

QUARTERLY ISSUES 2ND Q 2020

COMMUNITY ISSUE: SOCIAL ANXIETY; PUBLIC HEALTH

DATE & TIME: 4/1/20 @ 8:45AM & 4:44PM

SUMMARY: MENTAL HEALTH EXPERTS ARE SEEING DIFFERENT TYPES OF ANXIETY RESPONSES TO COVID-19... IN BOTH CHILDREN AND ADULTS

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: PUBLIC HEALTH; NATIONAL GUARD

DATE & TIME: 4/1/20 @ 7:45AM & 6:14PM

SUMMARY: A LOOK AT THE ROLE OF THE NATIONAL GUARD IN COLORADO IN DEALING WITH THE NEW CORONAVIRUS

---

Colorado Matters 4/1/20 @ 9am & 7pm

April 1, 2020: Losing A Loved One To Coronavirus; How Laughter Can Be Medicine Right Now

A Denver family recounts what it's like to lose a loved one to the novel coronavirus. Then, the toll this shutdown has taken on the state's ski resorts. Plus, tips for parents and children on how to keep anxieties in check. Finally, two Colorado comedians provide a little levity and laughter.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: 2020 Census

DATE & TIME: 4/2/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: It's census time and the ongoing outbreak of the coronavirus has put the decennial count in a bit of a bind. A check in with some folks around the mountain west about what the count means and some of the challenges this year to complete it accurately.

---

Colorado Matters – 4/2/20 @ 9am & 7pm

April 2, 2020: Working To Treat COVID-19; How to Hack Isolation

An Englewood restaurant owner reflects on closing, and helping others. Then, CU Anschutz researchers are working on ways to treat COVID-19. Plus, using furnace filters in medical masks. And the new CPR podcast, "At a Distance," shares the story of a woman with unique perspective on living in isolation and her easy ways to make it bearable.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Environment; Climate; Global Pandemics

DATE & TIME: 4/3/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: Climate scientists in Boulder are working overtime to process air samples that come in from around the world. They make up a world-renowned data record.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Public health

DATE & TIME: 4/3/20 @ 8:45am & 4:44pm

SUMMARY: As the number of hospitalizations due to covid-19 rises, some doctors in the state are training to go back into hospitals to help.

---

Colorado Matters – 4/3/20 @ 9am & 7pm

April 3, 2020: Coronavirus Update From UCHealth; Your Spring Gardening Questions Answered

Meet Pickin' Peggy: She's switched to remote performances from her bathroom for nursing home residents. Then, an update on COVID-19 from an ER physician at UCHealth. Later, how Coloradans show solidarity by clapping and howling at 8 p.m. Finally, CSU Extension Master Gardener Loni Gaudet is back to answer your questions this season.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Public health

DATE & TIME: 4/6/20 @ 8:44am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: A conversation with a pulmonary critical care doctor in Colorado Springs about what it's like to prepare as the number of covid-19 cases grow.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Public health; Childcare

DATE & TIME: 4/6/20 @ 7:45am & 4:44pm

SUMMARY: Childcare is an issue in this new age of coronavirus. A look at whether it's a good idea to have child care centers stay open to care for the children of essential workers.

---

Colorado Matters – 4-6/20 @ 9am & 7pm

April 6, 2020: Finding Ventilators for Colorado; Relationships In Isolation

A Fort Collins company is making low-cost ventilators for Colorado. That's just one example of the effort by a special state task force established to answer the need. Plus, isolation can start to weigh on relationships. Today, how to keep togetherness from becoming too much of a good thing. And a rabbi's perspective on Passover during a pandemic.

---

Colorado Matters – 4/7/20 @ 9am & 7pm

April 7, 2020: Getting Outdoors Responsibly; Why Is Construction An 'Essential' Business?

Outdoorsman and Colorado author Craig Childs talks about getting outside responsibly during the stay-at home directive. Then, tracking deaths in Colorado's senior care centers. Plus, answering questions about essential businesses like child care and construction. And a nurse in Moffat County shares perspectives on the pandemic.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: UNEMPLOYMENT; Mortgages and rental agreements

DATE & TIME: 4/7/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: As unemployment numbers rise, what does a sudden economic drop-off mean for tenants and landlords across the state?

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Essential businesses

DATE & TIME: 4/7/20 @ 8:44am & 4:44pm

SUMMARY: There are a lot of questions about what's essential or not during the stay – at – home order in Colorado. For one county in Colorado's mountains, stores may be open but not everything is for sale.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Teen mental health

DATE & TIME: 4/8/20 @ 8:44am & 4:44pm

SUMMARY: The story of one teen in Boulder who is writing and recording music to keep busy during social isolation.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Employment

DATE & TIME: 4/8/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: People working during the Covid-19 outbreak have rapidly adapted to provide need services to their communities. A look at three people in southern Colorado on how their respective jobs have changed since the new coronavirus first showed up in the state.

---

Colorado Matters – 4/9/20 @ 9am & 7pm

April 8, 2020: Governor Polis' Virtual Town Hall; Vic's Story In 'Back From Broken'

9News' Kyle Clark talks about the virtual town hall he moderated with Gov. Jared Polis about the state's response to COVID-19. Then, Vic Vela, CPR weekend host and creator of the podcast "Back From Broken," shares his own story of addiction and recovery, as well as the challenges of recovery in isolation during the pandemic.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Prisons; Public health

DATE & TIME: 4/9/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: Jails are facing a big challenge when it comes to Covid-19. To that end, the ACLU of Colorado has filed a lawsuit against the Weld County Sheriff, accusing him of Putting inmates at an unacceptable risk.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Health Care Workers

DATE & TIME: 4/9/20 @ 8:44am & 4:44pm

SUMMARY: A story from the Western Slope of Colorado about how some health care workers are taking extra steps to help prevent exposing loved ones to the new coronavirus.

