

KSKG FM

Issues/Programs List
Quarterly Issues Programs for KINA-AM &

April 1st-June 30th 2015
Placed in the Public File July 8th,2015

KINA-AM & KSKG-FM has identified the following issues as significant issues facing our community in this quarter:

- A. Health Care: The cost of health care and delivery of healthcare services.
- B. Education: The effects of budget changes on Education in Kansas.
- C. Judicial: The need for child advocacy in courts and parental custody issues.
- D. Agriculture: The Economic Impact on agriculture on land values and marketing issues.
- E. Environment: EPA regulations that impact water use and wildlife in Kansas.
- F. Athletics: New program that allows young men in central Kansas to participate in football with scholarships.

Section II. Responsive

Programs

The stations have broadcast programming dealing with each of the above-referenced issues. Programming dealing with each issue is set out below. The Eagle Radio Forum airs Sunday mornings at 6am on KSKG and 6:05am on KINA.

A. Healthcare:

Eagle Radio Forum. Broadcast on April 5th. Length 4:20. Until the federal health insurance Marketplace opened last year, farmers and ranchers were more likely to be uninsured than many other groups. Heartland Health Monitor reporter Bryan Thompson checked into how the law is working for farmers and ranchers.

Eagle Radio Forum. Broadcast on April 12th. Length 5:10. The University of Kansas Cancer Center has created a partnership to bring cancer treatment options to rural portions of Kansas. Heartland Health Monitor reporter Bryan Thompson learned more about clinical trials being used in rural hospitals.

Eagle Radio Forum. Broadcast on April 26th. Length 4:40. There are a lot of small rural hospitals in Kansas. Without them, many Kansans would have to travel long distances for care. Heartland Health Monitor's Bryan Thompson reports on with declining populations, combined with changes in the way hospitals are paid for their services, it is making it more difficult for them to survive.

Eagle Radio Forum. Broadcast May 10th. Length 4:00. Heartland Health Monitor's Bryan Thompson reports The Affordable Care Act provides away for healthcare networks to get bonus payments by providing better care and keeping Medicare patients healthier.

Eagle Radio Fourm. Broadcast May 17th. Length 5:23 Kansas Senator Jerry Moran has what amounts to a running feud going with the Department of Veterans Affairs concerning healthcare for Veterans. Jim McLean of the KHI News Service recently sat down with Moran in his Capitol hill office.

Section II. Responsive

Programs

The stations have broadcast programming dealing with each of the above-referenced issues. Programming dealing with each issue is set out below. The Eagle Radio Forum airs Sunday mornings at 6am on KSKG and 6:05am on KINA.

B. Education.

Eagle Radio Forum. Broadcast on April 19th. Length 7:00. Richard Baker from the K-State Radio Network interviews Kansas State University President Kirk Schultz about the potential effects of cuts in higher education spending proposed by The Kansas Legislature.

Eagle Radio Forum. Broadcast on June 7th. Length 3:00 Groundbreaking for the National Bio-and Agro Defense Facility being built at Kansas State University took place. USDA Secretary Tom Vilsak, and US Department of Homeland Security Jeh Johnson spoke at the ground breaking about the importance of the facility, and the educational research that will take place to benefit the nation.

C. Judicial .

Eagle Radio Forum. Broadcast on May 31st. Length 6:45. Lori Blake discussed the need for CASA volunteers to become advocates for children in a courtroom, as well as follow any court cases they be involved in to the conclusion.

Eagle Radio Forum. Broadcast on June 28th. Length 4:34. Heartland Health Reporter Bryan Thompson reports that A Garden City medical marijuana activist is making national news. Shonda Banda's home was raided and her son was placed in protective custody-at least part due to something the boy said during an anti-drug presentation at school.

Section II. Responsive

Programs

The stations have broadcast programming dealing with each of the above-referenced issues. Programming dealing with each issue is set out below. The Eagle Radio Forum airs Sunday mornings at 6am on KSKG and 6:05am on KINA.

D. Agriculture.

Eagle Radio Forum Broadcast May 3rd. Length 3:00. The Research and Extension Agricultural Economics Department at Kansas State released a report on Kansas county-level agricultural land values. K-State Agricultural economist Mykel Taylor explained why the information is valuable and unique.

Eagle Radio Forum. Broadcast May 24th. Length 3:30. K-States Glynn Tonsor discusses the impact on economic impacts on the country-of-origin labeling of meat products in the United States.

E. Environment.

Eagle Radio Forum. Broadcast June 14th. Length 5:00. Kansas State University Wildlife Specialist Charlie Lee discusses the final rule of the Environmental Protection Agency waters of the United States regulations, and impacts on wildlife resources in Kansas.

F. Athletics.

Eagle Radio Forum. Broadcast June 21st. Length 5:00. Jake Sharp of Sharp Performance and Major Dan Burris with the Salina Salvation Army discuss the the CKFL football league providing scholarships for young men up through 6th grade being able to participate in tackle football in Salina and Central Kansas.