

Kentucky Focus Responsive Issues Report, Fourth Quarter 2021

Bristol Broadcasting Company
Paducah, KY
Quarterly Issues/Programs List
12/31/2021

Newsmakers 10-3-2021 BH

Congressman James Comer joins the Greg Dunker Show to discuss the ongoing battle in the house and senate regarding the trillion dollar infrastructure bill. (0:00-7:30) Greg Dunker speaks with Paducah Mayor George Bray about planned upgrades to the Coke Plant intersection and how the community surrounding the intersection has expanded in recent years. (7:30-11:57) Bill Hughes talks with Mary from the Carson Center about the 17th annual Distiller's Dinner. Mary discusses how the fundraiser benefits the Carson Center. (11:57-15:00)

Newsmakers 10-10-2021 ES

Candace Maloy with the Family Service Society joins the Greg Dunker Show to discuss the Santa for a Senior program. Maloy shares how the program benefits senior citizens and how the public can donate to the program. (0:00-4:34) Greg Dunker speaks with U.S. Senator Rand Paul about the latest big spending bill in the senate. Rand explains the bill and shares why he thinks it's a bad bill. (4:34-11:30) Alan Watts with Traveling the Bluegrass speaks with Kentucky Agriculture Commissioner Ryan Quarles about the National Association of State Department's of Agriculture convention. (11:30-14:50)

Newsmakers 10-17-2021 ES

Newsmakers 10-24-2021 Trish Anderson of the Paducah Housing Authority describes their Thanks and Giving event to Bill Hughes, where they plan to provide baskets containing a traditional Thanksgiving meal to 100 families. They are collecting food and money at two locations in Paducah in hopes of meeting their goal (0:00-3:35) Stave Vasseur talks with Greg Dunker about the latest TV commercials about Medicare Advantage plans and what informed consumers should know (3:40-10:34), Lt. David Donagan shares information about the Salvation Army Angel Tree program. Families are already signing up for assistance getting Christmas gifts for their children, and trees will start showing up in early November. Generous people choose a child and anonymously buy gifts so those kids have a great Christmas (10:35-15:00). BH

Newsmakers 10-31-2021 BY

Paducah Mayor George Bray joins the Greg Dunker Show to discuss the latest news regarding the City of Paducah, including Paducah's homeless situation and how the city can help homeless residents. (0:00-11:38) Alan Watts with Traveling the Bluegrass speaks with Nikky Ellis, the new director of The Kentucky Pork Producers organization. Ellis discusses recent changes in the organization. (11:38-15:00)

Newsmakers 11-7-2021 ES

Dave Winder and Kevin Saul join the Greg Dunker Show to discuss upcoming Murray State Racer basketball and football events and the induction dinner for the 39th class of the Murray State Hall of Fame (0:00-6:25) Alan Watts meets with Estin Glover to share details about the upcoming annual cooperative meeting where farmers were paid back more than $31 million. (6:25-14:00)

Newsmakers 11-14-2021 ES

Greg Dunker speaks with Sandra Lynn and representatives from the annual Biker's Toy Run to share information about the toy drive and how the public can donate and support the cause. (0:00-6:18) Senate Minority Leader Mitch McConnell joins the Greg Dunker Show to discuss the most recent spending bill being debated in the U.S. House and Senate. McConnell also discusses the recent election in Virginia and New Jersey. (6:18-15:00)

Newsmakers 11-21-2021 ES

Greg Dunker speaks with Sephanie Henson with the Livingston County Chamber of Commerce about the Christmas in the Courtyard event. (0:00-5:30) Alan Watts speaks with Gale Cunningham, the President of the National Association of Farm Broadcasters, who speaks about his years serving as president of the organization. (5:30-14:10)

Newsmakers 11-28-2021 BY

Senator Rand Paul joins the Greg Dunker Show to discuss inflation and the Build Back Better bill. Paul discusses how inflation is impacting Kentuckians and why he expects it to get worse. He also discusses what he expects to happen with the bill. (0:00-9:25) Alan Watts speaks with a representative with the Butterball Turkey Talk Line. The representative discusses how this year is a milestone, marking the 40th year for the Butterball Turkey Talk Line. (9:25-12:35) Alan Watts talks with Bobby Bell about the success of the 48th annual North American International Livestock Exposition. (12:35-15:00)

Newsmakers 12-5-2021 ES

Secretary of State Michael Adams speaks with Greg Dunker about his effort to clean up Kentucky's voter rolls, to make it easy to vote but hard to cheat, and the culture of voting in Kentucky, and his effort to recruit more poll workers for upcoming elections. (0:00-7:10) Alan Watts speaks with Lauren Runyon, the owner of Cloud9 Cafe in Martin County, Kentucky near Big Sandy Regional Airport. (7:10-14:21)

Newsmakers 12-12-2021 ES

Greg Dunker speaks with Andrea Underwood with Paducah Power about the upcoming 25th annual Christmas in the Park event where they collect canned goods for charity. (0:00-5:01) Murray State University Media Specialist Dave Winder speaks with Greg Dunker about the latest news in Murray State Racer basketball. (5:01-14:19)

Newsmakers 12-19-2021 BMN

Greg Dunker speaks with Alyssa Benson with Samaritan's Purse about their tornado relief efforts in Mayfield and other surrounding areas. (0:00-4:36) Willie Kerns with SmartPath Technologies joins the Greg Dunker Show. Kerns announced he is using his technology business to recover data from computers that have been damaged by the recent storms for free. (4:36-8:34) Christina Garrett with His House Ministries speaks with Greg Dunker about their disaster coordinating efforts in western Kentucky. Garrett discusses how the effort originated in Mayfield, but has since expanded to encompass most of the counties that have suffered tornado damage. Garrett shares how they're helping tornado victims and trying to make a difference. (8:34-14:53)

Newsmakers 12-26-2021 ES

Dean Owen, CPA, speaks with Greg Dunker about a disaster loan that expires at the end of December. Owen talks about how the loan was designed around COVID. However, with the disaster related to the tornado, this loan could be beneficial for Kentuckians that have lost their businesses. Owen explains the application process, how the loan could benefit applicants, interest rates, and more. (0:00-6:13) Senator Mitch McConnell joins the Greg Dunker Show to announce a new $3.3 million grant for the Paducah-McCracken County Riverport Authority for infrastructure improvements. McConnell also discusses his recent trip to Mayfield and Dawson Springs to tour tornado damage, and shares a message of hope for the community. (6:13-15:00)