---

Colorado Matters – 4/9/20 @ 9am & 7pm

April 9, 2020: Race For COVID-19 Treatment And Prevention; Volunteers Answer The Call In Gunnison Co.

Colorado researchers are tackling the fight against COVID-19 on several fronts. Then, volunteers answer the call for help in Gunnison County during the pandemic. Plus, crunching the numbers in the models used to predict the course of the coronavirus. Also, remembering the namesake of CBD's "Charlotte's Web." And how to host a virtual game night.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: SOCIAL DISTANCING; BAKING

DATE & TIME: 4/10/20 @ 8:45AM & 5:44PM

SUMMARY: DUE TO THE CORONAVIRUS PEOPLE ARE STAYING HOME MORE. AND FOR SOME THAT MEANS MORE TIME IN THE KITCHEN BAKING, AND ALSO SHARING THOSE RECIPES FOR THINGS LIKE FRY BREAD.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Public health

DATE & TIME: 4/10/20 @ 7:45am & 4:44pm

SUMMARY: The governor of Colorado celebrated early signs that social distancing is slowing the spread of the coronavirus but state health officials say those estimates should be taken with a grain of salt.

---

Colorado Matters – 4/10/20 @ 9am & 7pm

April 10, 2020: Gov. Polis Talks Testing, State's Future; What A Day In The ICU Is Like

We talk one-on-one with Governor Jared Polis about the future of COVID-19 testing and what life in Colorado may look like after the stay-at-home order ends. Plus, how federal changes to fuel efficiency could impact Colorado's clean air efforts. Later, what the ICU is like for doctors and nurses on the front lines. And, being single in isolation.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: PUBLIC HEALTH

DATE & TIME: 4/13/20 @ 5:44PM

SUMMARY: QUESTIONS ARE ANSWERED ABOUT MASK ETIQUETTE AND EFFICACY AS THE GOVERNOR OF COLORADO ASKS RESIDENTS TO WEAR A MASK WHEN OUT IN PUBLIC.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: PUBLIC PANDEMICS; PHOTOGRAPHY

DATE & TIME: 4/13/20 @ 4:44PM

SUMMARY: A PROFILE OF A PHOTOGRAPHER DOCUMENTING THE STAY AT HOME ORDER BY TAKING “PORCH PORTRAITS” IN ONE CORNER OF COLORADO.

---

Colorado Matters – 4/13/20 @ 9am & 7pm

April 13, 2020: Delaying ‘Non-Essential’ Care Leaves People In Pain; AG Fights Virus Scams

For people in chronic pain, delaying treatment now considered 'non-essential' has everyday consequences. Then, the state attorney general fights COVID-19 fraud. Plus, a panel discussion on Democratic unity in Colorado. Also, how the coronavirus affects refugees at a Denver clinic. Then, the do's and don'ts of mask-wearing. And Denver singer Darcy Nelson stays optimistic in the pandemic.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Environment; Urban forests

DATE & TIME: 4/14/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: Colorado Springs is creating a strategic vision for its urban forest, which contains hundreds of thousands of trees. And it wants residents to provide input via an online survey.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Athletes; Olympics

DATE & TIME: 4/14/20 @ 8:44am & 4:44pm

SUMMARY: With the Tokyo Olympics delayed due to the coronavirus, a look at how athletes are grappling with the delay

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Local landmarks

DATE & TIME: 4/14/20 @ 7:32am & 4:32pm

SUMMARY: A series called “My Mountain” which collects reflections of residents in the Pikes Peak region about Pikes Peak continues with thoughts from Brandon Lyons, a hand-cyclist on the U.S. Paralympic team.

---

Colorado Matters – 4/14/20 @ 9am & 7pm

April 14, 2020: Choosing To Find Optimism Amid Anxiety; Preserving History As It Happens

It's something that may be hard to find these days: optimism. Karissa Rund of Englewood says it's all about choice. Her story of inspiration despite overwhelming obstacles. Then, History Colorado wants help preserving this moment in time. Also, tracking COVID-19 in elder care facilities. And Purplish tackles budget cuts and more.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: ELECTIONS; MAIL IN BALLOTS

DATE & TIME: 4/15/20 @ 7:45AM & 5:44PM

SUMMARY: A NATIONWIDE DEBATE IS BREWING OVER WHETHER STATES SHOULD HAVE AN ALTERNATIVE TO IN PERSON VOTING. COLORADO COULD BE A MODEL FOR OTHER STATES AS IT HAS BEEN VOTING BY MAIL SINCE 2013.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: WOMENS HEALTH; ABORTION

DATE & TIME: 4/15/20 @ 8:44AM & 4:44PM

SUMMARY: IN SOME STATES ABORTION SERVICES HAVE BEEN DEEMED NON-ESSENTIAL DURING THE CORONAVIRUS OUTBREAK. THAT'S PUTTING ADDED PRESSURE ON STATES LIKE COLORADO.

---

Colorado Matters – 4/15/20 @ 9am & 7pm

April 15, 2020: Coronavirus Updates On Hospitals And Testing; Learning New Skills At Home

A 24-year-old woman in Castle Rock shares her experience being “clinically diagnosed” with COVID-19 but not being able to get tested. And, an update on the picture at hospitals and how the state’s economy is weathering. Later, starting conversations about end-of-life wishes. Finally, crafting and experimenting with science while staying home.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Employment; Community support

DATE & TIME: 4/16/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: The coronavirus has changed the way many of us work. For some who provide community support that's brought extra complications. Several southern Colorado residents share their stories.

