Program Title: 59 News @ 5AM

Duration:5:00AM-6:00AM

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Healthcare	Today, agents will be on hand in Tazewell County to answer any question former Consol Energy employees may have about their health insurance. Clinch Valley Health's Chief Financial Officer Jason Schmiedt will speak to those who are losing their current insurance at the end of the year. Topics will include different insurance options that are available and information about which types of plans to avoid.	10/5/15
Economy	170 miners will be out of work on Christmas Day. Cater Roag Coal Company is planning to idle three mining facilities. A notice blames a downturn in market prices and demand, as well as higher operating costs, for the decision.	10/28/15
Education	It's an interesting idea to keep your kids connected. Today Kanawha County Schools will begin adding Wi-Fi to school busses. Officials tell us it allows the students to use their school-issued iPads on the way to and from school. Supporters say it will give the students a leg up on their peers and allow them to connect if they can't at home.	11/19/15
Crime	A man is recovering from a gunshot wound after leading police on a chase in Mercer County. According to State Police, the pursuit began on North Walker Street in Princeton Saturday night, when James Hicks III and another man fled from law enforcement. The man riding with Hicks jumped out of the car at some point during the chase along Route 20.	12/7/15
Healthcare	If you have questions about signing up or re-applying for health care on the federal marketplace, listen up. Today, Beckley Appalachian Regional Hospital is hosting an information and enrollment session. West Virginia NaviCare, working in cooperation with the Federal Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, will provide information on how the health insurance marketplace works under the Affordable Care Act.	12/14/15
Economy	As the rest of the country continues to recover form the Great Recession, it seems the Mountain State is lagging behind. The Pew Charitable Trust Report shows that West Virginia's tax revenue was about 1.1% higher this past year than in 2007 when adjusted for inflation. Now compare that to the national average, where states brought in close to 6% more revenue than they did at the peak in 2008. West Virginia Budget and Policy Center Executive Director Ted Boettner says the implementation of tax cuts, along with the downturn of coal production has contributed to the slow recovery. The study ended during the middle of 2015, when Deputy of Revenue Secretary Mark Muchow says the state's economy began a sharp downturn.	12/28/15

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Crime	This morning, Greenbrier County deputies are continuing to investigate a shootout that left one person dead, and another in critical condition. It happened along route 92 near the Neola area. Deputies tell us multiple shots were fired between two different homes, in some sort of domestic dispute Wednesday evening. 31 year old, Glenda Hull died before police arrived from an apparent gunshot wound. Her stepfather, 67 year old Larry Hoke was taken to a Roanoke hospital, in critical condition, from another gunshot wound.	10/9/15
Economy	Some encouraging news for West Virginians. WorkForce West Virginia reports that the unemployment rate fell in the Mountain State during the month of September. The agency reports that the number of unemployed residents dropped by 2 thousand last month. Increases were seen in the service-providing sector, government and financial services. Nationally, the unemployment rate remained at 5.1%.	10/15/15
Crime	In Mercer County, a judge accepts a plea deal from a man charged with armed robbery. Yesterday, Joshua Short pleaded guilty to two counts of first degree robbery. He was sentenced to 25 years in prison for each count, to be served consecutively. If you remember, Short robbed a Bluefield man in his home last year. Prosecutors say he also robbed the Arrowhead Deli in Bluefield. Assistant Prosecutor John McGinnis says this was a very violent case.	11/3/15
Healthcare/Crime	The Beckley doctor, whose pain clinic was raided last week, makes a court appearance. Doctor Jose Jorge Gordinho is facing 21 counts of distribution of narcotics for other than a reasonable medical purpose. Doctor Gordinho will remain in the custody of US Marshals. His next hearing will be on November 30 th .	11/18/15
Political	Longtime West Virginia auditor Glen Gainer says he won't seek re-election next year. Gainer told the Associated Press that his decision is partly due to the politics of government at the state and national levels. He says he plans to pursue a private sector opportunity he will share with the public later. The democrat has served as state auditor since 1992. His father preceded him in the position.	12/8/15
Education	State Schools Superintendent Michael Martirano forms a commission to look into changing standardized testing in West Virginia. The commission is composed of unidentified parents, teachers, superintendents, and lawmakers among others. These discussions will not be made public.	12/29/15

