recall election because they supported gun control.

Jimmy DeYoung is with "ProphecyToday.com," and he gave an update on events taking place in the Middle East. Jordan is having war games in their country, because the Jordanian King is afraid the same militants who are trying to overthrow the Syrian President may spill over into his country and try to overthrow him as well. Russia has pulled out some of their troops out of Syria. It is unknown why they are doing this. The President of Egypt is looking at a new revolution taking place in his country, because the same militants who overthrew the previous President may try to overthrow him. Brannon then talked about an article written by Russell Moore of the SBC that appears to be very "gay friendly."

Fran and Jesus on the Job – Incompetent Boss – I

I'm Mary Wheelchel of The Christian Working Woman, and if you've ever worked for someone who was inexperienced, incompetent and/or abrasive, you'll want to hear this week's episode of Fran and Jesus on the Job. Does the Bible have anything to say about dealing with this kind of person? Are we just supposed to live with it? Find out how Jesus guides Fran as she works through the challenge of an incompetent boss—here on The Christian Working Woman.

Fran and Jesus on the Job – Incompetent Boss – II

I'm Mary Wheelchel of The Christian Working Woman, and if you've ever worked for someone who was inexperienced, incompetent and/or abrasive, you'll want to hear this week's episode of Fran and Jesus on the Job. Does the Bible have anything to say about dealing with this kind of person? Are we just supposed to live with it? God's Stop and Go Lights - I

What if there were no stop and go lights on our streets? I'm Mary Wheelchel of The Christian Working Woman, and I think we would all agree that it would be chaotic. Well, the same is true in our spiritual lives. God has stop and go lights for us, and when we ignore them or don't recognize them, we're in more trouble than a fender bender! I'm talking about God's Stop and Go Lights this week. I hope you'll join me here on The Christian Working Woman.

Promo for Script 1464. The Christian Working Woman. To be aired week ending April 27, 2013.

God's Stop and Go Lights - II

Did you ever get stuck in traffic behind a person who stopped at a green light? I'm Mary Wheelchel of The Christian Working Woman, and that's irritating, isn't it? Well, when God is giving us a green light and directing us to do something for him, I imagine he's not too happy when we're stopping as his go light. This week I complete my message on God's Stop and Go Lights. I invite you to join me here for The Christian Working Woman.

Promo for Script 1465. The Christian Working Woman. To be aired week ending May 11, 2013.

The Freedom of Self-Forgetfulness

I'm Mary Wheelchel, and my topic for this upcoming broadcast of The Christian Working Woman is The Freedom of Self-Forgetfulness. It almost seems like an oxymoron, doesn't it—to find freedom through self-forgetfulness? That's certainly not the message we get from our culture, but I assure you, it is God's truth and it will set you free when you learn to just forget yourself. I hope you'll join me this week here on The Christian Working Woman.

Promo for Script 1466. The Christian Working Woman. To be aired week ending May 11, 2013.

Before the Throne

I'm Mary Wheelchel of The Christian Working Woman, and many Christians struggle with having a consistent, meaningful prayer life. Why? Well, lots of reasons, but one of the main reasons is we see prayer as a duty rather than a privilege. This week I'm going to dramatize what it means to have the privilege of prayer—to go into God's throne room and talk with him personally. Join me here on The Christian Working Woman.

Promo for Script 1467. The Christian Working Woman. To be aired week ending May 18, 2013.

Get Over It - I

Has anyone ever said to you, "Get over it"? I'm Mary Wheelchel of The Christian Working Woman, and believe it or not, that's the title of my new book: Get Over It: Letting Go and Moving Forward with God. This week I'm going to preview some chapters from my book as I talk about getting over needing the approval of others, and getting over your unrealistic expectations. I think you'll find it helpful, so join me here for The Christian Working Woman.

Promo for Script 1468. The Christian Working Woman. To be aired week ending May 25, 2013.

Get Over It - II

I'm Mary Wheelchel of The Christian Working Woman, and this week I'm going to talk about the boxes we put ourselves in. Boxes that confine us and limit our freedom to serve God. I'll be sharing from my new book, Get Over It: Letting Go and Moving Forward with God. I truly believe many of us are stuck in boxes of our own doing, and God wants us to get outside those boxes. Join me here for The Christian Working Woman.

Working Woman, to be aired week ending June 1, 2013.

