

WDUN-FM Programs and Issues 4th Quarter 2018

Issue:

Teen pregnancy

Addressed:

5 minute interview

When:

October 1, 2018

Description:

Lee Koz, director of the Choices Care Pregnancy Center, discussed with WDUN's Bill Maine and Joel Williams on "The Morning News with Bill and Joel" the upcoming fund raising dinner to support the facility, which provides support to teens who become pregnant

.....
Issue:

Opioid abuse

Addressed:

7 minute interview

When:

October 18, 2018

Description:

Retired Sgt. 1st class Justin Minyard discussed with Bill Maine and Joel Williams on “The Morning Show” his service in Afghanistan and his resulting addiction to opiate drugs. He was joined by Dr. Louis Raso, a pain specialist at Jupiter Medical Center in Florida, working with a new Spinal Cord Stimulation System.

*****

Issue:

New opioid pain killer debuts in U.S. markets

Addressed:

2 minute program

When:

November 6, 2018

Description:

As part of WDUN’s ongoing “End the Epidemic” campaign, the Afternoon News Wrap featured a Fox News feature that detailed the controversy surrounding the recent addition of a new opioid pain killer to the U.S. market.

.....

Issue:

Adoption

Addressed:

5 minute interview

When:

November 15, 2019

Description:

John Clark, host of “Georgia Focus,” previewed his upcoming program with Candi Jones, of the Georgia Division of Family and Children Services with WDUN’s Bill Maine and Joel Williams on “The Morning News with Bill and Joel.” John’s guests also included Norman and Samantha Hill and their adopted son Christian.

Issue:

Holiday shopping scams

Addressed:

5 minute program

When:

November 12, 2018

Description:

With the holiday shopping season getting underway, an unfortunate number of people will fall prey to retail scams and predators capitalizing on charitable spirits. As part of the Afternoon News Wrap’s weekly “Better Business Bureau Scam Tracker” segment, the BBB’s Dottie Callina joined the show to warn listeners about some particular scams that pop up every holiday season, both from a shopping and charity perspective.

Issue:

Local military deployment

Addressed:

5 minute program

When:

November 20, 2018

Description:

Bill Maine and Joel Williams hosted Army wife Molly Nigro on “The Morning Show,” to preview a parade to salute local members of Gainesville’s Charlie Company, 1-121 infantry, 48th Brigade prior to their deployment overseas.

.....

Issue:

Child abuse

Addressed:

5 minute program

When:

December 5, 2018

Description:

Diane L. Redleaf, a family defense attorney, joined “The Morning Show with Bill and Joel” to address her book, “They Took the Kids Last Night: How the Child Protection System Puts Families at Risk.” Her focus is on the dangers of overzealous abuse reporting, sometimes resulting in children wrongly being removed from the care of their parents.

*****

Issue:

Homegrown flu remedies

Addressed:

7 minute interview

When:

December 21, 2018

Description:

Dr. Cass Ingram appeared on “The Morning Show with Bill and Joel” to address the herbal remedies noted in his book, “The Cure is in the Cupboard.”