

7-1-21

How can the Southern Baptist Convention renew and revitalize the biblical direction of the Ethics & Religious Liberty Commission? Dr. Alex McFarland, Christian apologist and evangelist, is offering to head up the policy arm pro bono for the first year. He'll join me to talk about it and his thoughts on the denomination's direction. Plus: A Christian singer backs off on asserting that "Modest is Hottest" after progressive pushback. We'll tackle that and more on Thursday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-2-21

How did the progressive rejection of our Founding Fathers' political principles help lead so many Americans today to reject our core ideals? I'll talk it over with Dr. Ronald Pestritto, author of the book, "America Transformed: The Rise and Legacy of American Progressivism." Plus: David Griffith from the Thomas B. Fordham Institute unveils new data on how well our public schools are teaching civics and U.S. history. Join us for the next JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-5-21

Today's pastors are visionaries, motivational speakers and overworked administrators. But what does the Bible say about the role of the pastor? Dr. Harold Senkbeil, executive director of DOXOLOGY: The Lutheran Center for Spiritual Care, joins me to talk about it and his book, "The Care of Souls: Cultivating a Pastor's Heart." Plus: How do we get past our culture's caricatures of God that can confuse our understanding of His awesome nature and character? Author Syd Brestel stops by to discuss it and his book, "God in His Own Image." That's next time on Monday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-6-21

If being rich and famous makes for a great life, why is there so much depression and suicide among celebrities? And how do you bring the hope of Jesus Christ to someone struggling with suicidal thoughts? Ray Comfort, founder and CEO of Living Waters, joins me to talk about it and his book, "The Final Curtain: Fame, Fortune and Futile Lives." Plus: Rick Hess, resident scholar at the American Enterprise Institute, discusses his book, "Letters to a Young Education Reformer." That and more on Tuesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-7-21

How do you instill the knowledge of the Word of God and a love for the Word of God in your children? Danika Cooley joins me to talk about it and her book, "Help Your Kids Learn & Love the Bible." Plus: Pat Williams leads us through some essential lessons from the people of the American Revolution from his book, "Revolutionary Leadership." That and more on Wednesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-8-21

Pastor Ed Litton, the embattled president of the Southern Baptist Convention, is dodging hard questions about his growing plagiarism scandal, while his top comrades in the denomination refuse to call for his repentance or resignation. What does the Bible say about Litton's sins? And is this scandal just a microcosm of the abandonment of Christian ethics in the SBC? I'll give you my thoughts on Thursday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-9-21

How can America remain dominant in space, given our enemies' advances there and the potential for a Pearl Harbor-type attack on our nation? I'll discuss it with geopolitical analyst Brandon Weichert, author of: "Winning Space: How America Remains a Superpower." Plus: A stunning comeback for biblical truth over Revoice occurred recently at the Presbyterian Church in America's General Assembly. We'll bring you up to speed on Friday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-12-21

Residents in proposed National Heritage Areas are raising questions about the government actually undermining their private property rights. As it turns out, their concerns are valid. We'll get the details from Tom DeWeese, president of the American Policy Center. Plus: A new survey shows most Americans want schools to teach traditional Western values. We'll talk about that and more on Monday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-13-21

Cubans are rising up against their dictatorial government, while the Biden Administration says it's a reaction to rising cases of COVID-19. Meanwhile, how is our own government treating those jailed Jan. 6 Trump supporters? We'll talk about it. Plus: Dr. Samuel Namann shares some amazing stories on how God is saving Muslims worldwide. His book is called, "God of the Impossible." That's Tuesday on JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-14-21

How do we navigate the valley of sorrow and find comfort in Jesus Christ? Colin Smith, president of Unlocking the Bible, will join me to talk about it and his book, "For All Who Grieve." And author John Perritt will talk about his book, "Insecure: Fighting our Lesser Fears with a Greater One." We'll talk about all that and more on Wednesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-15-21

