INTERVIEWEE: Dave Andrews, General Manager Soaky Mountain Water Park

INTERVIEWED BY WXLZ REP: Thomas Taylor

BRIEF SUMMARY OF INTERVIEW: Dave Andrews told us about the new coaster at Soaky Mountain Water Park. The park will be opening on May 13 and 14. They have added a new water coaster called The Edge. The Edge is a dual water coaster and is three stories high. The park started out with the water coaster, The Avalanche. They want the customers to try both and let them know which they like the best. This year at Soaky Mountain Water Park that have added double decker cabanas. On May 19 they are having a season pass celebration from 10 am to 6 pm. A person will get free Coke refills this day with the purchase of a souvenir cup. Dave says that a season pass is the way to go because you can come to the park and spend a few hours or you can stay all day as many days as you want. They also have regional musicians throughout the park. To purchase season passes, one day tickets or to get more information you can visit their website Soakymountainwaterpark.com. Dave says to come out and visit and don't forget the sunscreen.
