

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

Description of Issue	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
State of the Region	HearSay	10.1.12	12:06	52 min	Segment A: McGlothlin Leadership Forum This week at the College of William & Mary, two generations of leaders in the fields of business and law will meet to discuss our nation's most pressing issues. The McGlothlin Leadership Forum unites students from the business and law schools with the pre-eminent leaders in those fields. Host Cathy Lewis is joined by the deans of William & Mary's law and business schools to address some of the looming issues of the 21st Century economy that will be discussed and debated at the forum. Segment B: State of the Region Report 2012 As Hampton Roads begins a new fiscal year, we'll take the opportunity to examine the previous year's triumphs and shortfalls with Old Dominion University economics professor and former university president, Dr. James Koch. He joins us to share his findings in the 13th Annual State of the Region Report. We'll review the report's most significant findings and explore their implications for the region.
Education	HearSay	10.2.12	12:06	52 min	This week we'll consider the latest news stories that have you talking, including the challenges facing the fourteen Norfolk public schools that did not meet the commonwealth's requirements for full accreditation. We invite you to share your thoughts and opinions by joining us live on air at 440-2665 or 1-800-940-2240. You can also e-mail the program at

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

					hearsay@whrv.org or join us on our Facebook page www.facebook.com/hearsaywithcathy.lewis.
Politics	HearSay	10.3.12	12:06	52 min	Join us for our second installment of this election year's Candidate Conversation Series. On today's installment, host Cathy Lewis is joined by the candidates from the 1st Congressional District of Virginia. We'll leave the bright lights, glaring opposition, and aggressive campaign advertising behind and foster a candid discussion in which the candidates can share their thoughts on tough issues and their goals for the district.
Education	Another View	10.5.12	12:06	52 min	Every parent wants their child to succeed in school - and there are things parents can do to give their child the best foundation possible. On the next Another View, our favorite parent educator and relationship coach Alvean Lyons shares parenting tips guaranteed to help your child become an awesome student. Alvean is the author of the audiobook, "Growing Against Gravity for Parents", the first in a series of books designed to strengthen relationships. This program is a part of the CPB/WHRO American Graduate: Let's Make It Happen initiative. Parenting tips for a successful student on the next Another View, Friday, October 5 at noon on 89.5 WHRV-FM, or stream us at whrv.org.
Politics	Another View	10.12.12	12:06	52 min	Are you registered to vote? Voter identification laws have changed in many states, including Virginia. On

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

					the next Another View, we talk with political science professor Carol Pretlow about the history of voter rights laws, and Gaylene Kanoyton, Voter ID Outreach Consultant, tells us what we need to bring to the polls to ensure that our vote counts on November 6.
Politics	HearSay	10.15.1 2	12:0 6	52 min	It's a politics edition of HearSay from the Headlines. This week we'll consider the latest election news stories that have you talking. We'll talk debates, polls and campaign strategy with our resident political experts and invite you to share your thoughts and opinions by joining us live on air at 440-2665 or 1-800-940-2240. You can also e-mail the program at hearsay@whrv.org or join us on our Facebook page at facebook.com/hearsaywithcathylewis .
Politics	HearSay	10.22.1 2	12:0 6	52 min	Join us for our third installment of this election year's Candidate Conversation Series. On today's installment, host Cathy Lewis is joined by the candidates from the 3rd Congressional District of Virginia. The Virginia 3rd includes all of the city of Portsmouth, parts of the cities of Hampton, Newport News, Norfolk and Richmond, all of the counties of Charles City, New Kent, and Surry, and part of the counties of Henrico and Prince George.
Politics	HearSay	10.25.1 2	12:0 6	52 min	The Senate race in Virginia is drawing nationwide attention as one of the marquee contests in the US. On today's HearSay, host Cathy Lewis is joined by the two former

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

					Virginia governors who are vying for the Senate seat vacated by retiring Senator Jim Webb. We're leaving behind the avalanche of advertisements and campaign rhetoric as we speak frankly about the issues impacting to Commonwealth and in which direction the candidates intend to lead us.
Bullying	Another View	10.26.12	12:06	52 min	Bullying - it's a serious issue, particularly for young people who find themselves victims of those who use words and physical force to intimidate. On the next Another View we'll talk about bullying - what is it, how to recognize it, how to stop it and how to heal. Our guest is Allison Conyers, Director of Education and Training with the Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities. Plus, Lisa Godley shows us how the real world of finance has come to one local high school. It's all on Another View, Friday, October 26 at noon on 89.5 WHRV-FM, or stream us at whrv.org.
Politics	HearSay	11.6.12	12:06	52 min	Across the nation today, millions of Americans are heading to the polls to cast their ballots. As one of the key battleground states in this election, all eyes are sure to be turned to our commonwealth as results start rolling in. Today we're taking a final look at the latest campaign developments that are shaping the opinions of Virginia's few remaining undecided voters and explore what impact social media and technology are having on election day. We'll also speak with a voter's rights specialist about ways to protect yourself from voter fraud and what to do if you think you're being targeted.

