

KRCC FM
COLORADO SPRINGS, CO.
ISSUES / PROGRAMS LIST
1ST QUARTER JANUARY 1ST – MARCH 31ST 2020
PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS:

KRCC broadcasts a “PSA of the Day” for local non-profits and educational institutions every single day of the year. Each daily PSA is scheduled for broadcast 6 times throughout the broadcast day. The following is a comprehensive list of Public Service Announcements for this quarter...

The third and final meeting for the Re-Imagine Waldo Canyon public planning project happens on January 22 at the Westside Community Center gym. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

The Southern Colorado Trail Builders will host their monthly community meeting on January 20 in Pueblo. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

‘Color In Color: celebrating the beauty of minority women’ is the title of an exhibit at the Sangre De Cristo Arts Center. It runs through April 26. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

The Meadows Park Community Center in Col. Spgs. will host the Pikes Peak Children's Mobile Museum on Jan 18th. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

The Fremont County Community Concert Association presents members of the Air Force Academy Band in a free show in Canon (Canyon) City on Jan 26th. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

Colorado Springs School District 11 presents a parent information night for its gifted magnet program on Feb. 27. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

Rock Ledge Ranch Historic Site will be accepting applications for junior docents the first week of March. More information on this and many other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

Festival Fridays are back at the Sangre de Cristo Arts Center in January. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

Learn more about Mountain View Academy, a brand new school opening in fall 2020 in the Cimarron Hills neighborhood. This family fun night happens Jan. 13th at the District 49 Peakview Room. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

The Backcountry Film Festival happens January 18th in the SteamPlant Event Center in Salida, CO. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

The classic film series at Rockrimmon Library continues on Jan 25th with a screening of 2001: A Space Odyssey. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

Constellations are the theme for a family star party at the Space Foundation Discovery Center on January 29th. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

A parent information night for the Gifted and Talented Magnet Program for grades 6-8 at Sabin Middle School happens Jan. 30. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

Registration will be open for the Pikes Peak Regional Science & Engineering Fair through January 20. The judged competition is open to all 6th - 12th grade students in Elbert, El Paso, Park and Teller counties and will be held on Saturday, February 22. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

The Bear Creek Nature Center will host a wine tasting event which includes the The Hobby Wine Competition Awards on Feb. 15th. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

The Colorado Vocal Arts Ensemble invites the community to “Sanctuary”, a free concert at Grace and St Stephen's Church on Feb. 16th. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

Westside Community Gardeners is hosting Town Hall Informational Meetings on February 5th and February 9th at the Westside Community Center. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

The Pikes Peak Foodshed Forum brings farmers and consumers together to promote and expand local food opportunities in the region. This event is free and open to the public on Feb. 8th at Pikes Peak Community College. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

Experienced gardeners from Bear Creek Garden Association present ‘Organic Vegetable Gardening for Success’ at the Bear Creek Nature Center on March 7th. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

Colorado Springs Youth Symphony Association’s 40th Anniversary Gala Celebration is coming up March 7th. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

Rocky Mountain Women's Film presents a screening and discussion of the documentary Skid Row Marathon on Feb. 27 at Sierra High School. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

NAMI’S Peer-to-Peer is a free, 10-session educational program for adults with mental illness who are looking to better understand their condition and journey toward recovery. THE SESSIONS BEGIN FEB. 13TH. MORE INFORMATION ON THIS AND OTHER PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS CAN BE FOUND ON THE COMMUNITY CALENDAR LINK AT KRCC.ORG

The Cripple Creek District Museum invites you to learn more about the Midland Railroad and the tragedies which befell the line at a history talk on February 9th at the Cripple Creek Heritage Center. MORE INFORMATION ON THIS AND OTHER PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS CAN BE FOUND ON THE COMMUNITY CALENDAR LINK AT KRCC.ORG

A recent study estimates that we've lost nearly 3 billion birds in North American since 1970. The Aiken Audubon Society presents more about this on Feb. 19th at the Bear Creek Nature Center. MORE INFORMATION ON THIS AND OTHER PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS CAN BE FOUND ON THE COMMUNITY CALENDAR LINK AT KRCC.ORG

Cornerstone Community Church in Falcon, CO. presents DivorceCare, a 13-week-long weekly support group on how to navigate thru divorce. Sessions begin Feb. 3rd. MORE INFORMATION ON THIS AND OTHER PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS CAN BE FOUND ON THE COMMUNITY CALENDAR LINK AT KRCC.ORG

