Issue	Program	Date	Time	Duration	Description of Program
Family	Closer Look	10/9	7:00 pm	30 minutes Segment 1	CLOSER LOOK: ‘Solo’ Parent Society Hosts Free Online Support Groups- After 13 years of marriage, Robert Beeson suddenly found himself single. “My wife left me -- and left me with our three daughters who were 9, 7 and 4 at the time. It was the darkest season.” Grappling with this new solo responsibility, the divorced dad turned to his church for comfort and support. He was saddened to find very few Christian resources address the deep loneliness and doubt that many single parents endure. Out of his own need to be part of a welcoming faith community, Beeson founded the Solo Parent Society.
Family	Local Closer Look	10/3	7:30 pm	20 minutes	Big Brothers Big Sister of the Bay Area, connecting with kids with mentors in the Bay Area- Rafael Sierra spoke with Anthony Spivey, Vice President of Programs for Big Brothers Big Sister of the Bay Area (BBBSBA) about their efforts of connecting kids (ages of 6 and 16) with responsible adult mentors who can guide them through life’s many challenges. Spivey spoke about BBBSBA’s mission, it’s background and how he became part of their leadership team. He talked about the areas they serve (San Francisco Bay Area) and the importance of volunteerism to help them accomplish their mission. He also spoke about the need for mentors and having more than 600 kids on a waiting list to find their Big Brother/Big Sister. Spivey mentioned a kid’s parent-guardian-family being important to picking their mentor, and the intake process of a potential mentor to become a Big Brother/Big Sister. He also spoke about their guidelines to help keep kids safe once they are matched up with a mentor. And once a match has been made, Spivey gave ideas of what kids and their Big Brother/Big Sister can expect to do like playing ball, hiking, going to Great America, going to a ballgame, going to a concert, or just ‘hanging out.’ Contact information was given for Big Brothers Big Sister of the Bay area including a website.

Family	Local Closer Look	10/24	7:30 pm	20 minutes	Special Needs- Rafael Sierra spoke with Cathleen Small, New and Young Families Services Director at Down Syndrome Connection of the Bay Area (DSCBA) about their mission to empower, inspire and support people with Down Syndrome, their families and the community. Serving the San Francisco CA Bay Area, and reaching out to other areas in California, including parts of Oregon. Serving families and individuals with Down Syndrome in different capacities, including offering a wide range of programs and resources to meet the needs of people with Down Syndrome. This includes educational resources, music therapy, sports and recreation, cognitive and communication services, mental health services, programs for new and expectant parents and more. Small also mentioned her experiences helping out folks with Down Syndrome and seeing these kids, adults and their families thrive. Contact information was given for the Down Syndrome Connection of the Bay Area including a website.

Public Safety	Closer Look	11/28	7:00 pm	30 minutes Segment 1	CLOSER LOOK: Heroes Shaped by 9/11: Lessons from the Attack on the America. For those who witnessed the aftermath up close, the effects of 9-11 were infinitely more personal than intrusive changes to airport security. The attacks redirected their personal health and professional ministries. Kevin Ellers, D. Min was in Kansas City when he was called to the Trade Towers collapse in New York City with The Salvation Army. Ellers has since designed curriculum with titles like Spiritual First Aid used to train first responders internationally. Rev. Dr. Tim Carentz was a young Air Force medic in D.C. when he got the call to the Pentagon on 9-11. He was eventually diagnosed with post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD). Leaning on faith in Jesus and the support of his military community, Carentz retired from the USAF as a Chief Master Sergeant and now operates Kaiserslautern Military Resiliency Center.
