

WLOK Quarterly Programming Report 2019 Q1

Talk Show	Host	Date	Time	Topic	Guest
Let's Talk About It	Cleveland	01/28/2019	6:00pm-7:00pm	TOPIC – REAL ESTATE LAWS, BUYING A HOME, LEAVING PROPERTY IN DEBT. Estate Planning: This is a process of anticipating and arranging, during a person life, this is for the management and disposal of that person estate and his/her wishes, estate planning includes generation skipping transfer, it's a process of reducing and eliminating uncertainties over the property that is left behind, it can also include planning for incapacities during one death. Estate planning takes away a lot of friction that might be within the family. There is usually an executor to be a guide in the process.	ATTORNEY – ANGELA GREEN CALLERS -4
Let's Talk About It	Twana Coleman	03/19/2019	10am-11am	Topic: Discuss why it is important to brush your teeth twice a day and to floss. Give a breakdown of the Dual Complete program that helps low-income individuals who may be on Medicare or TN Care to receive dental assistance that can tally up to at least over $3700. Also, discussed how to properly take care of dentures and the quick turnaround of a quick repair of them.	Health Tuesday Guest: Dr. O.T. Sykes
Let's Talk About It	Twana Coleman	March 20, 2019 – Wednesday	10:00-11:00am	Topic: The New Chicago Community Partnership Revitalization CDC is speaking out against the Memphis 3.0 comprehensive plan, saying the group's plan is not inclusive and doesn't address racial equity or the targeted gentrification or displacement of low income residents. "When it comes to African-American historical neighborhoods, the only thing that Memphis 3.0 has to offer is greenspace, cycling trail, pedestrian trail and environmental assessment" said Ms. Atwater	Guest: Carnita Atwater- Executive Director, New Chicago Community Partnership Revitalization CDC

Talk Show	Host	Date	Time	Topic	Guest
Let's Talk About It	Twana Coleman	3/21/19	10:00a – 11:00am	Thursday– Race in America-Topic: Discuss March on Madness where Rev. White calls on other churches and people to come out and go out into the neighborhoods to pray for and with the residents to help combat a lot of the crime that is plaguing our city. There is a lot of crime by our youth. Also, there is gang activity that is taking over and children without families or supportive families	Guest: Rev. Ralph White- President of CLERB and pastor of Bloomfield Baptist Church
Let's Talk About It	Twana Coleman	3/25/19	10:00a- 11:00a	Topic: Deadline to file 2018 taxes are fastly approaching and many have still not filed. Discussed all of what is needed to bring in order to be able to file. Informing listeners that if they still have not filed their 2015 taxes, April 21 st will be the last day to do so. Also, informed listeners of the key factor that they don't have to pay at all to have their taxes filed at all.	Guest: United Way of the Mid-South- Phyllis Fickin, Community Impact and Yvonne Howard, Senior Associate
Let's Talk About It	Twana Coleman	3/28/19	10:00a- 11:00a	Topic: The difference between city council and county commission as well as term limits. Points of topic also included committee assignments, hospitals and health delinquent tax property. Also discussed the power or lack of power that the mayor has compared to what can get done as the county commission has the wherewithal to implement something and the mayor having to go through them in order to get something approved.	Guest: Shelby County Commissioner Reginald Milton & Mr. G

WLOK Quarterly Programming Report 2019 Q1

Talk Show	Host	Date	Time	Topic	Guest
Let's Talk About It	Twana Coleman	3/29/2019	10:00a-11:00a	Topic: Sexual assault and awareness. Adults in sexual relationships with minors assuming that they are older and not verifying. Or the adults thinking that they are indeed older and there is no need to verify. Why is there such attraction from adults for children. Also discussed Barbara Streisand's comments regarding minors in the ongoing Michael Jackson controversy.	Various
Let's Talk Law	Cleveland	3/4/19	6:00pm-7:00pm	Criminal Law: What are my rights when being pulled over by a police officer? When a person is pulled over his/her rights are: Unless they have a warrant, refuse a search of your vehicle, the fourth amendment protects against unreasonable searches and seizures, Do not physically resist or verbally argue with an officer, for instant he the officer ask you to get out of your vehicle then do so, calmly and quietly do it. You have the right to remain silent, but you should think if this is your best option, you can always answer there question with a question. however if you are pulled over the interaction starts to get heated, record the interaction, Comply with the officer but report it after it's over and remember the officer name and badge number.	Guest Attorney: Attorney Andre Wharton Topic: Criminal Law Calls (8)

Talk Show	Host	Date	Time	Topic	Guest
Let's Talk Law	Cleveland	3/25/19	6:00-7:00pm	Tort Law: Personal Injury. This involves personal injury a person can get unintentional or intentional. Unintentional is when you are involved in and accident, you may and can take that offending party to a small claims court to recover and damages that your insurance did not cover. Intentional is when someone purposely bring bodily harm to you and damages to your vehicle or property. Tort law, is where the purpose of any action is to obtain a private civil remedy with damages, the person must show or have suffered foreseeable loss or harm.	Guest Attorney: Attorney Carol Chumney Callers -3
Rainbow Push	Andre' Johnson	3/10/19	6:00-7:00pm	Removal of Confederate Statue: Ole Miss (Univ. of Mississippi) statue removal, the students staged a rally for the removal of a statue in the quad or entrance of the campus. The rally was organized by Dr. Donaldson who plays an integral with the students and people. A vote initially started by the graduating student Council. They voted to have the statue removed to the confederate cemetery.	Dr. Le'trice Donaldson, Assistant Professor of African American Studies at Ole Miss (University of Mississippi).