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Schools; Young people

DATE & TIME: 4/16/20 @ 8:44am & 4:44pm

SUMMARY: Many high school students in the class of 2020 are coming to grips with the fact they won't get to say good-bye to their classmates, at least not in those traditional graduation ceremonies. A look at one family's story in Louisville.

---

Colorado Matters – 4/16/20 @ 9am & 7pm

April 16, 2020: Sen. Bennet On Federal Relief Efforts; Pregnancy In The Pandemic

Democratic Senator Michael Bennet talks about federal relief efforts to help people struggling during the pandemic. Then, we speak with three expectant moms about their fears and hopes about having a baby while the threat of COVID-19 looms. Plus, ideas to engage your imagination through reading while in isolation.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Public Health

DATE & TIME: 4/17/20 @ 7:45am & 4:44pm

SUMMARY: A visit to a hospital emergency room in metro Denver as they deal with the coronavirus pandemic.

---

Colorado Matters – 4/17/20 @ 9am & 7pm

April 17, 2020: Coronavirus And Political Polarization; Tips From Temple Grandin

Is COVID-19 bringing people together from opposite sides of the political spectrum? Then, staying-at-home advice for people on the autism spectrum from Temple Grandin. Plus, Sikh traditions during social distancing. Later, Nederland's effort to keep its economy strong. And, birding in your backyard. Finally, new music from Midwife.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: MILITARY

DATE & TIME: 4/20/20 @ 7:45AM & 5:44PM

SUMMARY: AN HISTORIC GRADUATION AT THE U.S. AIR FORCE ACADEMY AS SOME CADETS WERE GRADUATED INTO THE NEWLY FORMED SPACE FORCE.

---

Colorado Matters – 4/20/20 @ 9am & 7pm

April 20, 2020: 'Making Ends Meet:' Answering Questions About Unemployment, Loans And More

Today, a special Colorado Matters, "Making Ends Meet," to answer your questions about filing for unemployment; getting help with rent and buying food; and how small businesses can get assistance during the pandemic and economic shutdown.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Employment

DATE & TIME: 4/21/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: The Executive Director of the Pikes Peak Work Force Center says the new coronavirus has launched workforce needs into the future.

---

Colorado Matters – 4/21/20 @ 9am & 7pm

April 21, 2020: Getting Colorado Ready for Phase 2; Meditation In Isolation

As Governor Polis outlines plans to reopen the economy, what is Colorado doing to prepare for "Phase 2" of the pandemic? Then, what life is like in Pueblo's sister city in Italy, where the virus has hit hard. Also, the importance of small acts of kindness. And, easing anxiety by meditating at home.

---

Colorado Matters – 4/22/20 @ 9am & 7pm

April 22, 2020: Bar Owner Turned Delivery Driver; Celebrating The 50th Earth Day Online

One renowned Denver bar owner is delivering food to help his employees impacted by COVID-19. Then, an update on the unemployment website for gig and self-employed workers. And, holding P.E. class at home. Later, how activists moved celebrations of the 50th Earth Day online. Plus, artists are reeling from the shutdowns. Finally, a choir born during quarantine.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: ENVIRONMENT; CLIMATE

DATE & TIME: 4/22/20 @ 4:44PM

SUMMARY: SOME CLIMATE ACTIVISTS ARE WORRIED THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF EARTH DAY WILL GET LOST AMID THE CURRENT CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC WHEN THE MESSAGE IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN EVER.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Education

DATE & TIME: 4/23/20 @ 7:45am & 4:44pm

SUMMARY: Nearly a million Colorado students aren't heading into their usual classrooms. Some teachers are using technology as well as some unusual teaching techniques to reach those students.

---

Colorado Matters – 4/23/20 @ 9am & 7pm

April 23, 2020: Life Shrinks For Retirees As Facility Fends Off Virus; A Different Ramadan

Former journalist Elaine Yaffe says life has “contracted” as her retirement community tries to keep residents safe. Plus, Muslims can’t mark Ramadan as they usually do but an imam says the need for spiritual sustenance is strong. Also, outdoor companies unite to make products more sustainable.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Public health

DATE & TIME: 4/24/20 @ 8:44am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: Bergamo, Italy has been a hotspot in the fight against coronavirus pandemic. It also is the sister city to pueblo, Co. A conversation with a man in Bergamo about what he’s seen and experienced.

---

Colorado Matters – 4/24/20 @ 9am & 7pm

April 24, 2020: Students Without Internet Access; ‘Toilet Paper Baron of Metro Denver’

Schools are online because of COVID-19, but what about the students who don’t have internet at home? Then, how fruit farmers on the Western Slope are recovering from a major freeze this month. Later, a day in the life for 60 Coloradans is coming to CPR News. And, crisis crafting.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: STATE BUDGETS; FEDERAL AID

DATE & TIME: 4/27/20 @ 7:45AM & 5:44PM

SUMMARY: EFFORTS TO COMBAT THE NOVEL CORONAVIRUS HAVE PUT A STRAIN ON BUDGETS ACROSS THE STATE. IN COLORADO THERE'S A QUESTION OF ALLOCATION OF RESOURCES FROM THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT.

---

Colorado Matters – 4/27/20 @ 9am & 7pm

April 27, 2020: As Shutdown Eases, Challenges Face Workers, Business Owners And Doctors

Today, a child-care worker with health conditions struggles with her boss' request to go back to work or quit. Then, business owners, health professionals and a psychologist grapple with confusion about the state's new Safer at Home program and a patchwork of sometimes contradictory local regulations.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: PUBLIC HEALTH; MEDICAL PROFESSION

DATE & TIME: 4/28/20 @ 7:45AM & 5:44PM

SUMMARY: HOW SOME DOCTORS AND NURSES AROUND COLORADO ARE FEELING ABOUT THE STATE'S GRADUAL REOPENING, AND HOW THEY ARE PREPARING IF A SECOND SURGE OF THE VIRUS OCCURS.