Was the November presidential election stolen in numerous states? Mounting evidence from Georgia is raising serious questions about it. And the Evangelical Left is pushing a curriculum on evangelical pastors to combat faux "Christian Nationalism" in local churches. We'll talk about it all. Plus: How can freedom-loving patriots save the United States? Kennerly Davis joins me to talk about it and his book, "Revolution: A Call to Turn Back the Lawless Left And Restore the Promise of America." That's on Thursday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-16-21

How can parents raise their girls to reject the insanity of the Left? I'll talk to Michelle Easton, founder of the Clare Boothe Luce Center for Conservative Women, about her book, "How to Raise a Conservative Daughter." Plus: Progressives are ramping up their COVID-19 vaccination threats, and science has nothing to do with it. We'll discuss that and more on Friday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-19-21

Are vaccine passports actually about protecting the public health, or are they gateways to mass surveillance and violations of our liberties? China expert Reggie Littlejohn, president of Women's Rights Without Frontiers, stops by to talk about it. Plus: The National Popular Vote interstate compact is failing to catch fire. Trent England, executive director of Save Our States, stops by to discuss why that's good news. Join us for Monday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-20-21

What will it take for the Lord to revive His church and lift His judgment on the United States, which both have fallen into deep-seated ungodliness after receiving so many abundant blessings? Shane Idleman, lead pastor of Westside Christian Fellowship, joins me to talk about it. Plus: Why Americans are steadily losing their freedom of speech and why that matters so much to our republic. That and more on Tuesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-21-21

The Conservative Baptist Network is calling for the resignation of the Southern Baptist Convention's new president, based on multiple instances of evidence that he plagiarized. Will Ed Litton finally do the right thing? We'll talk about it. Plus: How is God using a Christian-based scouting organization to bring hope and encouragement to young girls' lives? I'll talk about it with Patti Garibay, founder of American Heritage Girls and author of: "Why Curse the Darkness When You Can Light a Candle?" And a Hasbro whistleblower reveals how the company is committed to indoctrinating kids with Critical Race Theory. That and more on Wednesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-22-21

Sen. Rand Paul says he's requesting a criminal referral for Dr. Anthony Fauci for lying to Congress over Wuhan lab funding. We'll bring you up to speed about it. Plus: Author and pastor J. Aaron White stops by to discuss the important spiritual role that Christian men must play in the lives of their wives. His book is called, "Man Up, Kneel Down." Join us for Thursday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-23-21

The same-sex-attracted pastor of the PCA church that hosted the first Revoice conference is casting doubt on the idea that God can forgive and transform homosexuals through faith in Christ. And he's making false assertions about gospel-centered ministries in the process. Stephen Black, executive director of First Stone Ministries, joins me to respond to that and the upcoming anti-Christian Netflix film, "Pray Away." That's next time on Friday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-26-21

How can we pursue Christlikeness in an increasingly hostile culture? I'll talk it over with David Harrell, senior pastor-teacher at Calvary Bible Church and author of the book, "Why America Hates Biblical Christianity." Plus: Muslim extremists want to overturn a Florida law protecting Jews against anti-Semitism. Why hasn't the Florida Democratic Party purged these bullies from its ranks? That's next time on Monday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-27-21

Back in 2019, a book by Genesis Biblical Solutions founder and counselor Joe Dallas was cancelled by Amazon. Now, Joe is encouraging and advising Christians on how to prepare to speak biblical truth in love amid a growing animosity against God's people. Joe will join me to discuss it as we talk about his book, "Christians in a Cancel Culture." That's next time on Tuesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-28-21

What is the conservative vision for tomorrow's schools? I'll talk it over with education expert Michael Petrilli, co-editor of the book, "How to Educate an American." Plus: Deron Spoo, pastor of First Baptist Church of Tulsa, Okla., stops by to discuss his book, "The Bible in 10 Words: Unlocking the Message of Scripture and Connecting With God." That and more on Wednesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-29-21

