Topic: Flag lowered to half in mourning of the epidemic pain in China

Ching Ming Festival, (Tomb Sweeping Day where people show respect to one's ancestors), was observed in China yesterday where the government took the occasion and made a national mourning day to remember and mourn the lives lost in the coronary pneumonia/coronavirus pandemic. Tiananmen Square in Beijing, embassies & consulates and various government agencies all lowered flags in half mast. Entertainment activities were put to a haul. Many websites have their background colors in black & white. When the air defense alarm sounded, cars, trains and ships in many cities honked, and people stopped to observed the three minutes silence for the lives lost. Richard Horton, eiditor-in-chief of the international medical journal "Needle", suggested that April 4 of each year be a global day of mourning to express condolences to the heroes who gave lives to the fighting of the pandemic.

Topic: Memorial Day

Memorial Day is a Federal holiday in the United States celebrated on the last Monday of May commemorating men and women who died while serving in the United States Armed Forces. Memorial Day was first celebrated in May 5, 1868 following the Civil War where business were closed and residents decorated the graves of soldiers with flowers and flags, and the celebration day was originally known as Decoration Day. General John A Logan, leader of an organization for Northern Civil War veterans, called for a nationwide day of remembrance in later day of May. Since then, people celebrated Memorial Day to remember the fallen soldiers and it officially became a US Federal holiday in 1971.

Topic: Atlanta (Georgia) police (has again) fatally shot an African-American man outside of a Wendy's drive-thru

Last Friday night (June 13, 2020), a 27-year-old African-American man, Rayshard Brooks, felt a sleep in his car on the driveway of the Wendy's drive-thru in Atlanta, Georgia, and blocking the driveway of the fast food restaurant. Two officers came after staff of the restaurant called the police, and conducted an sobriety test for Brooks. Test failed, officers attempted to arrest Brooks which he resisted and tried to fleet. And at one point snatched the officer's Taser as he ran where the officers shot him on the back during the chase. Atlanta police Erika Shields resigned 24 hours later on Saturday after video of this shooting emerged and as protests over police brutality and racism continued for the third straight weekend. Atlanta Mayor Keisha Lance Bottoms, who announced Shields's departure, also called for the immediate termination of the police officer involved in the shooting of 27-year-old Rayshard Brooks after a DUI stop, saying she did not "believe that this was a justified use of deadly force."