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Crime	A man accused of a gruesome murder appears before a judge. Donald Bailey is accused of shooting Brandon Church and Clinton Mullins after an argument. He then allegedly poured gas on the bodies and lighting them on fire inside of a truck. Bailey is not the only one facing charges in this crime, Troy Justice is awaiting trial on the same charges.	10/13/15
Education	Another leader travels to southern West Virginia to tour one county's deteriorating schools. Yesterday, Cabell County Delegate Doug Reynolds was taken on a tour by members of the Fayette County school board. Their first stop was Collins Middle School. Reynolds is one of many leaders to tour the county's schools. He says after seeing the conditions inside Collins, something needs to change. Next Monday and Tuesday the SBA will meet to discuss Fayette County Schools consolidation plan.	11/5/15
Economy	The coal industry is a huge part of West Virginia's economy. In recent years, we've seen more and more mines shutting down. This leaves many un-employed and forcing some to move to where they can get work. But what about the town that is left behind?	11/13/15
Crime	A Mercer County man facing child neglect charges is set to appear in court for another plea hearing. Earlier this month, a judge found that Michael Copley is competent to stand trial. Deputies found Copley after he crashed his vehicle along Route 20 in Athens back in January. According to a criminal complaint, Copley admitted to drinking a pint of vodka before driving. Also in the car with Copley was his girlfriend's child. His hearing is set for two this afternoon.	11/23/15
Healthcare	US Senator Joe Manchin has announced a new temporary VA health clinic that will open in Greenbrier County. The center is set to open by the end of the month at the Rhema Christian Center in Lewisburg. VA officials are currently working to establish a permanent location. The Greenbrier Community Based Outpatient Clinic closed back in April due to air quality levels. Since then the 24 hundred veterans the clinic served, have been forced to drive to Beckley for service.	12/2/15
Education	The battle isn't over at one local school after they cancel a series of Christmas events. Hollywood Elementary School cancelled their 12 days of Christmas events because of a complaint. Although it was cancelled, students still came to school today dressed in ribbons and bows. Again, this was not the Principal's idea to cancel, certain rules and school policies put an end to the schedule.	12/9/15
Healthcare	Today there's an important deadline for those signing up for health care on the federal marketplace. If you want coverage to start or renew on January 1 st , you need to sign up by the end of the day. You can do so by heading over to Healthcare.gov .	12/15/15

Economy	A bankruptcy judge has approved a deal resolving a reclamation bond dispute between coal operator Alpha Natural Resources and West Virginia regulators. Alpha will reduce its self-bonded obligations and provide $39 million back to its remaining obligations. The West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection had ordered Alpha to replace the self bonds with other forms of bonding after the company said it might no longer meet criteria for self-bonding. Alpha contended that the DEP didn't have the authority under bankruptcy law to require it to replace the bonds.	12/23/15

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Economy	More than a thousand workers face layoffs from Patriot Coal. The cuts are being made at six operations in Kanawha County. Warn notices have already gone out. The layoffs are expected to take effect between October 22 nd and November 5 th .	10/6/15
Economy	The third Saturday in October is this weekend, and that means one thing, Bridge Day. Like every Bridge Day, businesses are expecting their normal rate of customers to multiply. Officials from the Fayetteville Convention and Visitors Bureau say they're expecting about 100,000 people to come out for Bridge Day on Saturday. This will bring more business to restaurants, stores, gas stations and hotels. A chef from Gumbo's tells us they'll have extra staff on hand, and twice the food in stock than usual to get ready for all the customers.	10/14/15
Political	Tomorrow, President Obama will make his way to Charleston's East End to discuss the state's ongoing drug epidemic. The president plans to discuss local, state, and federal efforts, as well as private sector initiatives, to help combat the problem. West Virginia currently has one of the worst death rates for illegal drugs and prescription drugs in the nation. We had the chance to talk with DHHR Secretary Sylvia Burwell, who grew up in southern West Virginia and has seen what effects drug addiction has had on our area.	10/20/15
Healthcare	As the open enrollment period begins for the Affordable Care Act, a new report shows West Virginia is one of the best states for children with health insurance. The report says 97 percent of children in West Virginia are covered by health insurance. The 3 percent rate of uninsured children is fourth in the nation. Massachusetts is ranked first, with 1.5 percent rate of uninsured children. West Virginia reduced the number of uninsured children by nearly 44 percent from 2013 to 2014.	11/2/15

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Economy	The state is losing money due to low energy prices and severance taxes. The state announced money collections are 91 million dollars behind where they expected to be at this point this year. Despite that most revenue sources were either meeting or topping estimates just for the month of October. Coal severance tax collections are down by more than 41 percent, while natural gas severance tax collections were down by 25 percent. Oil collections were down 59 percent.	11/4/15
Economy	Alpha Natural Resources wants to get rid of health and other non-pension benefits for more than 45 hundred non-union retirees. The benefits include life insurance and subsidies to reimburse retirees for buying medical coverage through health care exchanges. Alpha filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy on August 3 rd .	11/11/15
Education	The board of governors met with constituent groups today at Concord University. Classified staff talked about what they do outside the classroom. One presentation was about a book club faculty members are working on with local high school officials. Faculty President Dr. Susan Williams says teachers are the caretakers of the minds that are shaping to be tomorrow's professionals.	11/17/15
Economy	While the DOH may be putting this warm weather to good use, other people are not enjoying the temperatures. Ron Pierce relies on the cold temperatures to keep his business up and running. Pierce says in December, he's usually plowing peoples drive ways and parking lots. Unfortunately for Pierce, this season hasn't been good for business.	12/16/15
Political	U.S. Representative Evan Jenkins was in Beckley today to highlight the effect of a new law on public transportation in Southern West Virginia. Congressman Jenkins says 130 million dollars is going to fund public transportation and rural transit programs in the state. The funds are coming through the FAST Act, a two billion dollar project to improve traveling on the road.	12/22/15

