

Description of issue	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Required Sexual Harassment training in Illinois	IL/MO Talk	10/4/20	6am	5:00	Quincy Area Chamber of Commerce Executive Director LaTonya Brock talks about a seminar they will hold concerning a new state law. The law requires all employees to receive on-the-job training about sexual harassment.
Aiding small non-profits in West-Central Illinois	IL/MO Talk	10/11/20	6am	5:00	Catherine Meckes and Heath Richmond with the Community Foundation explain their newly-created "Grow Your Story" grant program, designed to aid smaller non-profit groups in West-Central Illinois.
Sewing masks for Adams County's school children	IL/MO Talk	10/18/20	6am	5:00	Jo Ann Dedert with the Quincy Kiwanis Clubs talks about the clubs' plans to hold the "Kiwanis Mask Up" event October 24. They want to sew protective masks for every school-age child in Adams County.
Blessing Health System in talks to administer a hospital in Keokuk, IA	IL/MO Talk	10/25/20	6am	5:00	Blessing President/CEO Maureen Kahn talks about an initial agreement between them and UnityPoint Health to have Blessing take over operations of UnityPoint Health-Keokuk hospital.
Missouri Amendment 3 on the November 3 ballot	IL/MO Talk	11/1/20	6am	5:00	Missouri State Senator Cindy O'Laughlin (R-18 th District) talks about the amendment that wants to change the process of drawing new district boundaries, just two years after that process was approved by voters.

Description of issue	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Tiny homes for West Central IL veterans	IL/MO Talk	11/8/20	6am	5:00	Marcel Wagner talks about the group 2 x 4's for Hope, and their plan to build a tiny home for an area veteran the first weekend in Nov. The GREDF President also talked about a recent event where high schoolers learned about area manufacturers.
Safety tips for Thanksgiving dinner in the age of COVID-19	IL/MO Talk	11/15/20	6am	5:00	Tony Dede with the Adams County Health Department shares some recommendations for those who will be hosting Thanksgiving dinner this year.
Helping feed the poor in Quincy and Adams County	IL/MO Talk	11/22/20	6am	5:00	Horizons Quincy Executive Director Sarah Stevens and volunteer Will Spear talk about the organization's newly launched online Holiday Giving Catalog. It's a way for the organization to safely raise money to help feed Quincians in need.
Expanding health-care options in the Tri-State area	IL/MO Talk	11/29/20	6am	5:00	Dr. Richard Noble of Quincy Medical Group talks about the organization's new "Hospital at Home" program, to extend hospital-like care to those at home.
The latest on COVID-19 in Adams County	IL/MO Talk	12/6/20	6am	5:00	John Simon with the Adams County Emergency Management Agency gives the latest news on COVID-19 in Quincy and Adams County.

Description of issue	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Bringing manufacturing workers to Quincy	IL/MO Talk	12/13/20	6am	5:00	Marcel Wagner and Joi Austin with the Great River Economic Development Foundation (GREDF) talk about a program they're starting. It would bring manufacturing workers from Puerto Rico to fill jobs in Quincy.
Easing symptoms of COVID-19	IL/MO Talk	12/20/20	6am	5:00	Dr. Chris Solaro of Blessing Health System talks about the new drug, Bamlanivimab, that lessens symptoms of COVID-19 in certain patients.
An update on the United Way of Adams County's annual Campaign	IL/MO Talk	12/27/20	6am	5:00	United Way Director of Development Adam Duesterhaus says that while they're at 75% of their fund-raising goal, it's important they reach 100%.
	IL/MO Talk		6am	5:00
	IL/MO Talk		6am	5:00	