Colorado Matters @ 9am & 7pm

April 28, 2020: Public Health Order Enforcement; 'The Lumineers' On Addiction In Families

From people spitting on grocery store clerks to suspects telling police they have COVID-19 during arrests, how are district attorneys handling violations of the state's public health order? Then, sharing one of the "COVID-19 Diaries Colorado." And Denver's "The Lumineers" talk about how addiction in their families influenced their latest album.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Farming; Food supplies

DATE & TIME: 4/29/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: A non-profit serving Pueblo and Huerfano Counties is hoping to help people access fresh fruits and vegetables as the coronavirus pandemic drags on.

---

Colorado Matters @ 9am & 7pm

April 29, 2020: Life After Being Ventilated For Coronavirus; Racial Disparities

Meet one of the first patients to be successfully taken off a ventilator in Colorado. Then, the perspective on why minority groups have higher infection rates of COVID-19. Later, an update from CU's scientific mission studying ice in the Arctic. And, a virtual film festival made by Colorado teens.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: College Internships

DATE & TIME: 4/30/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: Many students are eyeing summer internships as the semester come to a close. These are formative experiences where they learn critical on the job skills they can't get in the classroom. But the coronavirus is throwing a wrench in even the best laid plans.

Colorado Matters @ 9am & 7pm

April 30, 2020: Ways The Pandemic Affects Teens; Author Inspired By Health Workers

Teens were stressed about school, friends, and expectations before the pandemic. How are they doing now? Then, another entry in the "COVID Diaries Colorado" series. Also, "At a Distance" explores ways to process loss while in isolation. And, the winning entry in Denverite's flash fiction contest was inspired by health workers on the front lines.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: DACA

DATE & TIME: 5/1/20 @ 7:45AM & 5:44PM

SUMMARY: THE U.S. SUPREME COURT IS EXPECTED TO MAKE A DECISION SOON ON THE FUTURE OF THE OBAMA-ERA DACA PROGRAM, WHICH PROTECTS THOSE WHO WERE BROUGHT TO THE U.S. AS CHILDREN FROM DEPORTATION.

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Public health; Coronavirus testing

DATE & TIME: 5/4/20 @ 5:44pm

SUMMARY: Lots of people who are curious if they've ever had covid-19 are paying for tests to find out. Antibody tests are available around the state and even online.

Colorado Matters @ 9am & 7pm

May 1, 2020: Gov. Polis On Safer At Home & Testing; Businesses Adapting To Pandemic

Gov. Jared Polis talks about his decision to lift the stay at home order and his plan to ramp up testing in our regular conversation. Then, a check-in with the state's nurses and doctors. Later, a flower farm in Arvada is trying to fill bellies. And, how Yeti Cycles is adapting to the pandemic. Finally, CPR podcast "At a Distance" tries a virtual escape room.

---

Colorado Matters @ 9am & 7pm

May 4, 2020: The Future Of Dining Out; A Community Cookbook From Kit Carson County

In the age of the pandemic, what might the future of restaurants be? Then, we will soon know whose names will be on the Democratic primary ballot in Colorado. Plus, 50 years of Colorado as a leader in space missions. And from "The Kitchen Shelf" comes a community cookbook with recipes from health care workers in Kit Carson County.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Public Health; Mental health

DATE & TIME: 5/5/20 @ 5:55pm

SUMMARY: Researchers are working to better understand the toll of the novel coronavirus pandemic on our mental health. Nearly three times more people meet the criteria for major depressive disorder than before covid – 19.

Colorado Matters @ 9am & 7pm

May 5, 2020: A Love Letter To The Experiences We've Given Up & Gained In The Pandemic

Today's show is a love letter to the experiences we've lost, at least for a while, because of COVID-19. Things we may have taken for granted, like rock concerts and road trips. They're activities we've given up to protect one another. The show also reflects on what we've gained during the pandemic, moments one man encourages us to share in postcards to be sent in the future.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: COLORADO SCHOOLS; STATE ECONOMY

DATE & TIME: 5/6/20 @ 5:44PM

SUMMARY: THE COVID – 19 PANDEMIC HAS TAKEN A BITE OUT OF SCHOOL DISTRICT BUDGETS. WHEN STUDENTS RETURN TO SCHOOL IN THE FALL IT’L BE IN AN UNPRECEDENTED ENVIRONMENT OF SOCIAL DISTANCING. BUT SCHOOLS WILL HAVE FEWER RESOURCES TO FIGURE OUT SOLUTIONS.

---

Colorado Matters @ 9am & 7pm

May 7, 2020: A COVID-19 Patient’s Long Recovery; Meet ‘LoveSick,’ the Dating Podcast

A nurse practitioner wrestled with COVID-19 for more than two months before tests showed she’d conquered it. Then, convalescent plasma offers promise for the sickest virus patients. And, acts of kindness on the first anniversary of the STEM school shooting. Plus, Pueblo voters reject a city-owned utility. Also, singles date virtually -- with an audience.