Program Title: Tonight Live

Duration: 5:30PM-6:00PM

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Economy	Workers in West Virginia are no strangers to hard labor, they make a living in the hot sun wearing heavy boots and hard hats. But those workers have been a hot button issue to the state. Workers hired for construction on public improvements have been paid prevailing wage rates, but last year when Republicans took control of the State Legislature, they worked on a method to recalculate those rates. It was not an easy process, and the state even spent a few months this summer with no prevailing wage in place, but now new rates have been decided. It's up to Legislative leaders now to honor the rates or to try to repeal them all together when the next legislative session begins in January.	10/9/15
Education	West Liberty University has a new president tonight. The Board of Governors named Dr. Stephen Greiner to the post just a short time ago at a press conference. The Board spent most of the day in executive session before making the big announcement. Greiner will officially start his new job in January. He will be succeeding Dr. John McCullough who has been serving as intern president.	10/29/15
Crime	Belmont County Deputies get their man in a double murder investigation. Okie Eugene Barton the third was formally charged for shooting and killing his own parents. The incident happened last night at home on Garrett Hill Road in Glencoe. Deputies say Barton called 911 after the shooting. They later determined the 18 year old was the prime suspect.	11/10/15
Crime	A West Virginia couple is facing charges after reportedly conspiring to murder a Sissonville man. Kanawha County deputies say Brandy Skeens and Joseph Lawrence planned to kill Skeens' husband inside a home on Grapevine Road. They allegedly tried to execute the murder last Tuesday under the façade of a burglary. Investigators say Mr. Skeens abused his wife repeatedly, which they believe is the motive behind this murder scheme.	11/23/15
Healthcare	The holiday season is supposed to be a time of joy and happiness, but often times people can get holiday time depression, anxiety, or even feel lonely. A class open to the public at the University of Charleston tomorrow night is working to help with all that. Lynn Eldridge will present as part of the First Class Health Education 101 series to help you deal with the holiday anxieties. It's all so the holidays go on as they should.	12/7/15

Political	Booth Goodwin steps down as U.S. Attorney, but that is opening the door to a lot of speculation as to what's next for the 44 year old Goodwin. He is stepping down, as the year ends. Goodwin has cited a desire to return to his family's private law practice. This has fueled speculation that Goodwin may launch a bid for the Democratic nomination for Governor. Jim Justice and Senator Jeff Kessler are already running as Democrats and Senator Bill Cole is the Republican. Today the two parties reacted to a potential Goodwin race for Governor.	12/28/15

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Healthcare	The beginning of October marks the start of Breast Cancer awareness month. Today, Greenbrier County survivors gathered together to raise awareness and share their stories. The day started with a wreath-hanging ceremony in front of the courthouse, a tradition that each county in the state has, in the month of October. Healthcare officials discussed the importance of awareness, and survivors say events like these are what gives them hope and reasons to celebrate.	10/7/15
Political	More than a thousand students in West Virginia have been registered to vote in the past two months. Inspire West Virginia is the state branch of the national group Inspire United States. The West Virginia chapter works with several high school students from each of the 30 or so high schools in West Virginia. In turn, the students have been trained to register their classmates to vote with the goal of registering at least 85 percent of each school's senior class.	10/19/15
Education	It's the favorite science project of every fourth grader at New River Elementary School in Fayette County. The annual pumpkin drop took place today right outside of the school's playground. Administrators say a total of 142 pumpkins were dropped today in an individual competition between its fourth graders. The students made boxes to try to protect their pumpkin from bursting after it was dropped 40 feet. The purpose of the pumpkin drop is for the kids to learn about force and matter for their science class. The winner, or winners of the competition receive an award and of course, an A.	10/23/15
Education	This year's Mercer County Teacher of the Year is named. Congratulations to 1 st grade teacher Brenda Thompson. Thompson is also the Four Seasons Teacher of the Year. She teaches at Sun Valley Elementary School. Today she received a plaque and a new desk.	11/9/15

Economy	Workforce West Virginia reports McDowell County has the second highest unemployment rate of all 55 counties in the state. But now a program to enterprise job opportunities in construction has been created to bring some hope to the people of the county. Warrior Creek Development is building apartments in Welch, to attract more teachers to McDowell County. The company offers a two-year, paid internship program for people looking for a job in construction to help with this project.	11/25/15
Crime	A gas station in Fayette County is robbed late Friday night. According to officers with the Oak Hill Police Department, the Shell Station in Oak Hill on East Main Street is the victim of another armed robbery. The male suspect was able to get away with an undisclosed amount of money after telling the store clerk he had a knife.	11/28/15
Economy	A nonprofit group designated to nurture youth in Mercer County is in need of the community's help to open back up. The Wade Center in Bluefield closed it's doors early this summer, due to the lack of funding. We're told they need 100 thousand dollars to open back up and right now they only have $25 thousand. The Wade Center is an after-school faith based program that helps children make the right choices and grow spiritually, physically, and emotionally. The center is located on Highland Avenue in Bluefield.	12/10/15
Political	A new bill set to be introduced next year may be one of the biggest political issues in West Virginia. The 2016 Legislative Session begins on January 13 th , and Senate President Bill Cole has announced a right to work bill will be considered in the session. The bill would allow workers to opt out of union membership, without losing their jobs. Supporters say it will help attract new companies to West Virginia, but organized laborers believe pay scales will be cut.	12/21/15

