His parents believe he was killed because he was unwilling to go along with a plan to share cutting-edge American technology with China. He was scheduled to leave Singapore in a matter of days when he was found dead. Journalist and 48 HOURS consultant Ray Bonner, who broke the story in London's Financial Times, says police made mistakes in the investigation, and that he is quite surprised, because Singapore is a sophisticated place. With pressure mounting, Singapore expanded a coroner's inquest into Shane Todd's death. In all, seventy witnesses testified over the course of ten days of testimony. The state's coroner ruled that the cause of death was suicide by hanging. He also found nothing legally wrong with the IME - Huawei relationship, yet determined that the meeting Shane's boss had with IME colleagues was "improper, but not witness tampering." Shane's family feel betrayed, and plan on taking their quest for truth to Washington, pressing for a congressional investigation and a meeting with President Obama. On-Screen Text Graphic: The Todds are expecting their first grandchild. He will be named Truman. Interviewed: Shane Todd's parents, Mary and Rick Todd; his brothers Chet, John and Dylan Todd; journalist/48 HOURS consultant Ray Bonner; Shane's girlfriend Shirley Sarmiento; neighbor Michael Goodwin; certified forensic computer analyst Ashraf Massoud; Dr. Edward Adelstein, chief of pathology, VA Hospital, Columbia, Missouri. - 10/12/13 48 HOURS: "Death at Cottonwood Creek" - a report on this week's jury decision in the murder trial of Frederick Mueller, who was charged with 2008 murder of his wife, Dr. Leslie Mueller, while the two were out for a walk near their vacation home in Lake City, Colorado. According to what Frederick Mueller told police, while the Muellers were out hiking, Mueller stopped to talk a photo of his wife near the edge of a cliff. His wife lost her footing near the waterfall and plunged into a creek. Her body was swept away downstream. It appeared to be an accident, but investigators were skeptical and believed it was murder. Four years later, Mueller was arrested for first degree murder. His first trial ended in a mistrial. The second trial ended this week in another mistrial. 48 HOURS examined the incident and the trials through interviews with the Mueller family, investigators, prosecutors, and jury members. On-Screen Text Graphic: On Tuesday, the prosecution and defense will meet with Judge Wasserman to discuss the future of the case. - 10/19/13 48 HOURS: "aka Rockefeller" - a report about the mysterious life of Christian Gerhartsreiter, a con-man, who had pretended, since he came to America from Germany, to be a bond trader, a TV producer, a baronet and even Clark Rockefeller, a member of the famous and wealthy Rockefeller family. In 2008, Gerhartsreiter, then claiming to be Clark Rockefeller, made headlines when he abducted his 7-year-old daughter. The Rockefeller family made it clear that he was not a part of their family. What he was, according to police, was a killer on the run. His arrest in the kidnapping case blew the lid off a 30-year con. All the other identities he had used came to light including the alias he was living under in 1982 in San Marino, California: Christopher Chichester, the 13th Baronet of Chichester. San Marino police believe he murdered John and Linda Sohus, who disappeared in 1985. Years later, the bones of John Sohus were found in the backyard of the house where they lived. At the time, Christopher Chichester lived in the guest house on the property. He went on trial for the murder of John Sohus and was found guilty. On-Screen Text Graphic: "Rockefeller" fired his lawyers and filed his own petition for a new trial. The judge denied the motion. His daughter is now twelve-years-old. She has no contact with her father. 48 HOURS (continued)

10/26/13 48 HOURS: "The Ghosts of Greenwich" (9:00-10:00p) - an updated rebroadcast about: (1) the murder of 15-year-old Martha Moxley in Greenwich, Connecticut, as detailed in "Never Forget" (OAD: 05/11/00), and "Above the Law" (OAD: 04/13/02); and (2) the new developments in Kennedy family member Michael Skakel's efforts to overturn his 2002 murder conviction of Moxley, which were detailed in the following 48 HOURS reports: "RFK, Jr: A Family's Defense" (OAD: 04/16/03); "The Ghosts of Greenwich" (OAD: 09/10/03, updated on 08/30/08). This broadcast takes a look at the recent developments in Skakel's case and his upcoming new trial. In 1975, Moxley was murdered. Members of the Skakel family were among those considered as suspects, but the case went cold. Years later, a new investigation, prompted by the publication of the book "Murder in Greenwich", led to the arrest and conviction of Michael Skakel. His brothers and his cousin, Robert F. Kennedy, Jr., believe he was wrongly convicted. In 2003, Kennedy wrote an article for The Atlantic Monthly, which outlined his reasons for claiming that Michael Skakel was wrongly convicted. A petition for a new trial was denied. The Skakel family continued to file appeals. In April, 2013, Michael Skakel testified in court that his lawyer, Mickey Sherman, did not properly represent him. This week, a judge agreed and a new trial was granted, based on this evidence. On-Screen Text Graphic: Mickey Sherman says Michael Skakel is innocent and deserves a new trial. Skakel's new lawyer is now working on getting him released on bail. The State plans to appeal the judge's decision.
