2	Wednesday	7:15	Morning Show	60	Dr. Paul Chaloux	Catholic theologian Paul Chaloux's follow-up to Why All People Suffer focuses on the natural and spiritual concerns encountered in dying and death. Theologically rich yet easy to read, this book is emotionally charged and will speak to the needs of your heart, whether you are facing terminal illness, caring for a dying loved one, or grieving a loss. Dr. Chaloux uses his own experiences in dealing with Parkinson's disease and the dying and death experiences of his family members going back four generations to help make sense out of and answer the natural and theological questions most people have concerning death and dying.	His book "The Eucharist: Mystery of Presence, Sacrifice and Communion". This course on our Emmaus Academy portal begins with a study of the fitting-ness and purpose of the Eucharist, identifying three fundamental purposes: presence, sacrifice, and communion. Consider preparing for the Feast of Corpus Christi this month, by taking this course! Course Trailer: https://youtu.be/m7I23nQPYYU Emmaus Academy: https://stpaulcenter.com/emmaus-academy/ Shownotes for people to access Emmaus Academy & Dr. Feingold's course - https://bit.ly/3CprQP1 Here are some questions for Eucharist course interview: Why the title: The Eucharist: Mystery of Presence, Sacrifice, and Communion? (Here I can explain how the course/book is organized, and answer the question: Why did Jesus institute the Eucharist?) Why is it important to believe in the Real Presence? (The answer may already have come out in the previous question.) How do the lay faithful participate in offering the sacrifice of the Mass? Why is this important? What is a Eucharistic spirituality? What are my hopes for the Eucharistic Revival? Is the course and the book understandable for ordinary Catholic lay people, and why should Catholics take the course on the Eucharist: Mystery of Presence, Sacrifice, and Communion?

22	Tuesday	7:15	Morning Show	60	JUNE 28 2023 Rachel Bulman	Rachel Bulman is a lover of humanity, especially her husband and six children. Rachel is an international speaker and author. Her first book is called Becoming Wife: Saying Yes to More Than the Dress (Our Sunday Visitor, 2023). She has written and hosted a television series for Catholic TV about Eucharistic miracles. She appears with her family in the show Meet the Bulmans currently airing on the Word on Fire Institute's YouTube channel.	New OSV book Becoming Wife: Saying Yes to More Than the Dress Becoming Wife explores what it means for a woman to fulfill this vocation. Catholic wife, mother, speaker, and author Rachel Bulman shares - like a friend over a cup of coffee - how being a wife is at once a calling and a purpose. The more a wife makes herself a gift to her husband, to her children, and to the world, the more she inevitably becomes the person God created her to be. She becomes more wife, more woman, more Christian. Thus, she fulfills her identity as a daughter of God and cultivates the soil from which her motherhood comes to fruition. -
		7:45	Morning Show	60	Steve Ray	Steve Ray is a convert to the Catholic Church and the author of three best-selling Ignatius Press books (Crossing the Tiber, Upon this Rock, and St. John's Gospel).	https://mail.google.com/mail/u/1?ui=2&ik=7b2d2a434c&attid=0.1.1&permmsgid=msg-f:1741880603767885103&th=182c672e24ba4d2f&view=att&disp=inline
23	Wednesday	7:15	Morning Show	60	FROM APRIL 13 2023 Sarah Park McLaughlin	Sara McLaughlin is a former award-winning newspaper humor columnist for the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal and the Amarillo Globe News. She taught English at Texas Tech University for 33 years. Her book Meeting God in Silence (Tyndale, 1993) was translated into Korean and published by Word of Life (Seoul, 2000). She then published Meeting God in the Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe (Pleasant Word, 2005). On Amazon, she publishes My Humor Writing Journal. Her research interests focus on Catholic theology, C. S. Lewis, G. K. Chesterton, and on the relationship between humor, truth, and paradox. She lives in Madison, Wisconsin.	Praying with St. Augustine. "This book is powerful. Anyone who prays these prayers from the heart will be changed from the heart." — From the foreword by Peter Kreeft, Ph.D. Questions: 1. Why are you interested in writing this book? 2. Do you have a favorite "go to" prayer? https://www.barnesandnoble.com/w/praying-with-st-augustine-sara-park-mclaughlin/1143226061
		7:45	Morning Show	60	FROM APRIL 14 2023 Dr. Peter Kwasniewski	Dr. Peter Kwasniewski, Thomistic theologian, liturgical scholar, and choral composer, is a graduate of Thomas Aquinas College and The Catholic University of America. He has taught at the International Theological Institute in Austria, the Franciscan University of Steubenville's Austria Program, and Wyoming Catholic College, which he helped establish in 2006 and where he taught theology, philosophy, music, and art history and directed the choirs.	Treasuring the Goods of Marriage in a Throwaway Society. Dr. Kwasniewski demonstrates that both the dignity of marriage and family and the evils arrayed against them—pornography, self-gratification, premarital sex, divorce, contraception, and abortion—can and should be seen not only in terms of what they are but also in terms of what they signify spiritually and cosmically. In the midst of a growing totalitarianism hell-bent on diluting, relativizing, ostracizing, and ultimately obliterating chaste and fruitful love, Dr. Kwasniewski extols the sacramental dignity of the human body, shines the light of faith and reason on fundamental truths about vocation and the gift of self, and renews confidence in the wisdom of Holy Mother Church. https://sophia institute.com/product/treasuring-the-goods-of-marriage-in-a-throw-away-society/