Program Title: 59 News @11PMDuration: 11:00PM-11:35PM

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Education	The University of Charleston and Concord University are joining forces for a dual school pharmacy program. Both schools announced the partnership today in Riggleman Hall at UC. The joint program will take place in two phases. Students begin the program at Concord and finish up their degree at the University of Charleston.	10/1/15
Healthcare	Fayetteville is getting a new medical center. Medexpress is moving into the neighborhood and is doing their best to keep people healthy. The new location will offer a wide variety of health services from immunizations to X-Rays.	10/27/15
Economy	One local church is collecting a variety of items to help make Christmas better for those less fortunate. Freedom Ministries is collecting everything from toys to blankets for families at the Pine Haven Homeless Shelter. Organizers say the best part when giving the gifts to those less fortunate is seeing their faces light up.	11/24/15

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION	DATE
Education	Some employees with the Mercer County school system are in hot water tonight. Three staff members are currently suspended. 59 News was able to get a memo released by the Mercer County Board of Education. The memo says Major Rober Grace, the JROTC Instructor at Princeton Senior High School, will remain suspended until December 15 th without pay. The memo says Grace was holding hands with two students, and sent a text to a student saying he loved her, calling her “baby” and “beautiful princess.” Another memo says James McPherson was suspended last month for five days without pay at Montcalm High School. We’re told McPherson communicated with a student through social media, on a personal level, not related to academic or extracurricular matters.	12/1/15
Education	West Virginia’s nine community and technical colleges have lost more than 5 thousand students since 2010, according to higher education officials. The decline has put enrollment at just over 21 thousand students. The 20 percent enrollment drop is primarily related to economic ups and downs, with students leaving classrooms when they find jobs. The state’s four-year public universities have experienced similar but smaller drops in enrollment.	12/6/15
Crime	Police in Raleigh County need your help tonight as they search for a woman involved in cloning credit cards. According to state police, the female used the victim’s credit card information at a number of stores at the Crossroads mall. Trooper Marsh with State Police says the purchases total to more than $600. The victim is from Logan County and says she has had the credit card in her possession. The suspect was wearing a black coat and headband at all of the stores. If you have any information on this crime call state police.	12/19/15