The Colorado Springs Pioneers Museum presents its 4th annual Silent Film Soiree on Feb. 14th. The event will feature the 1925 silent film adaptation of Phantom of the Opera. MORE INFORMATION ON THIS AND OTHER PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS CAN BE FOUND ON THE COMMUNITY CALENDAR LINK AT KRCC.ORG

The Pike Peak Genealogical Society presents an Introduction to Genealogy Class at the downtown Col. Spgs. library on Feb. 1st. MORE INFORMATION ON THIS AND OTHER PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS CAN BE FOUND ON THE COMMUNITY CALENDAR LINK AT KRCC.ORG

The Col. Spgs. Pioneers Museum invites kids to explore the stories of people who came to Colorado Springs after the Civil War (and helped shaped the city we live in today). The Great Migration is part of Children's History Hour on Feb. 19th. MORE INFORMATION ON THIS AND OTHER PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS CAN BE FOUND ON THE COMMUNITY CALENDAR LINK AT KRCC.ORG

Each year, Leadership Pikes Peak honors four outstanding community leaders. This year's award ceremony and luncheon happens Feb. 11 in Col. Spgs. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

China's Guangdong Modern Dance Company presents Beyond Calligraphy at the Ent Center for the Arts on Jan. 29th. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

'Let's Connect' at PPLD encourages discussion around current significant issues impacting our community. Food waste is the topic of discussion on Jan. 25 at the Ruth Holley branch library. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

A discussion to explore the history and challenges of the Pueblo zoo's storied past happens Feb. 8th at the zoo. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

You can learn what it means to be a Court Appointed Special Advocate volunteer for an abused or neglected child here in the Pikes Peak Region on February 6th at the CASA office in downtown Col. Spgs. . More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

Learn the basic building blocks for writing a good novel in a two part class at the Rockrimmon Library Feb 29 and March 7th. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

Commonwheel Artists Co-op presents a juried art show inspired by and commemorating the late C. H. Rockey. It runs Feb 7 – March 2. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

The Guardians of Palmer Park group is seeking volunteers for a number of park maintenance tasks. The next work day is March 7th. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

The Colorado College Music department presents a program by Jewish composers in Packard Hall on Feb. 26th. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

During March, Cottonwood Center for the Arts will display artwork created by individuals currently incarcerated by the Colorado Department of Corrections. You're invited to engage in the complex conversation surrounding art, restorative justice, and our country's criminal justice system. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

A dance benefit for the Colorado Springs Therapeutic Riding Center is coming up Feb. 29th. All proceeds go to the programs for special needs riders. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

March is Womens History month. The Colorado Springs Pioneers Museum invites you to learn the role of women in American History with lectures, presentations, and walking tours. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

The Friends of the Pikes Peak Library District are holding their annual Spring Book Sale at the East Library March 13 - 15. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

The City of Colorado Springs is rich in archaeology. Learn more at a presentation by the Pikes Peak Chapter of the Colorado Archaeological Society on March 17th. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

learn more about the Colorado College Education Department's LEAP children's literacy summer programs on Feb. 22nd on the CC campus. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

The classic film series screenings continue at the Rockrimmon Library on Feb. 22nd. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

The Arc Pikes Peak Region invites the community to its 8th Annual "Achieve Your Vision" Colorado Film Festival on Friday, March 20, at Stargazers Theatre. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

The Falcon Wanderers Walking Club invites you for some fun, fitness, and friendship

in its 23rd Annual St. Patrick's Day Walk in Col. Spgs. on Saturday, March 14th. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

Becoming a junior naturalist is the theme for spring camp at the Bear Creek Nature Center March 23-27. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

The annual Southern Colorado Trail Builders kickoff bash at Lake Pueblo State Park is coming up March 8th. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

The Crestone Poetry Festival is a four-day celebration of the spoken word in Crestone, Colorado and includes readings, workshops, open mic opportunities, and lots of time for poets from around the region to get acquainted. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

The Horticultural Art Society presents the "secrets of starting seeds" on March 7th at the Rockrimmon library. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

The Arc Pikes Peak Region will offer an adaptive yoga class for those with physical conditions that restrict mobility. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

On March 3rd, the National Weather Service will offer SKYWARN training for volunteer severe weather spotters. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

The Sisters of Benet Hill Monastery are partnering with the Rocky Mountain Women's Film Institute to present a FREE FILM SERIES about contemporary issues. Lessons from a School Shooting will be screened on March 13th. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

A performance of jazz and contemporary classical music will be presented by the U. S. Air Force Academy Band's Falconaires Combo and Saxophone Quartet on March 8th. The public is invited to this free show in Canon City. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

Yuri's party (your-ee) is an adults only benefit for the Space Foundation Discovery Center on March 29th. Food and drinks, a silent auction, and some special guests will be featured that evening. The public is invited to this free show in Canon City. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

