

KQNG FM 93.5 Public Affairs Issue discussions 2019 3rd Quarter. 30minutes Sunday mornings 6am

July 7 KQNG FM93.5

We talked with the Campaign coordinator Lynette Medrano-Stein of the Kaua`i United Way: annual Federal Employee campaign which will start in October on Kaua`i and non-profit support and funding for not-for-profit agencies on Kaua`i .

July 14, KQNG FM93.5

We spoke with Peggy Lake of our Kaua`i Community College Office of Continuing Education and Training. We discussed the upcoming fall 2019 programs, services and scholarships offered people of Kaua`i.

July 21, KQNG FM93.5 We spoke with the Kaua`i Humane Society about it's programs and services. We also discussed the new policy of not euthenizing stray wild cats with out a $ 90 Fee. We also discussed the upcoming Gala Paws For Celbration at the Kaua`i Marriott.

July 28, KQNG FM93.5

We repeated an earlier show We discussed the Village Harvest, a volunteer-based gleaning program that focuses on harvesting and donating the abundant fruit growing on Kaua`i to those in need of fresh produce. We discussed their effort to bridge the gap between food waste and food insecurity by utilizing food left over from harvests on personal properties and small farms. The harvests are donated to food pantries and keiki lunch programs to encourage agricultural learning, healthy eating, and foster an appreciation for local produce.

Aug4, KQNG FM93.5

We spoke with Malka'al Ka'aumoana about Hanalei Watershed Hui : about the Hanalei Watershed Science Center, continued water science education program, a local flood alert system, protection of Hanalei's scenic view planes and the interpretive walking tour of the Hanalei Watershed

Aug11, KQNG FM93.5

We spoke with Sue Kanoho of The _Kaua'i Visitors Bureau. We discussed the upcoming World Tourism day September 27th and the immense, vital benefits to business and working families on Kaua'i of the Visitor industry and it's related business effecting our culture on Kaua'i.

Aug 18, KQNG FM93.5

We combined a discussion with Kumu's Cupboard: free school supplies for teachers and Back Pack Brigade: free school supplies for students...talking about the upcoming fall break and holiday help for Teachers and Students on Kaua'i

Aug 25 KQNG FM93.5

Discussed with the Hawai'i Small Business Center about the programs they offer Kaua'i folks centere around the year around program "How to start a Small Businesson Kaua'i

Sept 1, KQNG FM93.5

Kaua'i Independent Foodbank. We talked about the need for food for students during the upcoming fall break from Kaua'i schools and the Holidays. We discussed the upcoming food drives and the continuing need for fresh fruit and vegetable donations.

Sept 8, KQNG FM93.5

Red Cross Kaua'i Branch. We talked about the campaign for Lifesaving training through CPR and first aid courses. Workplace Safety courses. Disaster preparedness information on how to prepare for emergencies to get Fire/Smoke alarms in as many homes as possible on Kaua'i . The focus on Fire prevention week coming up in October.

Sept 15, KQNG FM93.5

We discussed the role of our Kaua'i Economic Development Board which deals with Food & Agriculture, Health & Wellness, Sports & Recreation, Arts & Culture, High Technology and Renewable Energy. They address the island's economic issues from assisting businesses with creating new jobs on Kaua'i to facilitating Kaua'i job and career opportunities for local students, to promoting affordable housing, and more.

Sept 22, KQNG FM93.5

Spoke Kyle Pias of Hallux Ecosystem Restoration about our endangered bird challenges, solutions and progress controlling invasive cats.

Sept 29, KQNG FM93.5

Continued the extensive conversation with Kyle Pias of Hallux Ecosystem Restoration about our endangered bird challenges.