- 10/04/15 “Hands Off The Wheel” – a report on the advancement of self-driving cars powered by a form of artificial intelligence. In Silicon Valley, Bill Whitaker takes a test drive in the Mercedes-Benz self-driving automobile and sits inside Google’s version of the driverless car. Unlike current cars, the issues consumers will face with self-driving cars will be related to cybersecurity and privacy. The car industry plans to automate the driving experience feature-by-feature first, before a driverless car is introduced to the market. Mercedes-Benz shared their vision for a car in the year 2030, the F015, a design where the driver turns its back to the steering wheel. (Includes an excerpt from an Infiniti ad) Includes interviews with: Ralf Herrtwich, director of driver assistance and chassis systems at Daimler AG/Mercedes-Benz; Chris Urmson, director self-driving cars at Google; Jaime Waydo, systems engineer at Google; Peter Lehmann, engineer at Daimler AG/Mercedes-Benz; and Mark Rosekind, Administrator of the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA). (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Marc Lieberman)
- “Patrick Kennedy” – an interview / profile of Patrick Kennedy, former Democratic Representative for Rhode Island and the youngest son of deceased Senator Edward “Ted” Kennedy and Joan Kennedy. Patrick discusses his memoir, “A Common Struggle”, co-authored with Stephen Fried, in which he describes not only his own alcoholism struggles, but that of his parents too. Mental illness, anxiety, depression and bipolar disorder have also been prevalent in Patrick’s life. Patrick’s purpose for revealing these Kennedy family secrets is to help break the silence about mental illness and addiction, and he continues to champion this cause through the behavioral health policy organization he has founded, The Kennedy Forum. (Includes an excerpt of Walter Cronkite and Ted Kennedy) (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Richard Bonin)
- “Hidden Holocaust” – a report about Father Patrick Desbois, a French Catholic priest who is the President of Yahad-In Unum, an organization founded in 2004 that seeks to unsilence nearly half of the six million Jewish victims of the Holocaust whose bodies lie in unmarked mass graves, killed by Nazi soldiers in mass shootings in the former USSR. Investigating and speaking to eyewitnesses have led Yahad-In Unum to more than seventeen hundred of Hitler’s hidden killing fields, and each site is memorialized by recording the GPS coordinates. Includes interviews with: Father Patrick Desbois; Paul Shapiro, director of Advanced Studies at the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum; and eyewitnesses to the Holocaust in Moldova (all through translator): Gheorghe of Hiriseni; and Anatoli and Dimitri of Dubassary. Also includes comments by unidentified eyewitnesses through on-screen graphics translation. (C: Lara Logan – P: Alan B. Goldberg)
- The Mail - selected viewer comments about the segments “President Putin” (OAD: 09/27/15) and “Trump” (OAD: 09/27/15)
- 10/11/15 “President Obama” – an interview with President Barack Obama, recorded in the Roosevelt Room of the White House on Tuesday, October 6. Among the topics discussed: Russia’s military mission in Syria led by President Vladimir Putin in support of Syrian President Bashar al-Assad; strategy in dealing with terrorist organizations in the Middle East including ISIS (ISIL) and al Qaeda after the failed program that attempted to train and equip Syrian rebels; presidential primary campaigns; Donald Trump; Hillary Clinton and her use of a private e-mail server; Vice President Joe Biden’s possible run for president; and his thoughts about his last fifteen months in office. (C: Steve Kroft – P: L. Franklin Devine, Maria Gavrilovic, Michael Karzis) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT
- “30 Years on Death Row” – a report on the wrongful murder conviction of Glenn Ford, a man who spent nearly 30 years on death row in Louisiana’s Angola prison. Ford was released after Jake Robinson told the police he robbed and killed jewelry store owner Isadore Rozeman. Marty Stroud served as the prosecutor in Ford’s case and confesses he ignored evidence and composed a jury with no African-Americans. Stroud has asked the Louisiana Bar Association to discipline him for his role in the case. Ford was denied restitution from the state because they believe he knew about the robbery and did nothing about it. Shortly after Ford’s release last year, he was diagnosed with stage IV lung cancer, and died three weeks after his interview with 60 MINUTES. Includes interviews with: Glenn Ford; exonerated death row inmate; Marty Stroud, attorney and lead prosecutor on Ford’s case; and Dale Cox, acting district attorney of Caddo Parish, Louisiana. “Seeking Asylum” – a report on the hundreds of thousands of people arriving in Europe who have fled war or poverty in the Middle East in hopes of reaching Germany. 60 MINUTES follows migrants from Syria, Iraq or Afghanistan who are paying Turkish traffickers to take them across the Aegean Sea in overcrowded boats to land on the Greek island of Lesbos. Once in Greece, migrants are fingerprinted and registered and then they travel through Macedonia, Serbia, Croatia, Slovenia, and Austria, to end up in Germany. German Chancellor Angela Merkel welcomes asylum seekers, but the influx is overwhelming. Includes interviews with: Kirk Day, emergency field director for the International Rescue Committee on Lesbos; Heinz Schaden, mayor of Salzburg, Germany; Katharina El Masri, project management for Save Me Munich; Wolfgang Panzer, mayor of Unterhaching, Germany; and asylum seekers: Ahmed Dosum (through translator), Dr. Bassam al-Tarifi (through translator), and Mohammad Pathlavay. (C: Anderson Cooper – P: Patricia Shevlin, Miles Doran)

“Make-A-Wish” – a report on a local chapter of the “Make-A-Wish” Foundation, a non-profit organization established to grant wishes to children around the world who are living with life-threatening illnesses. The volunteers at the local chapter in northeast Arkansas collect as many donations as possible one day a year to fund the wishes. Kaden Erickson was battling leukemia and had his wish of visiting Australia with his family granted, but died a month ago. Gavin Grubbs suffers from debilitating muscular dystrophy and had his wish granted five years ago to attend the Daytona 500 and meet race car driver Joey Logano, and the two are still close. Includes interviews with: Christie Matthews and Danna Johnson, “Make-A-Wish” volunteers; Kendra Street, “Make-A-Wish” volunteer, former recipient, and a teacher at Marmaduke Elementary School; Kaden Erickson (now deceased) and Gavin Grubbs, “Make-A-Wish” recipients from Arkansas chapter; Joey Logano, NASCAR driver; and Jeanne Erickson, Kaden’s mother. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Robert G. Anderson, Magalie Laguerre-Wilkinson, Aaron Weisz)

“Revis Island” – an interview / profile of the New York Jets All-Pro National Football League (NFL) cornerback, Darrelle Revis, and how his defense shuts down the best receivers in the league. Revis has had five contracts in seven years, and negotiates each salary as hard as he plays. Also includes interviews with: Will Sullivan; speed training coach and owner of Sullivan PROformance; and Sean Gilbert, former NFL defensive lineman and Revis’ uncle. Includes comments by: Brandon Marshall, NFL wide receiver; and Diana Askew, Revis’ mother. (Includes excerpts from HBO’s “Hard Knocks”). (C: Armen Keteyian – P: Alan B. Goldberg)