How do Christian cliches prevent us from understanding the depth of God's Word? Dr. Jeff Myers, president of Summit Ministries, joins me to discuss his book, "Unquestioned Answers." Plus: How can the church effectively disciple men? Lonnie Berger, TWR Global Men's Ministry Director, joins me to discuss his discipleship study series, "Every Man a Warrior." That and more on Thursday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

7-30-21

The Bible says, "We count them blessed who endure." But how can we keep persevering in following Jesus when we feel like giving up? I'll talk it over with Doug Gehman, president of Globe International and author of the book, "Before You Quit." . Plus: How can we better proclaim the mighty deeds that the Lord has done? I'll discuss it with Thann Bennett, director of government affairs for the American Center for Law and Justice and author of "My Fame, His Fame." That's next time on Friday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-2-21

Many in our postmodern, post-Christian society have rejected the idea of God and absolute truth, but could this pandemic open new doors to reach lost people with the gospel of Jesus? I'll talk it over with Becky Pippert as we discuss her book, "Stay Salt: The World Has Changed; Our Message Must Not." Plus: Kim Erickson joins me to discuss her book, "Surviving Sorrow: A Mother's Guide to Living with Loss." That and more on Monday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-3-21

The CDC issues new mask guidelines as more vaccinated Americans contract and spread the Delta Variant, while Republicans call for an audit of this increasingly mistrusted government agency. And will the Biden Administration attempt to lock us down again? We'll talk about it. Plus: As parent-school board showdowns heat up over Critical Race Theory and mask mandates, what should Christian parents do to oversee their children's education? I'll talk it over with David Closson from the Family Research Council on Tuesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-4-21

Divisive ex-Southern Baptist leader Dr. Russell Moore had a lot to say this week to PBS about evangelicals' "crisis of credibility." Yet he refused to call out SBC president Ed Litton over his sermon plagiarism or his SBC elite friends for covering it up. So who really has the credibility problem? We'll talk about it. Plus: Living on the Edge's Chip Ingram discusses his book, "I Choose Peace," all on Wednesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-5-21

Why do our lives so often move us toward the frivolous, and how can Christians live lives that are grounded in God's purpose and glory? Jason Lancaster joins me to discuss it and his book, "The Trivial Life." Plus: What's really buried in the Democrats' infrastructure bill? A provision to tax you for driving and language to further the sexual radicals' agenda, among other things. I'll explain what you need to know on Thursday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-6-21

The Social Justice Movement has swept through the culture like a grassfire -- and now, it's damaging the church of Jesus Christ in the form of a new religion that is neither just nor biblical. How can God's people stand firm against this anti-gospel? Dr. Owen Strachan, provost and research professor of theology at Grace Bible Theological Seminary, joins me to talk about it and his book, "Christianity and Wokeness," on Friday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-9-21

What is Russia's secret plan to destroy America? I'll talk it over with Russian native and former U.S. national intelligence expert Rebekah Koffler, author of: "Putin's Playbook." Plus: How is Facebook plotting to shape the future of religious experience, and what might that portend for preachers who run afoul of its progressive totalitarianism? That and more on Monday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-10-21

Today's students show a lack of interest in family and even the idea of objective truth. What will that mean for our country, long-term? Jeremy Adams joins me to talk about it and his book, "Hollowed Out: A Warning about America's Next Generation." Plus: A prominent physician at the forefront of COVID-19 information has been sued by the health-care giant who used to employ him. His attorneys say the suit is just an attempt to silence Dr. Peter McCullough. We'll talk about it on Tuesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-11-21

Pro-abortion activists condemn Mississippi's 15-week ban on abortion as "extreme," but a new study from the Charlotte Lozier Institute shows it's mainstream when compared with abortion laws in liberals' beloved Europe. CLI's president Chuck Donovan joins me to talk about it. Plus: How can understanding the power of mass movements and the truth of Romans 1 help us understand the increasing demonization of white evangelicals from voices within the church? That's next time on JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-12-31

