48 HOURS

01/02/16 48 HOURS: "The Sober Truth" – an investigation into the death of Karla Mendez Brada, a woman struggling with addiction, who sought help in an Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) program in California; the ex-con she fell in love with; and the circumstances that caused police to suspect him in her murder, when she was found dead in 2011, in the condo they shared. Also included is an examination of how judges around the country sentence some criminals to attend AA meetings, and that AA's own non-disclosure guidelines put them side-by-side with those who are vulnerable in recovery. Brada battled an addiction to alcohol and prescription pills. She entered a program, got her life together, and bought a condo. Then she relapsed and re-entered a program where she was bussed to meetings of Narcotics Anonymous and Alcoholics Anonymous. Brada crossed paths with Eric Earle, who was in a sober living facility that required him to attend AA meetings. They fell in love and he moved in with her. She soon discovered he was abusive. The investigation into what happened to Brada exposes the risks of a recovery system that mixes convicted criminals in with the general population without the knowledge of many of those new to AA. Also included is what some AA members refer to as the secret "13th Step", where male members take advantage of vulnerable women. In 2014, the case went to jury. Eric Alan Earle was found guilty of first-degree murder. Brada's parents have filed a lawsuit against Alcoholics Anonymous, the organization they also hold responsible for their daughter's death because they did not warn attendees that violent criminals could be at the same meetings they attend. Original On-screen text graphic: Alcoholics Anonymous has not filed a response to the Mendez family's lawsuit. It is due December 1st. On-screen text graphic for the 01/02/16 rebroadcast: The Mendez family's lawsuit against Alcoholics Anonymous is still pending. 01/09/16 PREEMPTION

01/16/16 48 HOURS: "The Verdict" - an investigation into the 2010 death of Robert Cline in Seminole County, Florida, and the case against Anita Smithey, who was convicted of second-degree murder for killing him, her estranged husband. While the two were in bed, she claims that she was being violently raped and that she feared for her life. Smithey admits she shot and killed Cline, but she asserts it was not murder. Their relationship started out with promise: Cline was a widower with children and Smithey also had kids. After they married, things began to change in their relationship, which Smithey attributed to Cline's addiction to marijuana. He also demanded rough sex. They eventually separated, but continued to meet every Monday for sex. During their last fateful encounter, she says he started to rape her, and then she shot him. She also said he stabbed her with a knife. During a police interrogation, Smithey went from being a victim to a murder suspect when she admitted to stabbing herself. Her attorney maintained that police bullied her into making that statement. The case pitted the couple's extended families against each other, raised questions about their relationship and whether the shooting was justifiable homicide or murder. Prosecutors argued there was no rape and say the knife wounds were self-inflicted. At the trial's end, which many believe was going the way of the defense, Smithey's attorney Rick Jancha, mistakenly opened the door to the jury being able to hear the 911 call that had been forbidden to be used. Smithey was found guilty. Just before sentencing, her attorney suffered a fatal heart attack, and another attorney has stepped in to plan an appeal. The Cline family continues to maintain that Smithey was the abuser. On-screen text graphic for the original and 01/16/16 rebroadcast: Robert Cline's children were adopted by his sister, Belinda. Anita's children are being raised by her first husband. Interviewed: Anita Smithey; Drew Smithey (son); Stephanie Cline (daughter); Belinda Cline (Cline's sister); Jessica Flores (Smithey's best friend); Daniel Mattingly and Matthew DePanicis (detectives); Whitney Boan (Smithey's current attorney); Phil Andry, Audie Andry (Smithey's father and brother); Stacey Salmons and Kelly Jo Hines (prosecutors). 48 HOURS (continued)

