

There follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of JANUARY THROUGH MARCH, 2014. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
Franklin County Conservation Agents give the latest information about hunting in the area and how to deal with pests during the winter season.	Thursday, Jan. 2	9:15	45 minutes	In their monthly interview, Conservation Agents Todd Wright and Ben Pursley give information and advice to listeners about the health of natural habitat as well as hunting rules and regulations. They take several questions from listeners.
A local Therapist offers answers for adolescents and parents about bullying and ways to combat it. In the newly formed website "Buddies not Bullies" parents can help their children overcome this serious problem.	Monday, Jan. 6	8:15	15 minutes	Local Therapist Lisa Bell shares the information on the "Buddies not Bullies" website for parents and their children to use as a sharing mechanism as well as to develop skills to overcome problems.
The Washington Tourism Director is involved in many functions and events to help promote visitors to the area. She shares some of the most important upcoming events on the agenda.	Wednesday, Jan. 22	8:35	25 minutes	Tourism Director Mary Beth Rettke, a monthly guest on the program, explains the details of some major events open to the public such as: The 175th Anniversary of Washington Gala, Parade and Picnic; Girlfriends Week-end; State Farmer's Market Conference; The Missouri Train, Bus, and Food Tour.
Franklin County Honor Flight has been responsible for raising funds and awareness for trips to the WWII Memorial in Washington, D.C. and much more. This active group is sharing a special film about their mission.	Wednesday, Jan. 22	9:15	45 minutes	Stephen Guffey, Dave Anderson and others, including a WWII Veteran, talk about the upcoming movie being shown locally on Feb. 9 titled "One Last Mission." They also discuss future plans for events and fundraisers.
The Tannenbaum Auction raised thousands of dollars in funds and awareness to help the disabled living at the Emmaus Homes in Marthasville. The coordinators of the auction report on how the funds are being used.	Wednesday, Jan. 29	9:15	45 minutes	Coordinators of the Tannenbaum Auction Gayle Hachman and Barb Hellmann were proud to report that all of the money raised will completely renovate one of the homes used by several adults with disabilities and the work has already begun.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
New to Franklin County is a developing group of people who are establishing a support group for senior caregivers appears on the morning show to share ideas with the listening audience.	Thursday, Feb. 6	8:35	25 minutes	A local Union citizen has seen a need for a senior support group for caregivers in the area. Gordon Upchurch helps promote this establishing group by surveying audience interest and sharing ideas.
A retired serviceman has become an Advocate for veterans in the listening area. He attempts to provide information for veterans as well as inform the general public of the major issues facing former soldiers when they return home.	Wednesday, Feb. 12	9:15	45 minutes	Mike Pate, retired serviceman, informs the public of our hospitalized veterans as well as the number of quality of life for homeless vets in the area. He brings with him administrators from the St. Louis Veteran's Hospital to report the issues.
The newly formed Union School District Foundation helps provide extra materials and student teacher support throughout the year. They raise money through special events. The upcoming event in February involves "Elvis" performing for two shows in the Union High School Theatre in February.	Friday, Feb. 14	8:35	25 minutes	Rich Vickers is an "Elvis" impersonator who will be performing for the entertainment of the Foundation Fundraiser on February 22. He previews the show by performing on air several songs that will be featured in the show.
Jeff Watson is Operation Manager of the Franklin County Social Security Office in Union. He is on the morning show to explain the changes in social security and web support offered to those seeking information.	Wednesday, Feb. 19	8:15	15 minutes	The Social Security Office is headed by Jeff Watson, a monthly guest on the program. Although he cannot answer direct calls from listeners, Diane serves as a liaison. On this show, he focuses on SS changes and web resources.
The American Red Cross Franklin County Office is located in Krakow and helps facilitate Blood Drives throughout the area. Media Relations Director Dan Fox from the St. Louis American Red Cross Office oversees the organization of these drives.	Monday, Feb. 24	7:45	15 minutes	The American Red Cross has a strong presence in Franklin County. Media Director Dan Fox joins the show to explain the shortage of blood donations over the winter and where to find a convenient blood drive to help overcome the shortage, especially for type O Negative.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration
The Franklin County Heart Walk is scheduled for Saturday, March 29 at the Washington Fairgrounds. It is sponsored the the St. Louis American Heart Association with many local health related organizations with booths and education throughout the morning.	Monday, March 3	9:15	45 minutes	Buzz Eckelkamp, local Chairman, and Julia Kelley, Director of the St. Louis Area American Heart Association explain ways to organize a team and get involved in the walk. They share knowledge about heart health and describe the various booths, speakers, and screenings that will be available.
Washington Chamber of Commerce hosts an annual Home Show each spring to bring together local businesses, contractors, home beauty decor and remodeling experts to share their information as well as their services.	Friday, March 7	8:35	25 minutes	Julie Frankenberg and Amanda Griesheimer from the Washington Chamber and Tom Holdmeier, business representative and coordinator, promote the 2014 Spring Washington Home Show taking place March 14-16 at the Washington Auditorium.
A recent fire destroyed the St. Clair History Museum and many archives, pictures and displays were a total loss to the St. Clair community. President of the St. Clair Historical Society joins the show to explain the damage and some needed help from the public.	Thursday, March 6	8:15	15 minutes	President of the St. Clair Historical Society Carol Radford makes a request from listeners to help rebuild or relocate the museum through monetary donations and requests old pictures, stories, and books to re-establish the museum
The Franklin County Developmental Disabilities Fair is an annual event to help in support of parents who care for someone with disabilities, especially children. It is a way to inform about the many services offered through several organizations.	Friday, March 14	8:35	25 minutes	This year the Fair will take place on March 20 in Union and is sponsored by three organizations who help coordinate the event. Ann Lieber, Colleen Himmelberg, and Kyla Summerville join the show to help promote the events and what to expect.
The Scenic Regional Library is located in Union and provides book mobiles to a three county area. Their tax rate has remained the same since the 1955. A hike in this tax will be on the ballot in April.	Friday, March 14	9:15	45 minutes	Director of the Scenic Regional Library Steven Campbell joins the show to explain the need for the levy issue and helps clarify the various services provided to patrons.