10/25/15 “Vice President Biden” – an interview with Vice President Joe Biden and his wife, Dr. Jill Biden, recorded at their official residence on the grounds of the Naval Observatory on Saturday, October 24 after the vice president announced on Wednesday that he would not seek the Democratic presidential nomination. Together, they discussed the reasoning behind the decision to not run for president or any future political office, and the death of their son Beau Biden to brain cancer in May. Separately, Joe discussed: how he wants to influence the Democratic Party; Hillary Clinton; Donald Trump; and what he would like to get done in his last fifteen months in office. (C: Norah O’Donnell – P: Michael Radutzky, Guy Campanile)

“Inside The Air War” – a report on the 14-month-old air war against ISIS (ISIL, Daesh) from inside the military operations floor at Al Udeid Air Base in Qatar. Every plane flying over Iraq and Syria is being tracked from here. 60 MINUTES cameras capture a B-1 bomber, in real-time, striking a car-bomb factory with secondary explosions indicating explosives were inside. The air war costs the U.S. $10 million a day, launching aircraft from bases in Kuwait, Qatar, the United Arab Emirates, Jordan and Turkey. The estimated number of enemy fighters remains unchanged, twenty to thirty thousand, because ISIS has been able to replace the dead with new recruits. Includes interviews with: various American air crew flyers (unidentified due to potential death threats); Lieutenant Colonel David Haworth; and Lieutenant General Charles Brown, commander of the air war. (C: David Martin – P: Mary Walsh)

“The New Burma” – a report on the democratic movement in Burma (also known as Myanmar) before the country’s elections November 8th and the woman most responsible for it, Nobel Prize-winning activist Aung San Suu Kyi. The National League for Democracy (NLD) party lead by Suu Kyi is poised to win control of parliament after the election, and Burma President Thein Sein believes this year’s election will be free and fair, unlike 1990. Another issue in the pursuit for democracy is the violent conflict between Buddhists and a Muslim minority called the Rohingya. Includes interviews with: Aung San Suu Kyi, human rights activist, former political prisoner and current chairperson of the NLD; Ashin Wirathu (through translator), Burmese monk and militant Buddhist; and President Thein Sein (through translator), Burma’s president. Also includes comments by Abdusalem (through translator), Muslim in a refugee camp. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Rachael Morehouse, Henry Schuster)

