Weekends beginning Jan 7th and 8th and ending March 25-26- Passion for Christ Program

This 25 min program addresses the challenges faced by people who have ascribed to the culturally dominant religion in the state of Utah. This program discusses the emotional and social challenges of departing from that system and embracing a religion that is different from the predominant Mormon religion so prevalent in Utah.

Christianity 101- Saturdays- This 25 minute program focuses on the basics of the Christian faith. Seeing 62% of Utah's population are driven by religion, this program seeks to address that interest by way of teaching our listeners the tenets of the Christian faith from a very foundational level by John Williams from Mountain View Baptist Church.

National Day of Prayer Chapel- Beginning in the second week of March 2023- This Saturday program engages our audience to get involved with the Utah Chapter of the the National Day of Prayer organization that promotes prayer through the National Day of Prayer on the first Thursday of May. This program helps listeners join Pastor Ron Flessner as he and others from this organization lift up the state of Utah to God in prayer.
