Passion for Christ interviews approx: 23 minutes.

These programs pertain directly to the culture at hand in Utah as some 62% of people in our listening area ascribe to the teachings of the Mormon church. However, many choose to leave it and turn to Evangelical Christianity

April

April 1st and 2nd Interview with Sandra Tanner, a former Mormon who started a research and support ministry for those choosing to leave the Mormon church and to embrace the doctrines of Protestant/Evangelical Christianity shares about her testimony.

April 22nd- Interview with Grover. A former polygamist. Now a born again Christian shares his story of conversion story to Christianity.

April 29th Interview with Michael Floranoy, a former Mormon who shares his experiences of changing in his belief system to that of leaving the Mormon faith and becoming an Evangelical Christian. He shares the challenges of that decision and how it affected his marriage.

May 13th and 14th Interview with Tim Mahoney who is a Film Producer who makes films about Biblical claims. This interview is relevant to our audience because of how the Mormon church views the Bible and how it differs with Protestant Christianity

May 21, 27, 28 Interview with Earl Erskine, a former Mormon Bishop who shares his story about how he discovered the answers to the big questions of the nature of God and what happens after we die within the pages of the Bible and not the Mormon church as he was taught for many years.

June 3-4 Interview with former Mormon missionary Matt Wilder. Matt is a musician who ministers with a group called Adam's Road Matt ministers to churches all around the country. Matt shared his story on Passion for Christ.

June 10-11 Russ East spends some time reviewing some of the basics about the content of the interviews aired recently.

June 17-18 Russ East interviews Carma Naylor a lady who was a Mormon for over 30 years and who was very involved in this religion. She tells how she wrote a book on the story of her departure from this religion and how she put her faith in the person of Jesus of the New Testament without adhering to the tenets of the Mormon church.

June 24- 25 Russ East interviews Jana Harmon, author of the book- Atheists Finding God. The reason for this is because many Mormons after leaving the Mormon church become disillusioned with all things pertaining to faith and become agnostic or an atheist. This book addresses how people left atheism to become Christians.