---

Colorado Matters @ 9am & 7pm

May 8, 2020: Ethical Dilemmas As The State Reopens; Who’s On The Senate Primary Ballot

More stay at home orders expire this weekend across the state. But what ethical dilemmas crop up in their place? Then, clinical trials are underway to find out if existing drugs could treat COVID-19. Later, developments in the senate race, like which candidates will end up on the primary ballot. And, one musical family uses their time at home to record together.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

May 11, 2020: Denver's Mayor On What's Next As Reopening Begins; The 'Faithless Elector'

Denver Mayor Michael Hancock talks about what's next for the city as it shifts from "Stay at Home" to "Safer at Home." Then, understanding the state and local efforts to contact trace the virus. Plus, a CPR news investigation into the pandemic response. And, the U.S. Supreme Court could decide the fate of the Electoral College based on a Colorado case.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: POLITICAL CAMPAIGNS

DATE & TIME: 5/11/20 @ 5:44PM

SUMMARY: THE DAYS OF MASSIVE RALLIES IS GONE FOR NOW. IN THE AGE OF CORONAVIRUS POLITICAL CAMPAIGNS HAVE HAD TO PIVOT INTO THE DIGITAL REALM.

---

Colorado Matters:

May 12, 2020: Why Are Colorado Children Struggling With Reading? Plus, Pandemic Journaling

Chalkbeat investigates why more than half of Colorado's third-graders are behind in reading. Then, the budget crisis facing schools. Also, how much power does the state have to restrict the public? And, the outbreak's mental health toll. Plus, how journaling can help record history and ease anxiety. And making a violin and bow to help struggling musicians.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Military; Transgender population

DATE & TIME: 5/12/20 @ 7:45am & 4:44pm

SUMMARY: A new study (part of the American Homefront Project) shows broad support among service members for transgender people serving in the military. The Trump Administration bans transgender people from enlisting.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: State budget

DATE & TIME: 5/12/20 @ 5:44pm

SUMMARY: Colorado lawmakers are starting discussions on what the novel coronavirus pandemic means for the state budget.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

May 13, 2020: Advice From One Nurse To Another; Book Explores Rural Gentrification

Two nurses, one well into her career and the other just starting out, chat about being on the frontlines of the COVID-19 battle. Then, how much stock should be placed on antibody tests? And, an update on Colorado's economic future.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: State Parks; State budgets

DATE & TIME: 5/13/20 @ 735am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: As Colorado's Joint Budget Committee starts debating upwards of 3 billion dollars in cuts, some people in southern Colorado are wondering if a project regarding the development of a new state park (Fishers Peak) will get to move forward.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

May 14, 2020: COVID-19's Economic Impact & Indigenous Communities; Teaming Up To Stay Safe

Native American communities historically face barriers when it comes to banking, so what does that mean during the pandemic? Then, Governor Polis meets with President Trump. Also, how Mesa County is keeping COVID-19 cases low. Then, Colorado athletes have a message of pandemic personal responsibility. And the Five Points Jazz Festival goes virtual.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Cannabis industry

DATE & TIME: 5/14/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: Colorado was one of the first to legalize recreational marijuana but it's on track to be the last state to allow for widespread delivery services for cannabis. While it is legal starting this year few cities have opted in so far.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

May 15, 2020: Tackling Coronavirus Disparities; Nadia Bolz-Weber's 'The Confessional'

Today, how Colorado is trying to address inequities in the pandemic. Then, the challenges lawmakers face as they return to the state capitol to address a $3 billion shortfall. Plus, a discussion with Denver pastor Nadia Bolz-Weber about her new podcast, "The Confessional," which explores the power of grace.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

May 18, 2020: Higher Education In The Pandemic; Handling Stress With 'The Wedge'

How is the pandemic reshaping higher education, from in-person learning to the entire college experience? Plus, the outlook for college graduates facing an uncertain job market. Then, exposing ourselves to stress in order to better manage our anxiety, using a concept called "The Wedge." And new music from Boulder's Big Gigantic.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: College graduates, Employment

DATE & TIME: 5/18/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: New college graduates are heading out into one of the most difficult job markets in recent memory. Even those with secured jobs will face challenges as they make new friends through masks and online meetings.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

May 19, 2020: How The Pandemic's Reshaping Farming; 'Divided We Fall' Seeks To Find Unity

The pandemic's changing the process to get issues on the ballot, but not everyone's happy about it. Then, how Colorado farmers are responding to the age of COVID-19. Plus, helping people who need a second chance through the dignity of work. And, "Divided We Fall" explores finding unity amid political diversity. Finally, new music from Claire Heywood.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Dairy farming; Pandemics

DATE & TIME: 5/19/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: 2020 was supposed to be a breakout year for American dairy farmers after they endured several years of low prices. Then states went on lockdown and schools, restaurants and coffee shops stopped buying milk. Colorado has more than a hundred dairy farmers. We check in with a few to see how they are doing.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

May 20, 2020: Parenting In The Pandemic

A Colorado Matters special that delves into the challenges parents face during the COVID-19 pandemic. Experts from the Colorado Department of Human Services and the YMCA discuss the uncertainty of child care. Plus, tips on managing family stress from a Denver therapist. And, how parents can slow the notorious "summer slide" in education.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Dating; Pandemics

DATE & TIME: 5/20/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: Dating in the best of times can be a challenge. In a pandemic, it's even more challenging. A look at one Colorado couple and how they are coping.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

May 21, 2020: Why Child Abuse Calls Are Down; Should Summer Sleep-Away Camps Open?

