Topic: U.S. President Trump diagnosed with Co-Vid 19 will be discharged from hospital today.

US President Trump, who was diagnosed with Covid19, is still being treated at the Maryland Military Medical Center. White House doctor Conley met with reporters on Sunday morning, saying that Trump's condition continued to improve and his vital signs remained stable. He hoped that Trump could be discharged from the hospital and return to the White House as soon as Monday. Conley said that Trump's blood oxygen level dropped twice during his treatment. When his blood oxygen level was lower than 94% when he had a high fever last Friday, he needed to receive oxygen. About an hour later, he no longer needs oxygen. The current blood oxygen level maintains 98%.

Topic: Biden's diplomacy and China policy

Biden summed up his foreign policy program: "President Trump has vilified, injured, and abandoned American allies and partners, and weakened American leadership. As President, I will take immediate steps to restore American alliances and ensure that the United States Lead the world again." The first step of its strategy is to strengthen NATO, which is the "core of US national security." To this end, the United States will make "necessary investments" to maintain this "world's most powerful military force." At the same time, it will also ensure that the United States' NATO allies increase defense spending.

Topic: The U.S. election is expected to have no immediate results. The legal battle is about to start.

The U.S. general election ended yesterday on polling day. As people from all walks of life expected a final conclusion, the legal battle and mass mobilization were imminent after the election. The Republican President Trump and the Democratic opponent Biden, who are fighting for re-election, each have a team of thousands of lawyers on standby to deal with massive election lawsuits. The Trump camp also organizes an army of 50,000 scrutineers and anti-Trump groups. Calling for strikes at any time, an atmosphere of rain is coming.

Topic: Republican heavyweights call on Trump to admit defeat .

Former New Jersey Governor Chris Christie described the actions of President Trump's legal team embarrassing the country. Trump refused to admit defeat, and proposed widespread election fraud without sufficient evidence. Many Republicans support Trump's legal means to verify the election results. Although the opposition in the party is a minority, there is a growing trend.

Topic: Half of New York City firefighters are reluctant to get the Covid19 vaccine

Although firefighters and other front-line personnel can receive the Covid19 vaccine as a priority within a few weeks, an internal investigation shows that more than half of the firefighters of the New York City Fire Department (FDNY) said they do not want to receive the Covid19 vaccine. The Uniformed Firefighters Association (Uniformed Firefighters Association) conducted a survey of 2053 firefighters a few days ago. The interviewees accounted for about 25% of the total union population of 8,200, and 55% of them indicated that they would not be vaccinated.

Topic: Trump approves 900 billion bailout ,avoided lockout?

After a week of delay, U.S. President Trump finally signed a US$900 billion anti-epidemic subsidy budget yesterday; however, because he signed the budget after he died last Saturday, unemployment benefits will be suspended for the last week of this year and can only be paid in time. Government operations are not paralyzed today.
