

Quarterly Issues 2022 Third Quarter

July-September

Faith and Politics, Anxiety, Widowhood, Social Boundaries, Time Management, Autism, Education, Marriage and Divorce, Homelessness, Healthy Boundaries, Anger Management, Suicide, Grandparenting

Third Quarter

Issue: Faith and Politics

July 4, 2022 At 9:30 we aired an interview with Dan Fisher, Author of the Black Robed Regiment, for 25 minutes about how the clergy and church worked in the 18th century to influence freedom for the colonies and how we can do the same today.

Issue: Anxiety

July 7, 2022 We carried a discussion with counselor and author, Sissy Goff, about helping children overcome anxiety at 9:30 for 25 minutes.

Issue: Widowhood

July 11, 2022 We broadcast a discussion with Ryan and Jessica Ronne at 8:30 for 25 minutes about the pain and loss of a spouse and then moving forward through widowhood to a new chapter in life.

Issue: Social Boundaries

July 18, 2022 We aired an interview with Psychologists and authors, Dr John Townsend and Dr Henry Cloud at 8:00 for 25 minutes. They discussed how we should and can set healthy boundaries in our relationships to protect all of our various relationships.

Issue: Time Management

August 8, 2022 Broadcast an interview with author, Jordan Raynor, at 9:30 for 25 minutes about effective time management and how to plan on intentional living.

Issue: Autism

August 11, 2022 We ran an interview at 8:30 for 25 minutes with Sho and Patreece Baraka regarding a child with Autism. They offered suggestions and resources as they shared their own personal story.

Issue: Education

August 16, 2022 We interviewed Kent Russell at 5:00 for 15 minutes about a legacy work he and his family continue in Uruguay providing education.

Issue: Marriage and Divorce

August 29, 2022 We aired a lecture by Larry and Sue Wright about their marriage and how they fought work and alcoholism to overcome a pending divorce. At 9:30 for 25 minutes, they shared their story and what they did to rebuild their marriage.

Issue: Homelessness

September 6, 2022 We ran an interview at 9:30 for 25 minutes with Mike Yankoski , author of "Under the Overpass" about homelessness, his undercover work for five months and solutions we can offer those who are homeless.

Issue: Conflict Resolution

September 13, 2022 Aired an interview at 8:30 for 25 minutes with David and Megg Robins about conflict resolution and anger management.

Issue: Suicide

September 15, 2022 Carried an interview at 8:00 for 25 minutes about suicide, the second leading cause of death among people aged 10-34, according to the Centers For Disease Control. Dr Gregory Dantz discussed identifying those who need help, and steps to take to help those who are in need.

Issue: Grandparenting

September 21, 2022 Broadcast a discussion with Dr. Tim Kimmel at 8:30 for 25 minutes about grandparents' roles and influence on upcoming generations.