01/23/16 48 HOURS: "A Vision of Murder" (9:00-10:00p) - an investigation into the 2010 death of Kelly Brennan, and her friend Sheila Trott's dream in which she perceived Brennan to be in danger. Brennan was later found bludgeoned to death near Mark's Landing in Indiatlantic, Florida and Trott was subsequently arrested for her murder. To some, Trott is a clairvoyant who was able to provide information to help the police; to others, she is a killer. The investigation uncovered an alleged love triangle between Trott, Brennan and Trott's estranged husband, Dan Trott. Trott says she encouraged the match to free herself from a bad marriage; prosecutors believe the relationship led to murder. Prosecutors say Trott spoke about the dream to her mother and her sons, making statements that she had hurt someone -- basically confessing to the crime, as her mother related in a 911 call to police. Four-and-a-half years later, Sheila Trott remains behind bars, awaiting trial. Though the case is admittedly circumstantial, prosecutors believe they have a strong case. As the trial is scheduled to begin, Trott has her own problems. Her lawyer has been disbarred and she must rely on a public defender. They plan to point the finger at Dan Trott. In 2014, as the trial progresses, her two sons take the stand against her -- testifying for the prosecution. Sheila Trott then had a new defense - her dream was really an eyewitness account of what had really happened to Kelly. Her attorneys make no mention of this, but try to pick apart the State's case, pointing the finger at Kelly's jealous husband, Gino Rallo. The jurors reach a verdict: Sheila Trott is guilty of first-degree, premeditated murder. Original on-screen text graphic: Creighton and Graham Trott recently visited their mother in prison. They told 48 HOURS "...We unequivocally believe in our mother's innocence and stand by her." On-screen text graphic for the 01/23/16 rebroadcast: Sheila's sons, Creighton and Graham, told 48 HOURS "...We unequivocally believe in our mother's innocence and stand by her." 01/23/16 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "My Name is Victoria" (10:00-11:00p) - a report about California woman kidnapped, tortured and left for dead, who reveals her extraordinary tale of survival and the 18-year-hunt for her assailants that led to the arrest of an "Austin Powers: International Man of Mystery" actor. This is the story of one woman's will to live through a brutal attack, how that night changed her life forever, and the investigation and changing technology that would help police track down her attackers 18 years later. Victoria, whose name was changed for this 48 HOURS broadcast, was just 19-years-old on Christmas Eve in 1990, when two men came out of nowhere as she approached her apartment and attacked her. The force of the attack knocked her out. She came to just as she was being thrown into the back of a car. With sheer will and quick thinking, she survived a series of terrible events, including multiple sexual assaults. Surviving that night was just the start of the investigation and the healing, which continues today. Unfortunately, the case went cold. Eighteen years later, police got the break they needed when DNA taken from Victoria's body the night of the attack matched someone in the system. The suspect, Joseph Son, was an actor in "Austin Powers: International Man of Mystery". Son's high school friend Santiago Gaitan was later arrested. Before trial, Deputy District Attorney Eric Scarbrough made a sickening discovery -- the statute of limitations for rape and kidnapping had long expired. Ultimately, Scarbrough found another way to legally prosecute the case. On-screen text graphic: Joseph Son's trial is scheduled for March 2016. Santiago Gaitan could be paroled as early as 2018. Last week, Victoria became a grandmother for the first time. She and her family are excited for a new beginning. Interviewed: "Victoria" (not her real name); Don Howell (Detective, Huntington Beach Police Department); Eric Scarbrough (Deputy DA, Orange County, CA). 01/30/16 48 HOURS: "Murder 90210" (10:00-11:00p) - a followup to 48 HOURS PRESENTS: "The Bizarre Saga of Robert Durst" (OAD: 03/21/15) - a report on new details in the case of millionaire Robert Durst. In a dramatic and unusual turn in the bizarre story of Robert Durst, next week, the millionaire is expected to agree to a plea deal on a gun charge in New Orleans so he can face trial in California for the murder of his friend Susan Berman, who was shot dead in her California home 15 years ago. Will that trial clear his name in a case that has dogged him for years -- as attorney Dick DeGuerin suggests -- or will he end up spending the rest of his life in jail, where investigators say he should have been all along? The story of Robert Durst includes allegations about his missing wife, his alleged ties to the murder of Berman, and the police who have spent years trying to solve the case. In 2000, Berman was found shot dead in her home. She was the daughter of a well-known Las Vegas mobster, which initially led to speculation that she was a victim of a mob hit. At the time of Berman's death, Durst was hiding in Galveston, Texas, where he took on the identity of a mute woman. Durst and Berman were friends, and she publicly defended him from allegations that he knew more about his wife's disappearance than he had told police. Durst wasn't considered a suspect in Berman's death until nine months later when he was involved with the death of Morris Black in Galveston. Durst maintained he accidentally killed Black in self-defense. He then cut up Black's body. A jury eventually acquitted him of murder. Durst is currently in a New Orleans jail, since he was arrested in 2015 after the HBO documentary "The Jinx" aired and raised questions in the Berman case. On-screen text graphic: Family members of Durst's first wife Kathy have filed a hundred-million-dollar lawsuit against him. The lawsuit claims the family has a right to Kathy's body for burial. Included are new interviews with: Jeanine Pirro (former Westchester DA), Dick DeGuerin (Durst's attorney); and Steve Cooley (former LA District Attorney). Also featured are previous interviews with: Jim McCormack (Kathie Durst's brother); Dr. Alexander Sasha Bardey (forensic psychiatrist); Lisa DePaulo (writer); Paul Coulter (retired Los Angeles Detective); Cody Cazalas (Galveston Detective Sergeant); Emily and Stuart Altman (Durst's friends); Chip Lewis (former Durst attorney); Dr. Milton Altschler; Dr. Lawson Bernstein (forensic psychiatrist); Andrew Jarecki (filmmaker).