In tough times you might expect Colorado's child abuse hotline to be busy. Experts say it's not, because kids are now isolated from teachers and others trained to spot trouble. Then, owners of two summer sleep-away camps differ on whether to open. Plus, a Colorado farmer on life during the pandemic.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Pandemics; Parenting

DATE & TIME: 5/21/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: How a pandemic has thrown a wrench into life for working parents.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

May 22, 2020: Remembering A King Soopers Worker; Jeffco's Return-To-School Plan

A Denver-area King Soopers employee remembers her colleague who died from COVID-19. Then, the supermarket's response to the pandemic. Later, the state's second-largest school district reveals its plans to reopen this fall. Plus, CPR's politics podcast, "Purplish" talks virtual campaigning. Finally, a children's book for the pandemic.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Holiday traditions; Pandemics

DATE & TIME: 5/22/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: Memorial day weekend will still be observed around Colorado but the coronavirus means things will be a little different. In Eagle County, Boy Scouts will conduct a sort of scavenger hunt to plant flags at the graves of fallen soldiers.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

May 26, 2020: Association Says 400 Restaurants Have Closed Forever After COVID-19 Shutdown

A Colorado Restaurant Association survey showed 3 percent of restaurants will close permanently. Then, lawmakers return to face a fiscal crisis. And, a decision on library reopenings could come soon, restoring important connections for people experiencing homelessness.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: National Guard

DATE & TIME: 5/26/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: Recruitment is up for the National Guard in some states. The reasons vary between being inspired by the Guard's response to the covid – 19 pandemic to dealing with a tough economy.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

May 27, 2020: Colorado's Summer Tourism Outlook; Transformative Writing Behind Bars

As the summer tourism season begins, is Colorado putting out the welcome mat? Then, lawmakers start to narrow their focus at the state Capitol. Plus, how Colorado dairy farmers are adapting. Then, the power of writing for people in prison. And "At a Distance" asks about parties in the pandemic.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

May 28, 2020: Federal Aid Flows To Hospitals; Via Netflix, 'Space Force' Lands In Colorado

The federal government is giving $72 billion to healthcare providers. A study shows the money's being distributed unevenly. And, 20 years ago Colorado author James Van Pelt imagined a pandemic. His work feels prescient today. Then, high school athletes grapple with a season cut short.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Jury trials; Legal Proceedings

DATE & TIME: 5/28/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: The new coronavirus has put a halt to jury trials in the state. A look at what that means for defendants and victims.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

May 29, 2020: A Volatile Scene At Denver Protests; Turn The Page With Colorado Matters

“My face is on fire” — accounts from a volatile scene in Denver when demonstrators and police clashed, and the hope for what might happen next. Then, two doctors on what they consider when deciding to do everyday activities as COVID-19 restrictions lift. Finally, the inaugural edition of our new reading circle, Turn The Page With Colorado Matters.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: HEALTH

DATE & TIME: 5/29/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: Some covid patients treated with convalescent plasma have made remarkable recoveries while others have died in spite of the treatment. In Colorado, hospitals, researchers and blood donation organizations have come together to scale up the treatment and test its effectiveness. A look at the progress.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

June 1, 2020: Denver Mayor Talks Protests, Violence; Senate Candidates On Racial Justice

Denver Mayor Michael Hancock on days of violence in Denver. Then, Natalia Marshall has a personal reason to join the protests. Also, the Democratic candidates for U.S. Senate take part in a racial justice forum. Plus, a Denver writer remembers an uncle who died of COVID-19 and the bigger picture it may illustrate.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

June 2, 2020: What It's Like To Be Black In America Right Now

Today, five black Coloradans from different walks of life share their experience in America right now: Elisabeth Epps of the Colorado Freedom Fund; State Representative Leslie Herod; Adrian Miller, head of the Colorado Council of Churches; Murphy Robinson, director of the Denver Department of Public Safety, which oversees the city's police, sheriff & fire departments; and poet and speaker Theo Wilson. They reflect on the protests, both peaceful and destructive, that have followed the death of George Floyd. And what they hope comes next. At the end of the show, they share reading recommendations-- books that have deepened their understanding of themselves and of this country.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: PUBLIC HEALTH; CONGRESSIONAL RESPONSE

DATE & TIME: 6/2/20 @ 7:45AM & 5:44PM

SUMMARY: CONGRESS WAS QUICK TO ACT AT THE START OF THE CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC. THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT PUSHED FOUR RELIEF BILLS TALLING AROUND THREE TRILLION DOLLARS. ONE BIG GOAL WAS TO HELP BUSINESS STRUGGLING WITH THE ECONOMIC FALLOUT OF THE PANDEMIC. BUT AS THE ECONOMIC PAIN CONTINUES, THE IMPERFECTIONS AND SHORTCOMINGS OF THE MEASURES ARE COMING INTO HARSH RELIEF.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

June 3, 2020: Polis On The Protests; Colorado Wonders About Workplace Safety

Governor Jared Polis speaks publicly for the first time about the ongoing protests, this moment in time, and concerns related to the pandemic. Plus, a moment of understanding in Grand Junction. Then, answering Colorado Wonders questions about workplace safety concerns connected to COVID-19. Plus, what's next for RTD. Also, student podcasters from Colorado.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

June 4, 2020: 'The Listening Session' On This Moment In History, Episode One

Today, we present a two-episode podcast called "The Listening Session" from Colorado Matters and CPR News. We asked Coloradans of all colors and creeds to share their experiences during this moment of unrest; what they're grappling with, and what's not being discussed. We assembled a panel of community voices, leaders, and experts with different perspectives to join us. This is the first of two parts.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

June 4, 2020: 'The Listening Session' On This Moment In History, Episode Two

Today, we present a two-episode podcast called "The Listening Session" from Colorado Matters and CPR News. We asked Coloradans of all colors and creeds to share their experiences during this moment of unrest; what they're grappling with, and what's not being discussed. We assembled a panel of community voices, leaders, and experts with different perspectives to join us. This is the second of two parts.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Mental health

DATE & TIME: 6/4/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: Some mental health providers are concerned that the emotional impacts of the covid – 19 pandemic on recent high school seniors may be delayed.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Abandoned coal mines

DATE & TIME: 6/5/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: Coal seams can ignite, burning leftover coal deep underground. A trip to Glenwood Springs to check out this unusual reminder of Colorado's mining past.