Living a Friend – I

I'm Mary Wheelchel of The Christian Working Woman, and this is my first time on the air. I must confront her good friend who has made a very bad choice. I speak the truth in love? Proverbs says that wounds from a friend are more than a hundred blows from a stranger. Join me here for The Christian Working Woman.

Working Woman, to be aired week ending June 8, 2013.

Living a Friend – II

I'm Mary Wheelchel, and if you've ever had a good friend suddenly change, you'll be able to relate to our friend, Fran on this week's program. Fran learns what it means to speak the truth in love—as God gives us the ability to join me and see how this touchy situation turns out. Here on The Christian Working Woman.

Working Woman, To be aired week ending June 22, 2013.

Our Life – II

I live with—a very foolish person? I'm Mary Wheelchel of The Christian Working Woman, and I think it's good to know how to respond according to biblical principles can take a lot of time. I show you these principles right from God's Word; they are successful. Find out how to deal with foolish people, this week on The Christian Working Woman.

Promo for Script 1473, The Christian Working Woman, to be aired week ending June 29, 2013.

Don't Do Something; Just Stand There!

I'm Mary Wheelchel, and you've heard it said: Don't just stand there; do something! Well, my topic this week on The Christian Working Woman is just the opposite: Don't Do Something; Just Stand There. Did you know there are times when God wants us to stand still and see the salvation of the Lord? If you find it hard to stand still, I think this message will help you. I hope you'll join me this week here on The Christian Working Woman.

Promo for Script 1474, The Christian Working Woman, to be aired week ending July 6, 2013.

The Perils of Perfectionism

Are you a perfectionist? I'm Mary Wheelchel of The Christian Working Woman, and I think it's good that there are people who strive for perfection. However, all-too-often trying to be perfect is symptomatic of some underlying issues, and there is great peril for you when you are obsessed with trying to be perfect. That's what I'm talking about this week. Please plan to join me here for The Christian Working Woman.

For Apr 5, 2013

A pastor of a well-known church which is highly respected shared with dismay that 40% of his people were engaging in immoral actions. What is the answer to sin in the church? Shall we ignore it? Say it isn't that important or face it head on with grace?

For Apr 10, 2013

Some people say that physical things are not important to God, that what you do with your body isn't important to God and that what matters is what happens on the inside. This is an ancient heresy and we see it cropping up again today. Join Jonathan Williams on the Heaven and Home Hour as he continues his series, "Sin – Our Illusions/God's Solutions".

HEAVEN AND HOME HOUR

For Apr 15, 2013

How do we know who true Christians are? If we were to conduct a religious poll in our country, 94% of the people would say they believe in God. Large percentages of these would say that they are Christians. But we look at such reports with bewilderment. If so many people truly are Christians, why is our society the way it is? Today on the Heaven and Home Hour Jonathan Williams begins a 4-part series, The Marks of Genuine Christianity.

For Apr 16, 2013

Here is how we know a genuine Christian from a counterfeit. The genuine Christian lives like Jesus lived. He has the same mindset. The same priorities. The same goals. In short, he obeys Jesus. John gives a second mark of genuine Christianity. It is the mark of love. Join Jonathan Williams on the Heaven and Home Hour as he brings part 2 of his series, The Marks of Genuine Christianity.

For Apr 17, 2013

Today on the Heaven and Home Hour, Jonathan Williams is going to look at the third mark of a genuine Christian, one who holds to the apostolic teaching that was delivered by those the Lord chose to spread his word. This mark of genuine Christianity is truth. Obedience, love, and truth are John's threefold test of authenticity.

For Apr 18, 2013

Today on the Heaven and Home Hour Jonathan Williams will share with us the first of a 2-part series, "How to Achieve Out of this World Success."

Imagine yourself in a great courtroom in the first century. On one side are attorneys for the false religion of Gnosticism. They are trying to convert the jury, a group of Christian churches, to leave the historic faith and come to their side and their new religion. But on the other side, defending the Gospel, we find an old man. This old man is the apostle John and he calls three witnesses to the stand. Jonathan Williams will talk about these witnesses in this great courtroom battle today on the Heaven and Home Hour in the first part of his 2-part message, The Witness.

For June 7, 2013

The apostle John said there were three witnesses that confirmed the historical validity of our faith. He said they were the water, the blood, and the Spirit. But what do these three witnesses refer to? How does their testimony work together, and how do they establish historic Christianity? Join Jonathan Williams on the Heaven and Home today as he concludes his 2-part message, The Witness.

