

Issues and programs from March 1 through March 24 2014

KVCR FM NEWS

3/1/14 through 3/24/14

In March, KVCR FM's Rick Dulock and Ken Vincent attended a day-long meeting with NPR senior management on upcoming expansion of NPR digital services for member stations, and to get station input on format updates proposed for "Morning Edition" and "All Things Considered." Also, the KVCR FM staff kept busy preparing for our spring pledge drive fundraiser.

In addition to our regular weekly conversations with Inland Empire Economist John Husing and Press Enterprise Columnist Cassie MacDuff, below are some of the stories and issues we reported on 91.9 KVCR FM News over the past month:
(most of the following segments are available to hear on demand at kvcr.org/news)

3/3/14 LOCAL POLITICS AND GOVERNMENT – Our "State of the Cities" series continued with part one of a two-part interview with the mayor of Colton, Sarah Zamora.

3/4/14 LOCAL POLITICS AND GOVERNMENT – KVCR FM News attended the standing-room-only swearing-in ceremony for San Bernardino's new mayor, Carey Davis, and reported on citizen reaction to his speech promising a new beginning for the bankrupt city.

3/5/14 LABOR, HIGHER EDUCATION – KVCR FM News reported on a strike vote called by one of the University of California's largest employee unions, and UC reaction.

3/7/14 LOCAL POLITICS AND GOVERNMENT – KVCR FM News previewed San Bernardino's new push to reform the city's convoluted charter, which many say is the source of the city's political and financial strife.

3/10/14 LOCAL POLITICS & GOVERNMENT – Our "State of the Cities" series continued with part two of a two-part interview with Colton Mayor Sarah Zamora.

3/17/14 LOCAL POLITICS & GOVERNMENT – This week's KVCR-FM'S "State of the Cities" segment featured Matt Guilhem's profile of the new Mayor of San Bernardino, Carey Davis.

3/19/14 LOCAL ECONOMY, DINING AND HOSPITALITY – KVCR FM NEWS attended the kickoff event for the first-ever Inland Empire Restaurant Week, reported on the IE restaurant industry's attempt to lure customers from the LA, Orange, and San Diego counties.

3/21/14 LOCAL HOUSING, SOCIAL SERVICES, SENIOR ISSUES – KVCR FM News reported on the opening of a new, modern senior housing facility, and how it's improved the surrounding neighborhood.

3-24/14 ENVIRONMENT – KVCR FM News investigated charges that hydrolic fracturing – fracking – is currently being conducted in California coastal waters without state oversight or regulation.

3/24/14 LOCAL POLITICS & GOVERNMENT – This week's KVCR-FM'S "State of the Cities" segment featured part one of a two-part interview with Riverside Mayor Rusty Bailey.