Topic: Pelosi, Schumer call for immediate removal of President Trump from office either by his Cabinet or possibly through impeachment

Five days after pro-Trump supporters stormed the Capitol, top Democrats in Congress sought to pass a resolution requiring Vice President Pence and the Cabinet to invoke the 25th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution to remove President Trump from office within 24 hours. If Pence does not act, Democrats will submit draft of the second impeachment to the House of Representatives. However, the top leaders of the party stated that they are not in a hurry to send the impeachment case to the Senate for trial within 100 days, so as not to hinder the work of Biden's new government.

Topic: Biden plans to fully replace U.S. federal government vehicles with electric vehicles

President Joe Biden will start the process of phasing out the federal government's use of gas-powered vehicles and replacing them with ones that run on electricity. The announcement is the fulfillment of a promise Biden made on the campaign trail to swap government fleet vehicles with American-made EVs. "The federal government also owns an enormous fleet of vehicles, which we're going to replace with clean electric vehicles made right here in America, by American workers," Biden said during a briefing Monday announcing his "Buy American" executive order.

Topic: U.S. is brewing for the first time in 30 years to raise taxes substantially

The White House said that after the passage of the US$1.9 trillion new crown bailout bill, President Biden is planning to substantially increase federal taxes for the first time in nearly 30 years, aimed at funding the next economic stimulus plan. Biden is considering increasing the corporate tax rate levied by the federal government from the current 21% to 28% and expanding the scope of inheritance tax. The federal individual tax rate for individuals with an annual income of more than US$400,000 will also be increased, and the capital income tax rate for individuals with an annual income of up to the threshold of US$1 million will be increased.