48 HOURS

10/03/15 48 HOURS: “The Doctor’s Daughter” - an investigation into the 2012 death of Leslie Neulander, the wife of Dr. Robert Neulander, a prominent New York State obstetrician, and the quest to discover whether her death was an accident or murder. Leslie Neulander suffered a massive head wound while showering, but her body was found on the bedroom floor, near the bed and far from the shower. The Medical Examiner ruled the death an accidental but investigators suspected the husband, Dr. Neulander, of covering up the crime. The couple’s daughter, Jenna Neulander, was the only other person in the home at the time, and made the 911 call to summon help. The investigation uncovered a troubled marriage, suggestions of a pending split and declining finances. Eighteen months after Leslie Neulander’s death, her husband was charged with her murder. The defense maintained the Neulander’s had a loving marriage and that Leslie had died from injuries from the fall in the shower. Prosecutors say it was murder and the doctor covered up the crime. The science of blood spatter and the 911 call for help became focal points in the trial. Jenna Neulander testified in her father’s defense. Robert Neulander was found guilty. On-screen text graphic: Just this week, Neulander surrendered his license to practice medicine. Interviewed: Scott Kapral (NY Police Sergeant); Jim Stevens (attorney/CBS News Consultant); Bill Fitzpatrick (Onondage County DA); Dr. Mary Jumbelic (friend of Leslie Neulander); July Crosby (Neulander employee); Edward Menkin (defense attorney); Karen Green (forensic scientist). - 10/10/15 48 HOURS: “Shadow of Death” - a report on the murders of Andra and Brad Sachs, who in 2014 were killed during a suspected home invasion, in which their younger son was left paralyzed. Evidence in the crime points towards one of their older sons, Ashton Sachs, who was allegedly fascinated by the 1989 Menendez brothers murder case. The Sachs were a wealthy couple with five children, who had divorced, but continued to live together in upscale San Juan Capistrano, California. Investigation first led to the theory of a business deal gone bad, but a month after the shootings, then-19-year-old Ashton Sachs was charged with murder. Family members say that Sachs was an avid player of violent video games and had been fascinated with the sensational 1989 Menendez murders. Through interviews with various family members and experts, including highly respected child psychologist Ali Mattu of Columbia University, a portrait of Ashton Sachs emerges as a very troubled individual potentially suffering from mental illness. Warning signs of a troubled life were on the surface, and family dynamics played a part in the case. Sachs remains in a California jail and is scheduled to go on trial for the murders in March 2016. On-screen text graphic: Ashton Sachs is being held in solitary confinement. Authorities will not confirm reports he has tried again to take his own life. Interviewed: Orange County Register Meghann Cuniff; reporter/48 HOURS consultant Jack Leonard; Orange County realtor Monte Burghardt; Andra’s close friend Nina Lifshultz; weapons expert Nabil Khattar; trauma surgeon Dr. Enrique Ginzburg; Ashton’s friend Connor Ward; attorney Mary Fulginiti; Columbia University child psychologist, Ali Mattu; Andra’s sisters Lesley Summers and Stephanie Garber. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Chuck Stevenson, Judy Ryback)
- 10/17/15 48 HOURS: “Vengeance in Vegas” – an investigation into the 2012 murder of Shauna Tiaffay, a Las Vegas casino cocktail waitress who was brutally beaten to death in her townhouse, while her husband George Tiaffay, a West Point military graduate and firefighter, worked an all-night shift at the firehouse. Investigation revealed that the Tiaffay marriage had begun to crumble; they had separated, but shared custody of their daughter. Police focused on the husband, but George had a solid alibi. Police also discovered an earlier robbery and a strange clue the robber left behind. Forty-eight hours into the investigation, detectives received a crucial tip from a local resident, William Pennix (aka “Big Will”) – a friend had told him that he had just killed a woman. The tip led investigators to a homeless man named “Greyhound” (Noel Stevens) who lived in the desert away from the Las Vegas strip. Police believed that George Tiaffay had befriended Stevens, and manipulated his friend with the promise of cash if he would kill his wife. They also matched the murder weapon with merchandise that the two men are seen shopping for, on video footage acquired by the police. Stevens and Tiaffay were arrested. Stevens pleaded guilty in 2013 to Shauna’s murder. In a pre-trial deal, he agreed to testify against George Tiaffay once prosecutors promised not to seek the death penalty against him. George Tiaffay was found guilty. On-screen text graphic: Shauna's family is raising awareness for domestic violence through their group Justice4Shauna. Noel Stevens will be sentenced in November for Shauna's murder. He faces a maximum of life in prison without the possibility of parole. Interviewed: William Pennix (informant); Paula Stokes-Richards (Shauna’s sister); Randee Emmett, Siana Nikolav (Shauna’s friends); Bernadette Tiaffay and Maria McGrew (George’s sisters); Roc Ryder (George’s West Point friend); Dan Long and Terri Miller (Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department investigators); Detective Sam Smith; Marc DiGiacomo (prosecutor); Robert Langfore (Tiaffay’s defense attorney); Pam Weckerly (Assistant Clark County DA) (C: Peter Van Sant – P: Allen Alter, Alec Sirken, Chris Young Ritzen, Cindy Cesare, Chris O’Connell)