The Western Fremont Historical Society will convene on March 21st. That meeting will be followed by a presentation titled "Desperadoes, Outlaws and Shysters of Western Fremont County". More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

The Manitou Springs Heritage Center hosts a presentation on the Buffalo Soldiers on Feb. 29th. Buffalo soldiers were African American soldiers who served on the Western frontier following the American Civil War. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

On Feb. 16th the Pikes Peak Historical Society will present a slide presentation of the Midland Railroad's Wildflower excursions into what is now Eleven Mile Canyon from 1887 until 1919. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

INSIDE BUFFALO tells the story of the 92nd Buffalo Division, the African American combat unit that fought in Italy during the Second World War. The screening takes place at the Col. SPgs. Pioneers museum on Feb. 27th. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

The February 18th PFLAG meeting will be a group discussion on 'Loving Our LGBT Community'. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

The Great Backyard Bird Count happens at the Florissant Fossil Beds on Feb. 15th. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

Community Conversations at Pikes Peak Library District is a new series of monthly events that invites the public to discuss current events and issues impacting the Pikes Peak region. You're invited to join the conversation on Feb. 13 at the east library. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

The Assistance League of Colorado Springs invites you to meet three local authors at their annual children's book drive which happens Feb. 22. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

"40 Outstanding Plants for Your Garden" is the title of a lecture by the Horticultural Art Society on March 21st at the Council of Neighbors & Organizations office in Colorado Springs. More information on this and many other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

"Silent Night" is an opportunity to connect with the animals peacefully and quietly, while enjoying the natural beauty of Cheyenne Mountain Zoo. This event will happen on the evening of April 2nd. More information on this and many other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

Artwork from 'Finding Our Voices', an organization helping survivors of sexual assault heal through artistic expression, will be on display throughout the month of April at the Cottonwood Center For The Arts. More information on this and many other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

The Colorado Ballet Society presents "Under the Canopy", a performance featuring Connexus Dance Collective, and the Colorado Youth Ballet. The show takes place at Doherty High School on March 15th. More information on this and many other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org

The Bear Creek Nature Center will host the American Red Cross Wilderness and Remote First Aid course on March 21st. More information on this and many other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

The annual community dog and cat vaccination clinic held by Compassion Animal Hospital staff at the Cascade Volunteer Fire Dept. happens on Saturday, March 14th. More information on this and many other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

LAST YEAR THE GIVE! CAMPAIGN RAISED OVER $1.6 MILLION DOLLARS FOR 100 LOCAL CAUSES. NOW IS THE TIME FOR NONPROFITS TO APPLY TO BE PART OF THE 2020 GIVE! CAMPAIGN. APPLICATIONS WILL BE AVAILABLE MARCH 16 – APRIL 17 AT INDYGIVE.COM AND ARE DUE APRIL 17. (EMBARGO UNTIL 3/16/20) (EXPIRES 4/16/20)

LAST YEAR THE GIVE! CAMPAIGN RAISED OVER $1.6 MILLION DOLLARS FOR 100 LOCAL CAUSES. NOW IS THE TIME FOR NONPROFITS TO APPLY TO BE PART OF THE 2020 GIVE! CAMPAIGN. APPLICATIONS ARE NOW LIVE AT INDYGIVE.COM AND ARE DUE APRIL 17. (EMBARGO UNTIL 3/16/20) (EXPIRES 4/16/20)

‘SHORTS NIGHT’ is the annual fundraising event supporting the year-round programming of Rocky Mountain Women’s Film. It will be held at Stargazers Theatre on April 11. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

A three-day conference starting April 3rd at Colorado College and UCCS will bring together community members, academics, students, practitioners, activists, and government officials to share knowledge and develop the basis for a public dialogue about the upcoming redistricting process in Colorado and beyond. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

Leadership Pikes Peak presents Get on a Board! An event to connect community organizations seeking skilled volunteers with community members ready to serve. It happens April 21 at the Fine Arts Center. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

The Falcon Wanderers Walking Club invites you to their Earth Day Walk on Saturday, April 18, at the Garden of the Gods park. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

The 29th Annual Wine Festival of Colorado Springs will take place April 22-25 in various locations. All proceeds benefit The Colorado Springs Conservatory. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

The New Horizons Band of Colorado Springs presents their spring concert at the Ent Center for the Arts on March 29th. . More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.

THEATREdART is partnering with All Souls Unitarian Universalist Church to bring you the world premiere of “Puerto Rican Nocturne”. The play runs through March 29th. More information on this and other public service announcements can be found on the community calendar link at krcc.org.