The new Netflix film "Pray Away" purports to expose the dangers of so-called "conversion therapy," but its bias, selective editing and one-sided interviews expose it as just more LGBT-activist propaganda. Peter LaBarbera, president of Americans for Truth about Homosexuality, will give us his review. Plus: Don Hawkins stops by to talk about his book, "Master Discipleship Today: Jesus' Prayer and Plan for Every Believer." Join us for Thursday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-13-21

With church membership rates in decline and spiritual and moral anarchy on the rise in America, how do Christian parents ground the next generation in God's Word and prepare them to take a bold stand for Christ in the uncertain days ahead? Ken Ham, CEO and founder of Answers in Genesis-US, joins me to talk about it and his book, "Divided Nation: Cultures in Chaos & A Conflicted Church." Join us for Friday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-16-21

The Biden Administration is scrambling to save face after the president's disastrous decision to pull troops out of Afghanistan has plunged the country into the Taliban's hands. And even the Leftist media is laying blame on Biden, who just weeks ago denied his decision would ever lead to a situation comparable to Vietnam. We'll talk about it. Plus: Dr. Matthew Stanford discusses his book, "Madness and Grace : A Practical Guide for Pastoral Care and Serious Mental Illness" on Monday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-17-21

Former President Trump calls on Joe Biden to "resign in disgrace" as others join the chorus over Biden's catastrophic U.S. troop withdrawal plan in Afghanistan. We'll bring you the latest details. Plus: How might the Taliban's resurgence be interpreted through a scriptural lens as we near the 20th anniversary of 9/11? Mitch Glaser, president of Chosen People Ministries, joins me to talk about it and his upcoming event, "9/11 and the New Middle East." That's on Tuesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-18-21

Suspected terrorists are crossing the border into America at an unprecedented level, according to the outgoing Border Patrol chief. And Florida Sen. Rick Scott, the Senate GOP chairman, is the latest politician to suggest invoking the 25th Amendment to impeach President Biden. We'll talk about it all. Plus: With all our societal turmoil, are Americans becoming more receptive to the gospel? John Sorensen, president of Evangelism Explosion, will join me to talk about his ministry's Equip America events. Don't miss Wednesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-19-21

Politically correct radicals have used the tools of speech, censorship and liberty to wage war against our civilization. Yet in the name of "free speech," many conservatives have failed to fight back in defense of virtue and truth. Michael Knowles joins me to discuss it and his book, "Speechless: Controlling Words, Controlling Minds." And the president of the Human Rights Campaign is in hot water for helping Gov. Andrew Cuomo take aim at one of his female accusers. Will HRC-supporting companies jump ship on this sexually radical organization? Scott Shepard, director of the Free Enterprise Project, will stop by to talk about it on Thursday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-20-21

In training up our children the way they should go, how many of us mothers consider our duty to train them in Christian apologetics? I'll talk it over with Hillary Morgan Ferrer, author of "Mama Bear Apologetics." Plus: What are the roots of what ails academia? Dr. John Ellis, distinguished professor emeritus at the University of California, Santa Cruz, will discuss his book, "The Breakdown of Higher Education: How it Happened, the Damage it Does and What Can Be Done." That's on Friday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-23-21

The FBI has found "scant evidence" that the U.S. Capitol breach in January was a premeditated plot and no evidence that former President Trump was involved in organizing it, Reuters reports. What are the implications of this bombshell report? We'll talk about it. Plus: Josh Glaser discusses his book, "Treading Boldly through a Pornographic World." That and more on Monday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-24-21

What does it mean to have Christ formed in us and to grow in Christlikeness? Brian Hedges, lead pastor of Redeemer Church, joins me to discuss his book, "To Be Like Jesus." Plus: More than 60 percent of young, presumably "born-again Christians" in America think Buddha and Muhammed are valid paths to salvation. We'll talk about that and more on Tuesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-25-21

