Children’s Television Act Certification

Dear Affiliate:

This letter is intended to assist you in satisfying your obligations under the Children’s Television Act of 1990 (the “CTA”) and the FCC regulations relating thereto in connection with your carriage of our video programming service 3Net.

The attached schedule lists the children’s programs (as defined in the CTA) that aired last quarter on 3Net.

3D NetCo LLC certifies that, as standard practice, the children’s programs identified on the attached schedule are formatted so that the total commercial time (including local ad avails) is no more than 10.5 minutes per hour on weekends and 12 minutes per hour on weekdays. This is in compliance with the CTA and the rules and regulations of the FCC.

We trust that this enables you to satisfy your obligations under the CTA and its regulations in connection with your carriage of 3Net. Please forward this letter (or copies) to any other appropriate individual(s) in your organization. As always, we appreciate your support.

Sincerely,

Closed Captioning Rules Certification

For The Calendar Quarter That Ended September 30, 2014

This is to certify that during the above-referenced calendar quarter, the programming service known as 3Net was exempt from the closed captioning requirements under the "Programming on new networks" exemption as set forth by Section 79.1(d)(9) of Title 47 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Currently, technical difficulties associated with captioning 3D programming makes the provision of closed captioning on 3Net infeasible.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING CERTIFICATION
3rd QUARTER (JULY 1, 2014 - SEPTEMBER 30, 2014)

This is to certify that the list set forth below identifies all programs and series aired by Outdoor Channel during the above-referenced calendar quarter that were originally produced and broadcast primarily for an audience of children 12 years old and under. As standard practice, we formatted and aired each of the children's programs and series identified below so that the total commercial time (including local ad avails, promos for non-educational programs and adjacent ads running before or after the program within the same clock hour) did not exceed 10.5 minutes per hour on weekends, and 12 minutes per hour on weekdays, in compliance with the Children's Television Act of 1990 and the rules and regulations of the Federal Communication Commission (the "FCC"), (the "Regulations").

None of the following programs or series included any commercial spots (including local ad avails, promos for non-educational programs and adjacent ads running before or after the program within the same clock hour) that contained references to, characters or actors from, or that offered products related to, the underlying program or series. Any instances in which the children's programming commercial limits were exceeded during the referenced calendar quarter are explained in detail below. I further certify that I am the official responsible for oversight of compliance with FCC children's programming commercial limits, and I am familiar with the Regulations.

[List children's programs run during calendar quarter]

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE WITH COMMERCIAL LIMITS
FOR CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING

I, Terri Tingle, in my capacity as Senior Vice President of Standards & Practices for the Turner Entertainment Networks ("Turner"), hereby certify to the best of my information, knowledge, and belief, that the following information is accurate for the period from July 1, 2014 to September 30, 2014:

- 1) I am familiar with the statutory limits of the Children's Television Act of 1990 (the "Act") and the FCC regulations implementing those limits (no more than 12 minutes per hour of commercial matter may be telecast during children's programming* on weekdays, and no more than 10 ½ minutes per hour on weekends).
- 2) From July 1, 2014 to September 30, 2014, Turner treated all of the programs telecast on the Cartoon Network, a 24-hour program service, as "children's programming" for the purposes of the commercial limits set forth in the Act, except for its telecast in the "Adult Swim" block of programming created for an adult audience that airs late night seven days a week. The Adult Swim block contains hourly warnings to notify and remind viewers that the content is intended for an adult audience, and is not considered "children's programming" subject to the commercial limits set forth in the Act. On a weekly basis, therefore, approximately 105 hours of television programming were treated as "children's programming" for the purposes of the commercial limits set forth in the Act.
- 3) Programs listed on the attached Exhibit 1, although not originally produced nor broadcast primarily for an audience of children 12 and under, aired outside of the "Adult Swim" block and were treated as "children's programming" for consistency with other Cartoon Network-branded programming. The advertising that Turner included during and adjacent to these programs complied with "children's programming" commercial time limit rules.
- 4) Turner has, as a standard practice, formatted and telecast all of the programs carried on the Cartoon Network during the period noted above within the commercial limits set forth in the Act, to the extent applicable to the programming.
- 5) To the best of my information, knowledge and belief, there were no instances in which the commercial limits were exceeded during the period noted above.

FOR CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING

I, Terri Tingle, in my capacity as Senior Vice President of Standards & Practices for Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. ("Turner"), hereby certify to the best of my information, knowledge, and belief, that the following information is accurate for the period of July 1, 2014 to September 30, 2014:

- 1) I am familiar with the statutory limits of the Children's Television Act of 1990 (the "Act") and the FCC regulations implementing those limits (no more than 12 minutes per hour of commercial matter may be telecast during children's programming* on weekdays, and no more than 10 ½ minutes per hour on weekends).
- 2) In April 2000, Turner launched Boomerang, a digital 24-hour network airing classic cartoons such as The Flintstones, Scooby-Doo, and The Jetsons. Since its launch, Turner has treated all of the programs telecast on Boomerang as "children's programming" for the purposes of complying with the commercial limits set forth in the Act.
- 3) Since January 2003, Turner has designated "commercial" breaks up to 4 minutes per hour during which time Turner could insert limited cross-promotions for programming on other Turner networks such as Cartoon Network. Turner inserts automated cue tones that signal and allow cable operators to insert local advertisements over some of these Turner cross-promotional spots without overlapping with Boomerang's television programs or exceeding the permissible commercial time limits under the KidVid rules and regulations. From October 28 to December 31, 2013, Turner also inserted a limited number of paid advertisements. The amount of paid advertisements varied by hour and day but ranged from 1 ½ to 2 ½ minutes of commercial matter. Some of the paid advertisements were telecast in lieu of the cross-promotional spots.
- 4) During the period between April 1, 2014 to June 30, 2014, Boomerang telecast up to 6 minutes per hour of commercial matter, which is well below the commercial limits set forth in the Act.
- 5) To the best of my information, knowledge and belief, there were no instances in which the commercial limits were exceeded during the period noted above.

Certified by me this 2nd day of October, 2014.
