

WROU 92.1 FM
Dayton's R&B Leader

ISSUES & PROGRAMS REPORT FOR DAYTON

WROU-FM 92.1
Alpha Media USA LLC
717 E. David Rd.
Dayton, Ohio 45429
(o) 937.294.5858
(f) 937.519.0058

Completed by: Faith Daniels

6:00am - 6:30am Sundays "Community Focus"

Dates: July-September 2022 (Q3)

In its ongoing effort to serve the public interest, WROU-FM broadcasts programming responsive to issues of concern to Enon, Dayton, Brookville and the surrounding service area. Following is a list of those issues, and the station's most significant programming treatment of them.

WROU Community Focus Shows
July, August and September (3rd Qtr)
Airs Sundays at 6:00a - 6:30a
Host: Faith Daniels
Prepared/submitted by: Faith Daniels

7/03/22

Topic: Theater Made “Theater Camp for Kids”

Guests: Joyce Barnes

Category: Public Education/Arts/Education

Duration: 20:31

This program discussed:

The program discussed the opportunities for the community to participate in Theater Camp created for children aged 5-18. Utilizing the Paul Lawrence Dunbar house for a daily free camps that will produce an end of season production of “The Spelling Bee” a one act play of poems by Paul Lawrence Dunbar.

7/10/22

Topic: The Historical Marker for Jewelia G. Higgins, a suffragist, community activist and First Lady of Dayton's oldest church, First Wesleyan.

Guests: Patricia Smith Griffith, Dayton Historian

Category: Public information/Community Service

Duration: 20:53

This program discussed:

The program discussed the July 17th, placement of the historic marker to be placed in honor of Jewelia G. Higgins, a suffragist, community activist and First Lady of Dayton's oldest church, First Wesleyan. Keynote speaker, Shannon Isom of the Greater Dayton YWCA. The Program also discussed the event, the 5 generations of one Dayton Family and their impact on Dayton's financial infrastructure.

7/17/22

Topic: Premier Health African American Wellness Walk 2022

Pt.1

Guests: Adrian Taylor, Premier Director of Diversity

Category: Public information/Health and Wellness

Duration: 20:37

This program discussed:

The program discussed the Annual African American Wellness Walk and its return to an in person event in Carrilon Park. The program discussed the importance of the family fitness component and the community's involvement in organizing health entertainment options, menus and exercise plans. It also announced the 2022-2023 Community Health initiative.

7/24/22

Topic: Premier Health African American Wellness Walk 2022

Pt.2

Guests: Adrian Taylor, Premier Director of Diversity

Category: Public information/Health and Wellness

Duration: 12:39

This program discussed:

The program discussed the Annual African American Wellness Walk and its return to an in person event in Carrilon Park. The program discussed the importance of the family fitness component and the community's involvement in organizing health entertainment options, menus and exercise plans. It also announced the 2022-2023 Community Health initiative.

7/31/22

Topic: Fighting Against Breast Cancer Conference Pt. 1

Guest: Cheryl Scroggins, Director

Category: Community Outreach/Health and Wellness

Duration: 19:03

Program discussed:

The program discussed the Education and information about breast cancer and treatments. A luncheon prepared to host women of all backgrounds to help them, Identify breast cancer early signs, seeking support and treatment options all free and open to the public at Sinclair Community College 8/6/2022.

8/07/22

Topic: Fighting Against Breast Cancer Conference Pt. 1

Guest: Cheryl Scroggins, Director

Category: Community Outreach/Health and Wellness

Duration: 19:03

Program discussed:

The program discussed the Education and information about breast cancer and treatments. A luncheon prepared to host women of all backgrounds to help them, Identify breast cancer early signs, seeking support and treatment options all free and open to the public at Sinclair Community College 8/6/2022.

8/14/22

Topic: African American Cultural Fest Pt.1

Guests: Tommy Owens and Marlon Shackelford

Category: Community Outreach/Education/Entertainment

Duration: 18:22

This program discussed:

The program discussed the local revitalization of and return of the African American Cultural Festival to Island Park in Dayton. Vendors, Educational/Finance workshops to help the community gain self sufficiency. Discussed the African Culture and Community in Dayton and invited the community to enjoy the day of entertainment, vendors, workshops and programming developed for the 20th annual event.

8/21/22

Topic: Little Hearts Childhood Education Fair

Guests: Elisha Osama, Owner and CEO & Darryl Miller, Business Mgr.

Category: Community Outreach/Arts/Entertainment/Recruitment

Duration: 20:18

This program discussed:

The program discussed the local revitalization of preschool education at The Little Hearts Learning Centers. The Enrollment and education fair discussed the early education opportunities available to Dayton and Montgomery County residents. The event will allow parents and partners to speak with educators, tour the facilities and research the best educational journey for their child.

8/28/22

Topic: Little Hearts Childhood Education Fair (Rebroadcast)

Guests: Elisha Osama, Owner and CEO & Darryl Miller, Business Mgr.

Category: Community Outreach/Education/Recruitment

Duration: 20:18

This program discussed:

The program discussed the local revitalization of preschool education at The Little Hearts Learning Centers. The Enrollment and education fair discussed the early education opportunities available to Dayton and Montgomery County residents. The event will allow parents and partners to speak with educators, tour the facilities and research the best educational journey for their child.

9/04/22

Topic: Springfield Culture Festival

Guest: Aaron Clark, Director of Diversity and Inclusion

Category: Community Outreach/Arts

Duration: 15:25

This program discussed:

This program discussed The Springfield Culture Festival taking place in downtown Springfield, Ohio and the variety of cultures being represented through artwork, dance, food and vendors. The program also solicited volunteers and sponsors for this year's event that is returning to an in-person venue in the heart of the city.

9/11/22

Topic: Springfield Culture Festival (Rebroadcast)

Guest: Aaron Clark, Director of Diversity and Inclusion

Category: Community Outreach/Arts

Duration: 15:25

This program discussed:

This program discussed The Springfield Culture Festival taking place in downtown Springfield, Ohio and the variety of cultures being represented through artwork, dance, food and vendors. The program also solicited volunteers and sponsors for this year's event that is returning to an in-person venue in the heart of the city.

9/18/22

Topic: Financial Fitness for the family

Guests: All Riddick, President of Gametime Budgeting

Category: Public information/Educational Awareness/Financial Literacy

Duration: 25:07

This program discussed:

This program discussed the challenges of financial budgets POST pandemic and readjusting to a new normal. It also included financial literacy for single moms, teens and seniors citizens.

9/25/22

Topic: Financial Fitness for the Family (Rebroadcast)

Guests: All Riddick, President of Gametime Budgeting

Category: Public information/Educational Awareness/Financial Literacy

Duration: 25:07

This program discussed:

This program discussed the challenges of financial budgets POST pandemic and readjusting to a new normal. It also included financial literacy for single moms, teens and seniors citizens.