As the Biden Administration becomes increasingly totalitarian over COVID-19 mandates, Tea Party Patriots Action is rallying Americans this weekend to protest these blatant attacks on our freedom. TPPA's Bill Pascoe will join me to talk about it. Plus: Is there a hidden code built into mathematics? Christian astrophysicist Dr. Jason Lisle joins me to talk about it and his latest book, "Fractals: The Secret Code of Creation." That's on Wednesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-26-21

What can we do to help shape our teenagers to love the Lord and live lives that honor Him? I'll talk about it with teen culture expert Jeffrey Dean, author of: "Raising Successful Teens: How to Help Your Child Honor God and Live Wisely." Plus: President Teddy Roosevelt founded the Progressive Party of 1912, but was he really as liberal as so many claim? Biographer Daniel Ruddy paints a different picture and says Roosevelt was actually guided by conservative principles. We'll talk about his book, "Theodore the Great: Conservative Crusader," on Thursday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-27-21

America is more divided today than perhaps ever before. Could it be time for a national breakup? Frank Buckley, foundation professor at George Mason University's Scalia School of Law, joins me to talk about it and his book, "American Secession." Plus: Dr. Frank Moncher from the Culture of Life Foundation reveals why living together before marriage harms individuals and families. That's next time on Friday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-30-21

How can we best promote the pro-life cause in today's "shout your abortion" world? Shawn Carney, CEO of 40 Days for Life, explains how to defend life as we discuss his book, "What to Say When: The Complete New Guide to Discussing Abortion." Plus: Southern Baptist Convention president Ed Litton is giving some outrageous new excuses for why his serial sermon plagiarism isn't that big of a deal. And how should teachers instruct students about the 20th anniversary of the 9/11 Islamic terrorist attacks on America? A Virginia Department of Education webinar advises them to focus on "anti-Muslim racism." We'll talk about it all on Monday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

8-31-21

What effect will Biden's disaster in Afghanistan have on the ability of our allies to trust the U.S., especially when China is threatening Taiwan? The Family Research Council's Bob Fu, president of ChinaAid, will weigh in. And U.S. troops have testified that the administration has misrepresented the facts on military personnel's vaccine status and isn't taking freedom of religion seriously, either. We'll talk about that and more on Tuesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-1-21

How can our faith in the Lord help us move from guilt to repentance or from anxiety to peace? Dr. Robert Jeffress, pastor of First Baptist Dallas, joins me to talk about it and his book, "Invincible." Plus: Details on the Afghanistan catastrophe are emerging, showing even more deception from the president who routinely promised that "we leave no one behind." That and more on the next JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-2-21

Pro-lifers rejoice as Texas has become the first state to ban nearly all abortions. We'll talk about it. Plus: How are Christians faring in a dangerous, Taliban-led Afghanistan? Terry Ascott, founder of the SAT-7 media ministry, gives us an update. And pastor Paul Tautges discusses his book, "When Disability Hits Home." Join us for Thursday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-3-21

Is there a biblical theology of parenting? Israel Wayne, founder of Family Renewal, joins me to discuss it and his book, "Raising Them Up." Plus: Two Leftist teachers in California were removed from their classrooms this week after families railed to school officials about their radical political antics. Is this the start of a new era of parents taking back control of their schools? We'll talk about it on Friday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-6-21

The Lord Jesus Christ said He is the way, the truth and the life. But efforts to contextualize the gospel of Jesus Christ sometimes end diminishing or eliminating the central truth that salvation only comes through the cross. Dr. Steven Lawson, president and founder of OnePassion Ministries, joins me as we discuss, "Preaching an Exclusive Gospel in an Inclusive Age." Be sure to join us for Monday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-7-21