---

Colorado Matters: June 8, 2020: Rethinking Policing As Pressure Mounts; Colorado's Hot Springs Reopen

There are new policing policies in Denver amid calls by some to re-envision the police force in general. Then, what's next in the ethics review of John Hickenlooper. Plus, a restaurant owner and worker on how reopening's going. And, a unique way one restaurant is filling the seats. Also, what to expect as some of Colorado's hot springs reopen.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Health pandemic; Colorado economy

DATE & TIME: 6/8/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: Keeping a business open during a pandemic is hard enough. What about opening one up? A check in with a downtown Colorado Springs clothing store trying to make a go of it.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

June 9, 2020: Denver's Police Chief on Reform; Telemedicine Adapts To Help Young Children

Denver Police Chief Paul Pazen answers questions about reform. Then, how telemedicine is adapting to help children with mental health needs. Also, Purplish explores the impact of the pandemic and protests on lawmakers. Plus, a Colorado Springs woman pursues her dream to open a boutique. And, checking in with Rockies players waiting for the season to start.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Social movements; media coverage

DATE & TIME: 6/9/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: Stephany Rose Spaulding, a local pastor and associate professor of Women's and Ethnic Studies at UCCS says she's encouraged to see so many young people turn out to protest in Colorado Springs.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Social movements; media coverage

DATE & TIME: 6/9/20 @ 4:44pm

SUMMARY: Reporter Bill Knowles, from the World Journal based in Walsenburg, has a look at recent protests in smaller communities in Southern Colorado such as Westcliffe and La Junta.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

June 10, 2020: Colorado Latino Forum Joins The Voices Of Unrest; The Phenomenon of UFOs

The Colorado Latino Forum is working to reform police departments as it supports Black Lives Matters in consideration of the Latino community. Then, frustration over county variances for public health orders. Also, the push for increased mail-in ballots. Then, what to do with space junk in orbit? And exploring the phenomenon of UFOs.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Education, State budgets

DATE & TIME: 6/10/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: Teachers and students fear upcoming school budgets cuts will have a disproportionate impact on low income students – 90% of whom are students of color.

---

COLORADO MATTERS:

June 11, 2020: Andrew Romanoff Doubles Down On Progressive Platform

Democrat Andrew Romanoff is doubling down on his progressive platform in Colorado's Democratic U.S. Senate primary. Ryan Warner visits Romanoff at his Aurora home and then sits down with him for a one-on-one interview in anticipation of the primary election June 30.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Prisons; Pandemics

DATE & TIME: 6/11/20 @ 4:44pm

SUMMARY: A story of a mother who traveled to Colorado from Tennessee to wave to her son through a window. He's locked up at the Sterling Correctional facility in northeast Colorado. Three inmates have died there, hundreds of others have tested positive. Visitors are currently shut out.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Police department oversight

DATE & TIME: 6/11/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: As Colorado Springs City Council discusses the creations of an advisory committee for police department oversight, people like Samantha Christianson, a board member at the Chinook Center, are questioning why it's taken so long.

---

COLORADO MATTERS

June 12, 2020: Police Union Leader Calls For Culture Change; 'Soul Food Scholar' Recipes

A review of the police reform bill quickly moving through the state legislature. Then, a Loveland sergeant's reflections on that bill. Plus, our series "The Kitchen Shelf" continues with recipes from "The Soul Food Scholar." Later, a blast from the news past: Colorado headlines in 1970. Finally, local musicians compete in NPR's Tiny Desk Contest.

---

COLORADO MATTERS

June 15, 2020: Inside The COVID-19 Fight; Black Lives Mural; Juneteenth's Somber Note

Today, the inside story of a 40-year-old healthy man who got the coronavirus and the medical team who never gave up in their fight to try to save him. Denver unveils Black Lives Matter Blvd. downtown. Also, what makes this year's Juneteenth celebration different? And, remembering the first Black woman to graduate from CU Boulder.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: PUBLIC HEALTH

DATE & TIME: 6/15/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: In Colorado, people can get an antibody test to see if they had covid -19 in the past. But there's been some skepticism about test accuracy and what the results mean for immunity.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Public lands

DATE & TIME: 6/16/20 @ 8:45am & 4:18pm

SUMMARY: The U.S. Senate is poised to pass a landmark public lands bill. The bill would help fix national parks and help states and local communities acquire land for new parks.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Police oversight

DATE & TIME: 6/16/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: Kevin Mitchell, a local community organizer and member of the Empowerment Solidarity Network, comments on recent protests on police brutality, and ongoing discussions of Colorado Springs City Council to create an advisory committee for the Springs Police Department.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: PANDEMICS; RACIAL TENSIONS; CHURCH SERVICES

DATE & TIME: 6/17/20 @ 7:45AM & 5:44PM

SUMMARY: A profile of a black pastor in Colorado Springs that's started in person services for the first time in months following the coronavirus pandemic.

---

COLORADO MATTERS

June 17, 2020: Final U.S. Senate Democratic Primary Debate Between Hickenlooper, Romanoff

The two Democrats who want to be Colorado's next US Senator faced off, in-person, Tuesday night. It was John Hickenlooper's and Andrew Romanoff's final debate before the primary. This podcast has been edited for time, but none of the candidate's answers were modified. You can also watch the 90-minute debate co-sponsored by CPR News at CPR.org.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Public parks; Open spaces

DATE & TIME: 6/18/20 @ 4:32pm

SUMMARY: A look at some local places to enjoy nature and keep social distancing protocols in mind. Suggestions are from Susan Davies, with the Trails and Open Space Coalition.