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

Politics	HearSay	11.14.1 2	12:0 6	52 min	Today on HearSay, host Cathy Lewis is joined by the elected officials representing the citizens of the Commonwealth of Virginia in the United States Senate. Join us as we discuss Senator-Elect Tim Kaine's plans for the coming term and address the lingering issues facing a lame duck Congress with Senior Senator Mark Warner.
Climate Change	HearSay	11.19.1 2	12:0 6	52 min	Hampton Roads was recently ranked in the top five of most hurricane vulnerable U.S. cities. While we have been mostly spared the brunt of the Atlantic's most powerful storms, our region is home to vital and expensive infrastructure that is vulnerable to storm-surge related impact. On today's HearSay, we'll speak with a panel of experts on the impact of rising sea levels on a coastal community that has come eye to eye with 57 hurricanes and tropical storms over the past 150 years.
HIV/Aids Teens	Another View	11.30.1 2	12:0 6	52 min	According to the Virginia Health Department, Norfolk and surrounding areas have the dubious distinction of having the most HIV/AIDS cases in Virginia. The fastest growing populations to be affected are teens and African American women. On the next Another View we'll talk about ways to stop the spread of HIV/AIDS through testing and peer counseling. Our guests include Dr. John Chittick, Executive Director of TeenAids-PeerCorps and Rosalind Johnson with the Virginia Department of

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

					Health, along with teens who volunteer their time counseling other teens about safe sex. This is a critical conversation that you won't want to miss. Plus, Lisa Godley shares the story of Olympic Gold Medalist Shawn Merritt.
Politics	HearSay	12.4.12	12:06	52 min	Now that the election is nearly a month behind us, eyes are already turning to the Commonwealth's next big political showdown. Today on HearSay we'll explore how the 2013 race for Virginia Governor may be impacted by U.S. Senator Mark Warner and Lieutenant Governor Bill Bolling's decisions not to compete in the gubernatorial race. We'll also take a look at what's in store for the 2013 session of the General Assembly.
Education	Another View	12.7.12	12:06	52 min	"You can't be what you don't see"...that is a quote from America's first African American Surgeon General, Dr. Joycelyn Elders. She was talking about role models, and the opportunity for African American children to dream big and set high career goals because they see others who "look like them" being successful in their chosen career. It starts in the classroom where oftentimes, particularly in urban schools, students are taught and mentored by those who do not "look like them", especially when it comes to African American males. On the next Another View we'll talk about a unique program that wants to change that dynamic - it's ODU's Teacher Immersion Residency Program, where one of the goals is to inspire

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

					the next generation of African Americans to careers as educators. We'll hear from three participants in the program who are now teaching in the classroom, Keith Goodman, Cabrillya Crumm, and Tashiana Verna, along with Megan Britt, Ph.D., coordinator of the program. This program is a part of the American Graduate: Let's Make It Happen Initiative. Also, Lisa Godley takes us to RISE, the Crispus Attucks Cultural Center's after school program that won the 2012 National Arts and Humanities Youth Program Award, presented by First Lady Michelle Obama.
Education	HearSay	12.12.12	12:06	52 min	Open positions in science, mathematics and engineering related careers are appearing faster than our country is producing graduates trained in those fields. As part of our ongoing American Graduate series, we'll explore the dire need to engage and prepare our region's students for careers in a high tech field. We're joined by educators and administrators from across Hampton Roads to discuss ongoing local STEAM and STEM initiatives.
Transportation	HearSay	12.17.12	12:06	52 min	Last week, for the first time in over thirty years, a passenger train departed from Norfolk and HearSay host Cathy Lewis was along for the ride. On today's HearSay, Cathy Lewis shares the details of her trip from Hampton Roads to Washington, D.C., and discusses the importance of high-speed rail to the Commonwealth's economic development with some of the individuals who helped make it a reality ten months ahead of schedule.

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

--	--	--	--	--	--

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.