For June 10, 2013

Is prayer a monologue or a dialog between you and God. Do you do all the talking, or do you learn how to listen and pray with greater discernment? You will learn the conditions to see answers to prayer and expand your understanding of what answered prayer looks like.

For June 12, 2013

I think a lot of us have received good instruction on what to do when we sin. We should humble ourselves, confess, and get our hearts right with God. But what happens when we catch another believer in sin? Should we ignore it? Should we judge? Or, does God have another path for us to take that will bring him glory and help the believer caught in sin? Join Jonathan Williams on the Heaven and Home Hour as he speaks on Mature Praying.

For June 13, 2013

Is it really possible that some believers are unnecessarily sick because of their sin? Is it possible that some believers die sooner than they should because of their sin? What does Scripture say about praying for people who are in rebellion to God? Today on the Heaven and Home Hour, Jonathan Williams will answer these questions as he continues on his series Steps to Mature Praying.

For June 14, 2013

The Apostle John wrote his book as a treatise to help churches that were being greatly challenged by the dangers of heresy. Join Jonathan Williams as he concludes his series on 1 John, Churches in Spiritual Danger. You will discover that John's words to first century churches have been words for the church throughout history, and important words for our day as well.

This is Jonathan Williams with the Heaven and Home Hour. Join me this week for two very important topics for men. First, I will interview Tom Mayfield as he tells his remarkable story of adopting four young Laotian boys. Second, I begin a new series applicable to all but designed especially for men as I talk about living above reproach in the three arenas of life. Join us for it all on the Heaven and Home Hour.

How important is character building? Well, how important is the foundation of your house? A good foundation, a good house. A good character, a great life. But how do we build great character in our lives? This is Jonathan Williams and I hope you will join me this week on the Heaven and Home Hour as I start a new series, Living Above Reproach that will challenge and inspire every man to build the character of Christ in his life.

For June 24, 2013

What does it mean to be a one-woman man? Today on the Heaven and Home Hour, Jonathan Williams continues his series, Living Above Reproach at home, in private when no one is watching, and in public with others. The area of being a one woman man is a lot more than being married to one woman. It has to do with our thought life and faithfulness in our heart. You'll learn all about this today on the Heaven and Home Hour.

For June 25, 2013

The home is one of the best training grounds for building character. In seminary we can gain an education, but home is where we get the hands-on experience of working with people in close relationship. The work of making sure that our little world of our home is in good shape and good order will turn us into men of God. Join Jonathan Williams today on The Heaven and Home Hour as he explains how we can manage our homes well and live above reproach.

For June 26, 2013

Do you want to be a man of character? You must learn how to make people feel comfortable in your presence and you must make your home a place where ministry can occur. When we read the Gospels we find that many of Christ's miracles and much of his teaching took place in homes. Today on the Heaven and Home Hour, Jonathan Williams continues his series, Living Above Reproach, that will challenge and inspire every man to build the character of Christ in his life.

For June 27, 2013

If men in our churches are going to be above reproach, they have to learn to be above reproach in private. Today, on the Heaven and Home Hour, Jonathan Williams continues his character building series for men by explaining the first two of nine areas where men must learn to be above reproach in their private lives. What we are in public may just be our reputation. What we are in private is our true character. That's Living Above Reproach on the Heaven and Home Hour with Jonathan Williams.

For June 28, 2013

Today on the Heaven and Home Hour, Jonathan Williams continues his series, Living Above Reproach in the Three Arenas of Life where he focuses on who men are when no one is watching. Do you have any private additions? Do you love money? Are you ordering your private world? Learn how you can make progress in these character shaping areas today on the Heaven and Home Hour with Jonathan Williams

SATURDAY & SUNDAY, APRIL 13 & 14 – “BEHIND THE MASK”

Developing Christ-like behavior is essential to the life of a follower of God. But so often we hide behind a mask of religion and miss out on the true freedom that comes from faith. Saturday/Sunday on “Sports Spectrum,” we'll talk with major league umpire, Ted Barrett and Grand Canyon University baseball coach, Andy Stankiewicz (STANK-a-wits) to learn how to find true character and come out from Behind the Mask. SATURDAY & SUNDAY, APRIL 20 & 21 – “HOT CORNER”

Third basemen know line-drives can come their way at any time. And just like in baseball, we need to be prepared for anything life sends our way. Helpful tools for preparing for those unexpected moments Saturday/Sunday . . . at (Time: _____), right here on “Sports Spectrum”!

SATURDAY & SUNDAY, APRIL 27 & 28 – “CLOSER”