---

COLORADO MATTERS

June 18, 2020: DACA Recipients On Supreme Court Ruling; Colorado's COVID-19 Fight

Recipients in Colorado react to the U.S. Supreme Court's decision to keep DACA intact, and what may happen next. Then, where does Colorado stand in the fight against COVID-19, from testing to treatment to tracing. Also, a protester and a city council member find common ground in Grand Junction. And new music from Denver singer Kayla Rae.

---

COLORADO MATTERS

June 19, 2020: John Hickenlooper Casts Himself As The Pragmatic Candidate

Democrat John Hickenlooper says his climate and healthcare plans are “pragmatic” and “practical.” Ahead of the Democratic U.S. Senate primary on June 30, Ryan Warner sits down with the candidate for a one-on-one interview.

---

COLORADO MATTERS

June 22, 2020: Creating A Digital ‘Green Book’; Pandemic Impacts Antarctic Research

Two Colorado women are working on an updated, digital version of the Green Book, a travel guide first published in the 1930s to help Black people safely travel across the country. Plus, a 100-day report card on how restaurants are faring during the pandemic. And, how the pandemic is affecting a CU professor’s climate research in Antarctica.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: POLITICAL RACES

DATE & TIME: 6/22/20 @ 7:45AM & 5:44PM

SUMMARY: A look at the Republican candidates running in the Third Congressional District for Colorado’s June 30th Primary election.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Political campaigns

DATE & TIME: 6/23/20 @ 8:45am & 4:44pm

A look at John Hickenlooper and some of the recent setbacks his campaign has endured recently. Hickenlooper hopes to challenge Republican Cory Gardner in November.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Political campaigns

DATE & TIME: 6/23/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: One of the tighter races this primary election season is the Democratic primary in Colorado’s 3rd Congressional District. A look at the candidates who hope to take on Republican incumbent Scott Tipton this fall.

COLORADO MATTERS

June 23, 2020: COVID-19 Brings Chernobyl Flashbacks For Doctor; ‘The Gringa’ Inspiration

The pandemic brings back memories of the Chernobyl nuclear accident for one doctor in Denver. Plus, how redlining could help the coronavirus spread. Also, the trial and error of treating COVID-19. Plus, a real-life story inspires the new novel, "The Gringa." Then, Colorado's underground coal fires. And, saying goodbye to the Three Kings Tavern.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Healthcare; Pandemics

DATE & TIME: 6/24/20 @ 8:45am & 4:44pm

SUMMARY: For months, healthcare was ranked by voters as a key issue in the 2020 elections. And that was before the pandemic hit. For some voters, covid 19 has made the urgency of healthcare even greater.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Wilderness lands; U.S. Forest service

DATE & TIME: 6/24/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: 100 years ago this month the first landscape architect for the U.S. Forest Service argued for protecting wilderness while also working to make it more accessible. A look at Arthur Carhart and his legacy in the San Isabel National Forest west of Pueblo.

---

COLORADO MATTERS

June 24, 2020: Aurora Superintendent On Being Black In America; Artist Detour's BLM Murals

The death of George Floyd prompted a superintendent to write a letter to his district about being Black in America. And, Denverite reporter Donna Bryson's story on the lives of three Black Coloradans in 2020. Later, the artist Detour on his Denver murals that depict victims of police brutality. Finally, a paralympian in limbo as he waits for the Olympics.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Climate change; Political campaigns

DATE & TIME: 6/25/20 @ 8:45am & 4:44pm

SUMMARY: Climate change has created stark contrasts between Democratic Senate candidates John Hickenlooper and Andrew Romanoff's policies. A look at how voters are reacting.

---

COLORADO MATTERS

June 25, 2020: Six Women Wanted Into Senate Race. Why Didn't They Make It?; Garden Tips

Six women, including four of color, sought the Democratic senate nomination. We talk to some of them about the obstacles that kept them from a contest that's now down to two white men. Then, if your summer garden has hit a rough patch, we've got some tips for you.

---

COLORADO MATTERS

June 26, 2020: Portraits Of Protesters; Portraits Of Female Healthcare Workers Of Color

Colorado Springs moves forward with its plan for police accountability. Then, protesters in Denver share their perspectives on the racial justice movement. And, COVID-19 outbreaks show up at workplaces more. Later, a new project that recognizes and celebrates female healthcare workers of color.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Poets; Pandemics

DATE & TIME: 6/26/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: A look at three Colorado Springs poets and how they cope and create their poems during a pandemic and social distancing practices.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Public health; Public education

DATE & TIME: 6/29/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: More than a million Colorado teachers and students will return to school this fall. Behind the scenes, school districts like Jefferson County are attending to thousands of logistical details to get the balance between educating students and public health just right.

---

COLORADO MATTERS

June 29, 2020: Pandemic Cuts Means Less Sex Assault Prevention; A Catch-22 For Wildlife

As sexual violence is on the rise in Boulder, the organization fighting to prevent it will lose a significant portion of its funding this week because of the pandemic. Then, the state's wildlife thrived while people stayed home, now that crowds are booming again in the outdoors, how is that impacting animals? Finally, a look at voter suppression, then and now.

---

COLORADO MATTERS

June 30, 2020: Cattle Ranching In The Pandemic; The Journey Of Paul Scudo

Today, the pandemic's domino effect on cattle ranchers, feedlot operators, meat packers, and ultimately the price of beef people buy in the grocery stores. Then, how one of Colorado's largest school districts is preparing to reopen. And, Back from Broken shares the recovery journey of Paul Scudo.

---

COMMUNITY ISSUE: Mental health, Pandemics

DATE & TIME: 6/30/20 @ 7:45am & 5:44pm

SUMMARY: For young people in Colorado the pandemic hasn't just caused anxiety. It's cut off the main methods to cope with mental distress. A look at how one young Colorado woman is coping with social distancing.

---