

There follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of JULY THROUGH SEPTEMBER, 2014. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
City of Washington officials discuss the future annexation proposal which will be voted on in the August 4 election. They answer questions and concerns from callers.	Wednesday, July 9	9:15	45 minutes	City of Washington Administrator Jim Briggs and Director of Development Darren Lamb spend the hour discussing plans for annexation in all directions of the proposed annexed areas. Calls from listeners vary widely about the issue.
Immaculate Conception Church and School in Union host an annual fundraiser which benefits the Franklin County area United Way. The coordinator of the event promotes the entertaining evening.	Monday, July 14	8:15	15 minutes	Program Coordinator Sandy Langenberg explains the Piano Jam presented by Spanky Entertainment which will take place on July 26 at I.C.C. in Union to raise money for the United Way. She gives away tickets to listeners.
Summer Theatre at East Central College will present The Music Man with a full cast and crew. The Director helps promote the musical by describing the talent in the show as well as the all time favorite music and lyrics.	Thursday, July 17	9:15	20 minutes	Summer Theatre Director John Anglin talk about the various casting roles and talent in the show, and helps promote its entertainment value for the audience. He also gives away a few tickets to callers.
A citizen group against the proposed annexation on the August ballot expresses their views and reasons why people should vote against the issue. Some reasons are it is not needed and it is unfair that the city should have the right to annex instead of it being a voluntary issue.	Wednesday, July 23	9:15	45 minutes	Spokesman for the "Vote No on Annexation" campaign Bill Mahew, who lives in one of the proposed annexation areas gives reasons why the issue should be defeated. He takes questions and comments from callers throughout the hour.
The Franklin County Hunger Task Force attempts to stock food pantries in the area on a regular basis, helping the needy. A collaboration of Union and Washington volunteers from church related groups hold their biggest drive of the year.	Friday, July 25	8:15	15 minutes	Dena Thompson, coordinator of the Franklin County Hunger Task Force, which will take place on July 26 at many area Union and Washington locations, explains the need and location collection areas.

There follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of JULY THROUGH SEPTEMBER, 2014. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
City of Washington officials discuss the future annexation proposal which will be voted on in the August 4 election. They answer questions and concerns from callers.	Wednesday, July 9	9:15	45 minutes	City of Washington Administrator Jim Briggs and Director of Development Darren Lamb spend the hour discussing plans for annexation in all directions of the proposed annexed areas. Calls from listeners vary widely about the issue.
Immaculate Conception Church and School in Union host an annual fundraiser which benefits the Franklin County area United Way. The coordinator of the event promotes the entertaining evening.	Monday, July 14	8:15	15 minutes	Program Coordinator Sandy Langenberg explains the Piano Jam presented by Spanky Entertainment which will take place on July 26 at I.C.C. in Union to raise money for the United Way. She gives away tickets to listeners.
Summer Theatre at East Central College will present The Music Man with a full cast and crew. The Director helps promote the musical by describing the talent in the show as well as the all time favorite music and lyrics.	Thursday, July 17	9:15	20 minutes	Summer Theatre Director John Anglin talk about the various casting roles and talent in the show, and helps promote its entertainment value for the audience. He also gives away a few tickets to callers.
A citizen group against the proposed annexation on the August ballot expresses their views and reasons why people should vote against the issue. Some reasons are it is not needed and it is unfair that the city should have the right to annex instead of it being a voluntary issue.	Wednesday, July 23	9:15	45 minutes	Spokesman for the "Vote No on Annexation" campaign Bill Mahew, who lives in one of the proposed annexation areas gives reasons why the issue should be defeated. He takes questions and comments from callers throughout the hour.
The Franklin County Hunger Task Force attempts to stock food pantries in the area on a regular basis, helping the needy. A collaboration of Union and Washington volunteers from church related groups hold their biggest drive of the year.	Friday, July 25	8:15	15 minutes	Dena Thompson, coordinator of the Franklin County Hunger Task Force, which will take place on July 26 at many area Union and Washington locations, explains the need and location collection areas.

