

There follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of April through June, 2015. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
The Washington River Festival has combined efforts with Missouri River Clean-up and draws hundreds of people each year to clean rivers and streams in the area of trash. This is paired with food, games, music and competitions throughout the day.	Wednesday, April 1	8:15	15 minutes	An active member in River Relief is Gloria Atuin Bauermeister explains the events, times, and meeting places and what to expect during the clean up and celebration on April 4. To sign up, visit their web site at riverrelief.org.
The Farmer's Market in Washington has been a very popular hang out for customers and vendors for many years. Springtime is the grand opening for the summer when they are open Wednesdays and Saturdays on a weekly basis.	Wednesday, April 1	8:35	25 minutes	Events Coordinator for the Washington Chamber of Commerce Amanda Griesheimer joins the show to give details, vendors, hours of operation. A new feature, The Vintage Market will be sponsored by Grace's PlaceCrisis Nursery as a fundraiser.
Melanoma Miles for Mike was started as an awareness campaign for skin cancer almost 10 years ago. It started small and has since raised hundreds of thousands of dollars for skin cancer research.	Friday, April 10	8:35	25 minutes	Cindy Mayer lost her son in-law to Melanoma when he was in his late 20's and since, in his honor, organized this special walk-run. She also volunteers her time to educate at schools and community organizations.
A very active group in the Labadie area, The Labadie Environmental Organization, L.E.O. advocates against Ameren U.E. in making changes to existing landfill regulations.	Wednesday, April 15	7:45	15 minutes	President of L.E.O. Patricia Schuba announces Commission Hearing to be held on April 21 and May 21 and urges everyone to attend to learn about proposed changes and their effect on the environment.
Borgia Fest is a mini Fair sponsored by St. Francis Borgia Regional High School to help celebrate Catholic High School education. This year it will be held on April 24 and 25.	Monday, April 20	8:35	25 minutes	Director of Marketing and Administration Moira Vossbrink joins the show to explain the rides, food, music, games and fellowship available at this year's Festival.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
There are many fundraising events sponsored by businesses and individuals throughout the year to help the Franklin County Area United Way. A local dentist has added to the mix free or reduced care and food donations.	Friday, May 8	8:35	25 minutes	Dr. Michael Edwards, from Optima Dental in Union has put together a fundraising effort for the Union Food Pantry as well as the United Way by offering to be an official drop off facility and giving free and reduced services.
The Emmaus Homes, located in Marthasville, depend on generosity and fundraising efforts to help adults with disabilities live on their campus. An Annual Event on the campus is the Emmaus Spring Festival.	Friday, May 15	9:15	45 minutes	Chairman of the Emmaus Spring Festival Reverend Devin Jones and his committee explains the festival, food, and homemade items that will be on sale inside the historic Home as well as on the grounds, including quilts, crochet items, plants and more. It will take place on Sunday, May 17.
P.E.P., which stands for Protect Every Pet, is a non-profit group located in Bland, Missouri. Their goal is to spay and neuter cats and dogs either for free or at reduced cost.	Monday, May 18	7:45	15 minutes	Spokesperson for P.E.P. Carol Hanson summarizes their services, location, hours, and cost. Their goal is to double the more than 2000 animals that have been spayed or neutered for the next year.
The Junior fire Academy is a national program with a set curriculum whose purpose is to train and educate young people interested in becoming public service professionals. The Academy is offered each year in Washington.	Monday, May 18	8:35	25 minutes	Lt. Nicholas Risch from the Washington Fire Department heads up the challenging curriculum each year. He explains the application process and what a student will experience during the training.
CenterPoint is an outpatient therapy center to help people of all ages with addiction and mental problems. They are affiliated with CenterPoint Hospital where people can receive long term therapy.	Wednesday, May 27	9:15	45 minutes	Therapist Raleigh Abell and two additional therapists from the S.A.F.E. Program offered at the Hospital in Weldon Springs present the details of self-injury behavior, like cutting, and what they try to achieve in their structured therapy program.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
The Washington Riverfront Trail Ride and Fun Day celebrated its 10th year on June 3. It is designed for seniors and the disabled who cannot walk the trail to enjoy the river and the scenery by tram. The event draws hundreds of people.	Thursday, May 28	8:35	25 minutes	The tram rides were designed and created by Barb Hellmann and Sharon Monzyk in memory of Barb's aunt and mom who died 10 year's ago. Today, it has expanded to include food, games and other activities that seniors and others enjoy. They join the show to explain the event and welcome participants.
Baconfest is another Washington event that has become a popular over the last couple of years. This year it took place on the Washington Fairgrounds on June 13. Everything served is made with bacon and for a flat fee, one can enjoy the variety offered.	Friday, June 5	8:35	25 minutes	Haily Kintz, Dennis Kramme and Lynne Unnerstall from Emmaus Homes explain how the event works. Baconfest benefits the Emmaus Homes, a place for the adult disabled as well as the Washington Rotary Club.
Exceptional Equestrians of Missouri Valley benefits and teaches classes using horses to help those with autism and of disabilities. It survives on fundraising events	Thursday, June 11	7:45	15 minutes	Volunteer Coordinator and Director of Exceptional Equestrians Lindsay Mohr promotes two events to help raise money, Wine, Dine and Whinny, as well as a contest where they are trying to win a rare Gypsy Horse.
The Elks, American Legion and the V.F.W. of Washington have joined forces to celebrate Flag Day on the Washington Riverfront to help promote patriotism and honor our servicemen.	Wednesday, June 10	8:15	15 minutes	Barb Delleart explains the collaboration among the three groups and summarizes the program for the ceremony which was held on June 14.
Second Blessings is a service organization located in the basement of a church in Union to meet the needs of the poor and underprivileged. They offer food, clothing, and donations.	Wednesday, June 10	8:35	25 minutes	Dena Thompson, Volunteer Coordinator of Second Blessings introduces the next fundraising event which will take place on June 13 to gather food items for the poor. Their largest effort has been backpacks for kids and a huge clothing drive.