- 10/24/15 48 HOURS: “The Hunter” - a report on the 2012 disappearance of Kelli Bordeaux, a young army combat medic who went missing in Fort Bragg, North Carolina, and one local bounty hunter’s own efforts to find her -- his first case after he receiving his private investigator’s license. Bordeaux had gone to a local bar and never returned home. A massive search was conducted, but no clues turned up. Police had several suspects, including Mike Bordeaux, her estranged husband; Justin Thompson, a man she was dating; and Nicholas Holbert, a man who was last seen with her the night she went missing. Without telling the police, bounty hunter David Marshburn (now a 48 HOURS consultant), launched his own investigation. Alibis for Bordeaux and Thompson were airtight, so Marshburn befriended Holbert, putting him at ease and sometimes paying him to open up with information. Finally, Marshburn told police what he was up to and they told him to continue with his investigation. Holbert confessed to Marshburn, that Bordeaux had learned that Holbert was a sex offender, which offered a motive. In 2014, Marshburn decided time was up and convinced Holbert to lead him to Kelly Bordeaux’s body. The footage shown from the subsequent arrest video is the first broadcast of a confession captured by a police officer’s bodycam. On-screen text graphic: Under his plea deal, Nicholas Holbert waived all rights to an appeal. Nicholas Holbert will receive psychiatric counseling and substance abuse treatment in prison. David Marshburn is investigating a new missing person’s case. Interviewed: David Marshburn (private detective/48 HOURS Consultant); Johnna Henson (Bordeaux’s mother); Olivia Cox and Matt Henson (Bordeaux’s sister and brother); Justin Thompson (boyfriend); Jeff Locklear (Fayetteville, North Carolina detective); Billy West (District Attorney). (C: Troy Roberts - P: Marc B. Goldbaum, Paul LaRosa, Jonathan Leach)
- 10/31/15 48 HOURS: “The Pact” (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the murder of 15-year-old John McCabe of Tewksbury, Massachusetts, who was murdered after a dance in 1969, and his family’s decades-long quest to find out what really happened to him. Police launched a massive investigation; there were suspicions that John’s schoolmates may have been involved. One, Walter Shelley, was driving in a car that matched the description of a car spotted near the crime scene, but there was no forensic evidence and the case went cold. In 2000, Bill McCabe got a tip from John’s childhood friend, Jack Ward: he heard at a BBQ, that the motive for the murder was jealousy and John had been flirting with Shelley’s girlfriend, Marla Shiner. The case stalled again. In 2007, a new investigation was launched which led to Edward Alan Brown, who shared details of what happened that night. Mike Ferreira and Walter Shelley were arrested for the murder. Ferreira was tried first and was found not guilty: the jury did not believe Brown’s story. Bill McCabe died four days after the verdict. Evelyn McCabe took up the quest for justice. Walter Shelley stood trial. This jury believed Brown and he was convicted of murder. On-screen text graphic for original and rebroadcast: Evelyn McCabe has filed a wrongful death suit against Michael Ferreira, Walter Shelley and Edward Allen Brown. Interviewed: Bill and Evelyn McCabe (parents); Debbie McCabe, Roberta McCabe (sisters); Gerry Leone (former District Attorney); Mike Ferreira and his wife Nancy Williams; Jack Ward (childhood friend); Detective Linda Coughlin; Ken Lavalee (police); Eric Wilson (Ferreira’s attorney); Michael Duquett (juror). (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Judy Rybak, Peter Henderson) (OAD: 10/25/14)
- 10/31/15 48 HOURS: “The Bugs Bunny Defense” (10:00-11:00p) – a report on the 2007 death of Patrick Duffey and the incredible story his wife, Linda told police about what actually happened: she and her husband had reenacted a moment from a Bugs Bunny cartoon and she accidentally shot and killed her husband with a gun. Police questioned whether what happened in the suburban Whittier, California home was a freak accident, or an intentional murder. The investigation dragged on for five years, and the case grew cold. Lindy Duffey remarried and was now living with her husband Larry Gwozdz, a well-known jazz musician in Mississippi. In 2012, with a new prosecutor urging them on, police arrested and charged Linda Duffey Gwozdz with murder. At the trial, her team used the Bugs Bunny defense and the case ended with a deadlocked jury. One year later, for her second trial, prosecutors did not rely on the interrogation videos in which Linda spoke about the cartoon defense. Instead they claimed that it was a pre-meditated, deliberate murder. In order to bring up the cartoon defense, Linda Duffey Gwozdz would have to testify herself. She declined to do so. She was found guilty of murder. On-screen text graphic: Linda Duffey Gwozdz is appealing her conviction. Interviewed: Shaun McCarthy and Shannon Laren (Los Angeles County detectives); Julie Prendergast (Linda Duffey’s former friend); Katherine Hunt (Patrick Duffey’s sister); Tracy Peck (Los Angeles Country firearms expert); Paul Delhauer (blood evidence expert); Robert Villa (Deputy District Attorney); Brandi Jones, Andrew Dixon, Danielle Wong, Patricia Enriquez (jurors from first and second trials). “Veterans Journey Home: Faith, Hope & War”: an interfaith special examining the issues veterans face as they transition to civilian life. According to the Department of Veterans Affairs, there are 22 million veterans in the U.S. This program highlights the stories of some of these men and women who have volunteered to serve their country. Featured on the program are: (1) Rev. Dr. Rita Nakashima Brock is founding Co-Director of the Soul Repair Center at Brite Divinity School in Ft. Worth, Texas. A widely recognized expert on the emerging study of moral injury and recovery, she talks about moral injury and what it takes to rebuild a moral identity. (2) Rev. Dr. Craig Combs, a retired chaplain with the Texas National Guard, served two tours in Iraq. Currently a Faith & Community Based Initiative Coordinator with the Military Veteran Peer Network, he discusses how society needs to do a better job in helping veterans transition from a “war mind to a peace mind”. Also includes footage of Rev. Dr. Combs leading a discussion with a group of Texas veterans. (3) Traumatic brain injury and post-traumatic stress (PTS) are often referred to as the unseen wounds of war. It’s estimated that 500,000 veterans have returned from the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan with symptoms of PTS. Less than half seek help for their condition, and many self-medicate with drugs and alcohol. Among the areas impacted is the criminal justice system in Denton County, Texas, where a Veterans Treatment Court Program is offered as an alternative to serving time in jail. Includes interviews with Judge David D. Garcia and Ginger Simonson, a Veteran Peer Services Coordinator with the Military Veteran Peer Network. (4) Olivia Bush, Program Coordinator for The Lotus Project for Women Veterans, discusses the challenges that are unique to women vets. In addition to mental health referrals and basic needs support, the organization offers permanent, supportive housing options for disabled women veterans. Also features two female veterans who found permanent housing and support through the program. (5) Rev. Dr. Robert Lee Hill, Minister Emeritus of the Community Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Kansas City, Missouri, talks about how the faith community can help foster a “repair of the soul”. (Narrator: Rolland Smith. Executive Producer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Natalie Baxter. Director & Senior Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with: National Council of Churches; The Islamic Society of North America; New York Board of Rabbis; A Consortium of Roman Catholic Organizations.)