Description of Issue	Date	Time Duration	Description
Letters of invitation were sent to all candidates on the state and county area levels participating in the Primary elections, held on Tuesday, August 5. They were offered a "Meet the Candidate" interview on The Diane Jones Morning Show.	July and early August - various times throughout the morning show on a first come first served basis	KLPW Radio has offered free air time for listeners to get to meet candidates in all elections for many years. For the August 5 primary, there were approximately 25 candidates who took advantage of the unbiased interview time. Listener calls were welcomed.
The Washington Town and Country Fair hold some pre-event celebrations, which include a Saturday run for charity as well as a parade. The Director of the Chamber of Commerce joins the show to recap these events and promote the upcoming Fair.	Monday, August 4 9:15 45 minutes	Chamber Director Amanda Griesheimer reviews participation in the Fun, which took place on Saturday, August 2 and the Parade, on August 3. She takes the opportunity to highlight special events and entertainment at the Fair.
The Diane Jones Morning Show was aired live on the Washington Town and County Fairgrounds from Wednesday, August 6 through Friday, August 8.	Wednesday, August 6 through Friday, August 8 from 7:20 am till 10:00 am each day.	Diane conducted interviews with each individual chairman in charge of different aspects and events, including the newly crowned Queen and Court, entertainment chairman, Petting Zoo, Home Ec Building and many others.
An Annual Walk to End Alzheimer's has become a popular event, held at the Washington City Park. This year, it will be held on Saturday, September 6. The walk traditionally has raised thousands for a cure.	Monday, August 11 8:35 25 minutes	Director of the St. Louis Area Alzheimer's Association Stephanie Rohlf's-Young explains how listeners can help in the fight against Alzheimer's by forming teams and raising money for research. She also offers many resources for patients and caregivers.
Voyce Connect, formerly Long Term Care Ombudsman Program is Federally mandated to help those in nursing homes. A training for volunteers is underway.	Thursday, August 14 8:15 15 minutes	Regional Director for Voyce Connect Teresa Buehler explains the underutilized program in Franklin County. She urges listeners to join the training program being held at the Washington Library August 27.

Description of Issue	Date	Time Duration	Description
The Rotary Club of Washington holds many fundraisers throughout the year to benefit community causes and schools. One such event, requiring several volunteers is the annual Rotary Band Breakfast.	Friday, Sept. 5 7:45 15 minutes	Casey Zastrow, co-chair along with Cara Knox, help promote the breakfast fundraisers to help financially support band program in the Washington School District and St. Francis Borgia schools which will be held on Saturday, September 6.
The Franklin County Area United United Way provides assistance to community projects and organizations that need donations to help the unfortunate and needy throughout the county. One aspect of giving is the door-to-door campaign.	Wednesday, Sept. 17 9:15 45 minutes	Dot Schowe and four members of the United Way Board join the show to explain the work and assistance the United Way provides on an annual basis. The door-to-door campaign is manned by area high school students and will take place on Saturday, Sept. 27 instead of the usual mid week campaign.
First Christian Church in Washington leads the way when it comes to programs and help for addiction and recovery programs. An annual event for families is held to educate in the recovery process.	Monday, Sept. 22 8:35 25 minutes	First Christian Church Chairperson of the Recovery Program explains the upcoming "Celebrate Recovery" event being held on Sept. 27, featuring a grammy award winning singer/songwriter and other speakers.
The Director of Tourism for Washington is on the show on a monthly basis, describing what events and tourist visits to expect in the area throughout the month.	Wednesday, Sept. 24 8:35 25 minutes	Director of Tourism Mary Beth Rettke highlights some of the major fall events in the area, including the Chili Cook, Arts and Crafts Festival, Bicycle Tour, Wake Up Washington MO, Sunset on the River Front and more.
Local farmers and growers in the area are collaborating on the idea of opening an indoor, year round market in downtown Washington to help replace an established market that closed a few years ago.	Thursday, Sept. 25 8:15 15 minutes	Todd Geisert from Geisert Farms, where they organically raise pigs and sell pork and fresh vegetables, describes some preliminary discussion to open a downtown market	