It's been 20 years since Islamic terrorists murdered nearly 3,000 Americans in the 9/11 attacks on our nation. One of those Americans was Shelly Genovese Calhoun's husband, Steve Genovese, who worked on the 104th floor of the World Trade Center's North Tower. Today, Shelly reflects on how the Lord has sustained and blessed her and her family in the aftermath of such a dark day. She'll share her thoughts from her book, "Twice Blessed," on Tuesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-8-21

Newly uncovered documents show that Dr. Anthony Fauci's government agency did fund gain-of-function research at the Wuhan Institute of Virology, despite his denials. This, amid a growing global push for COVID-19 vaccine mandates and passports. What's the truth about the elites who are tyrannizing and threatening us in the name of "public health?" I'll talk it over with Patrick Wood, editor-in-chief at Technocracy News and Trends and founder of Citizens for Free Speech. That's on Wednesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-9-21

After it ran in The New York Times Magazine, The 1619 Project was derided for its historical inaccuracies and false claims about "racist" America. Now, it's pushing that same propaganda into K-12 schools. How can we make sure our children learn the truth about U.S. history? Dr. Mary Grabar joins me to talk about it and her book, "Debunking the 1619 Project." Plus: Amazon's Jeff Bezos is investing in a company wanting to extend humanity's lifespan, while a former Walmart executive wants to build the first Woke city. Why are so many elites obsessed with utopian visions that can't hold a candle to God's true plan for eternal life? That and more on Thursday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-10-21

Twenty years after the 9/11 attacks on America by Islamic terrorists, are we looking at the fall of America rather than its victory over jihad? I'll talk it over with Brigitte Gabriel, founder of ACT for America. Plus: Leftist evangelicals are reigniting their interfaith pushes and "refugee" guilt-trip lectures as unvetted Afghans flood into our nation. What can we learn from the life of Hezekiah at a moment like this? Join us for Friday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-13-21

How do we spot the five fatal worldviews and respond to them biblically? Dr. Jeff Myers, president of Summit Ministries, joins me to talk about it and his book, "The Secret Battle of Ideas About God." Plus: Pastor Robert J. Morgan, teaching pastor of The Donelson Fellowship in Nashville, will join me to discuss his book, The Strength You Need : The Twelve Great Strength Passages of the Bible." That's on Monday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-14-21

Joshua fit the battle of Jericho, but how does the Book of Joshua show us God's faithfulness to His covenant and point us to Jesus Christ? Pastor and Dr. Rhett Dodson joins me to talk about his book, "Every Promise of Your Word: The Gospel According to Joshua." Plus: Jen Forsthoff discusses her book, "Chosen for Charlie: When God Gifts You with a Special-Needs Child." That's on Tuesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-15-21

How did the Lord deliver one man out of the gang life and a criminal history to new life in Jesus? I'll discuss it with Casey Diaz, author of, "The Shot Caller: A Latino Gangbanger's Miraculous Escape from a Life of Violence to a New Life in Christ." Plus: What do Christians today need to learn from the Puritans? Lewis Allen, pastor of Hope Church Huddersfield in England, stops by to talk about it and his book, "The Glory of Grace." Join us for Wednesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-16-21

What's the connection between Dr. John Piper's doctrine of "Christian hedonism" and the use of the term "same-sex-attracted Christian" by The Gospel Coalition's Sam Allberry? I'll discuss it with Enoch Burke, author of the book, "The Hedonism and Homosexuality of John Piper and Sam Allberry: The Truth of Scripture." That's on Thursday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-17-21

In the last few years, evangelicals have become fascinated with the Enneagram, described as an ancient system of personality typing that helps people interpret the world and manage their emotions. But in fact, the Enneagram is rooted in mysticism and occultism - and isn't even ancient! We'll get a biblical perspective on the issue from Don Veinot, president of Midwest Christian Outreach and co-author of "Richard Rohr and the Enneagram Secret." That's on Friday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-20-21

