On June 2, 2006, KOED-TV, KOET, and KWET were granted licenses by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as public trustees until June 1, 2014. KETA-TV is also licensed by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as public trustee.

Our licenses will expire on June 1, 2014. We have filed applications for renewal with the FCC.

Copies of these applications are available for public inspection at www.fcc.gov. They contain information concerning these stations' performance during the last eight years.

Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal applications and to whether these stations have operated in the public interest should file comments and petitions with the FCC by May 1, 2014.

Further information concerning the FCC's broadcast license renewal process is available at 7403 North Kelley Avenue, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma or may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, D.C. 20554.