Big Tech and academia aren't just crushing political dissent; they're also suppressing peer-reviewed science challenging Darwin's theory of evolution. I'll talk it over with Dr. Casey Luskin, associate director for the Center for Science and Culture at the Discovery Institute. Plus: Contrary to the views of some faith leaders, opting out of the COVID-19 vaccine with a religious exemption is both constitutional and important. I'll explain why on Monday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-21-21

The Southern Baptist Convention's Ethics & Religious Liberty Commission is taking money from the digital tyrants at Facebook to help stop the spread of "hate speech" and "misinformation." We'll talk about it. Plus: A U.S. Air Force base flip-flops on furnishing an Honor Guard to a local church for a Veterans' Day event. Attorney Mike Whitehead will give us the details. And Danny Clymer joins me to discuss the book he edited, "The Priority of Making Disciples." That and more on the next JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-22-21

Why did the House Republican Conference express support for a bill that would require women to register for the draft? Plus: Why is the abortion industry using outdated science in the brief it's filed in the Dobbs late-term-abortion case coming before the Supreme Court? Chuck Donovan, president of the Charlotte Lozier Institute, joins me to discuss. And Tim Winter, president of the Parents Television and Media Council, explains the changes needed to protect our children during online media streaming. That and more on Wednesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-23-21

A number of "faith leaders" have stepped forward to condemn religious exemptions to the COVID-19 vaccines. What do they get wrong about religious conscience, the Bible and the Constitution? Harry Mihet, Liberty Counsel's vice president of legal affairs, joins me to weigh in. Plus: Christianity Today recently argued that married couples need the help of so-called "sexual minorities" to strengthen their relationships. We'll put that claim under the light of Scripture with Peter LaBarbera, president of Americans for Truth about Homosexuality. That's on Thursday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-24-21

Critical Race Theorists decry "colonialism" as a sweeping historical evil. But what is the historical truth? I'll talk it over with Dr. Bruce Gilley, professor of political science at Portland State University and author of: "The Last Imperialist." Plus: Two Afghan evacuees to America have just been charged with child sex crimes and domestic abuse, and some argue this is just the start of widespread social unrest. We'll discuss that and more on Friday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-27-21

Why is the biblical canon closed? Who was Cain's wife? And what did James mean when he wrote, "faith without works is dead?" Dr. Alex McFarland joins me to answer these and many other important queries about Scripture as we discuss his book, "100 Bible Questions and Answers." Be sure to join us for Monday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-28-21

How many people know about the huge hoax that some big groups are perpetrating before lawmakers to ban therapy for people with unwanted same-sex attraction? Christopher Doyle, Executive Director of the Institute for Healthy Families, joins me to discuss his book, "The War on Psychotherapy." Plus: What should we know about the lesser-known figures in the Bible who served vital roles in the spread of Christianity to the world? Ryan Lokkesmoe, lead pastor of Real Hope Community Church, joins me to discuss his book, "Paul and His Team: What the Early Church Can Teach Us About Leadership and Influence." That's next time on Tuesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-29-21

Prosperity preachers would have us believe that if the Lord doesn't heal us of our illnesses, we just didn't have enough faith. But what does the Bible really teach us about healing and God's purposes in our earthly pain? Pastor Costi Hinn joins me to talk about it and his book, "More Than a Healer: Not the Jesus You Want, but the Jesus You Need." Plus: How can churches collaborate with moms and dads to disciple their children? Phil Bell discusses his book, "The Family Ministry Playbook for Partnering with Parents." That's next time on Wednesday's JANET MEFFERD TODAY.

9-30-21

Why did the Christian philosopher Dr. William Lane Craig recently cast doubt on the historical Adam and the literal reading of Genesis 1-11? And why is it a biblical non-negotiable to hold to the historicity of Adam and the Book of Genesis? We'll get reaction from Dr. Owen Strachan, provost and research professor of theology at Grace Bible Theological Seminary. Plus: What are the 18 distinctives of Jesus Christ? Cecil Price stops by to discuss his book, "The Unique One," on the next JANET MEFFERD TODAY.