

There follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of July through September, 2013.

The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
First Christian Church in Union hosts an annual Back to School Fair to help all children and families in Franklin County with needed supplies and information. This year the fair will be taking place July 26-27.	Thursday, July 11	9:15	45 minutes	Theresa Wolf, coordinator of the Back To School Fair explains the donations efforts of the community as well as the benefits of volunteering. She lists the various items that have been donated and encourages families to attend.
Franklin County Area United Way hosts several fundraisers throughout the year to help meet their hefty goal. They in turn fund almost 80 organization who serve the community. The United Way Piano Jam is on July 20.	Friday, July 12	8:15	15 minutes	Phillip Manvis from Spanky Entertainment and Committee member Diana Holdinghausen join the show to promote the event. Professional pianists, along with audience participation help make for a fun and entertaining evening at the ECC Theatre.
The First Session of the Missouri 97th General Assembly ended on May 17. State Representative David Schatz, District 61, explains some of the most important bills that have been vetoed by the Governor.	Monday, July 15	9:15	45 minutes	State Representative David Schatz gives his stance and the importance of a override of the Governors vetos thus far, especially HB 253 concerning an income tax cut and the bill dealing with enforcement of the Federal Firearms Regulations.
The Franklin County Hunger Task Force is a County wide initiative to help local food pantries increase their inventory for the upcoming year and make sure that the less fortunate and their families are taken care of nutritionally.	Monday, July 22	8:35	25 minutes	Deanna Thompson, committee member of the Franklin County Hunger Task Force explains the needed food drive underway with specific items can the community can donate at various centers throughout the County on July 27.
The Washington Town and Country Fair is a five day annual events that bring thousands of people to the fairgrounds each year. Loaded with competition, food, drink, and entertainment, the Chairman and co-Chair join the show for a preview.	Thursday, July 25	8:35	25 minutes	Fair Chairman for 2013 Al Behr and Co-Chair Paul Brune lists the entertainment on the main stage each night, in the beer garden, and other venues. They highlight the other big competition in the arena, like the tractor pull and the steer auction as well as children's activities.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
The Franklin County Silver Games involves hundreds of seniors in the area each year for healthy competition, ranging from swimming to dart ball. Events take place throughout Franklin County.	Wednesday, July 31	9:15	45 minutes	Secretary for the Franklin County Silver Games Penney Seaton explains the various competitive sports events, where they are held, dates, times, and how to register. The games are independently organized.
The Diane Jones Morning Show airs live from the Washington Town and County Fair from Wednesday, August 7-11. A booth, tent, and give-aways are available to help promote and highlight every aspect of the fair.	Wednesday, August 7	through Saturday, August 11	on the Fair Grounds from 7:30 am till 10 am.	Diane Jones has a chance to interview the chairman of the various committees from the Fair Board to inform the public and highlight everything from main stage entertainment, to children's activities, to food stands.
Operation Clean Stream began 25 years ago in order to help maintain the beautiful local rivers and streams in Franklin County. It has grown from a small event to an entire day of trash collection with hundreds of volunteers.	Wednesday, August 21	7:45	15 minutes	Bruce Templar and Leonard Benter are responsible to Operation Clean Stream. They join the show to inform listeners about how to volunteer and clean up our rivers in Franklin County. Everything from trash to tires, to old appliances are hauled away and discarded properly. The day end with a picnic and everything is donated.
The St. Louis Area Alzheimer's Association sponsors an annual walk of awareness and research at the Washington City Park. Funds for the walk are used for research and stay in the St. Louis area.	Monday, August 26	8:35	25 minutes	Outreach Coordinator Megan Herman promotes the St. Louis Area Alzheimer's Association Annual Walk for a Cure on September 7 and tells listeners how to gather a team, register and get involved.
Scenic Regional Library serves Franklin County and runs a Book Mobile in outlying towns that don't have their own library available. They provide many other services to the community and are hosting a special events for patrons.	Wednesday, August 28	9:15	45 minutes	Branch Manager of Scenic Regional Library Main Campus in Union will hold an open house on September 7 to inform patrons about the various services, book sharing opportunities, and public awareness events throughout the year.

Description of Issue	Date Time Duration	Description
The Franklin County Conservation Agents join the show on a monthly basis to inform the public about hunting regulations and safety. They answer many questions about wildlife and pests.	Thursday, September 5 9:15 45 minutes	Conservation Agents Todd Wright and Ben Pursley focus on State of Missouri Fishing, Dove, and Turkey regulations as well as highlighting the new upcoming Deer Season. They explain how to register online.
With the Fall Season approaching, many people are looking for ways to streamline their cleaning. A local business specializes in all forms of cleaning and maintenance.	Monday, September 16 8:35 25 minutes	Amy Thiemann from FKI Cleaning Services in Washington provides tips and tricks from the professionals to help keep your home in tip top condition. Examples include window cleaning, ventilation and humidity levels, cutting down of molds and mites.
The University of Missouri Extension Office in Union offers many helpful resources and professional guidance. Courses are also offered for various areas. The Stay Strong, Stay Healthy Strength Training Program is offered for middle aged and older adults.	Monday, September 9 7:45 15 minutes	Nutrition and Health Education Specialist Mary Schroepfer is an instructor for Stay Strong, Stay Healthy, which is offered Sept. 19 through Nov. 21. She explains the curriculum, fees and benefits of the program.
Homestead At Hickory View Retirement Community offers many events that are open to the public. On September 27, a Senior Health Fair will take place at Homestead which is open to everyone.	Thursday, September 26 8:15 15 minutes	Communication and special event coordinator for Homestead Barb Hellmann describes the man vendors which will be in attendance for the Senior Health Fair as well as the free services, like blood pressure checks.
Emmaus Homes provide training and in home stay for special needs adults. Their main campus is in Marthasville but they also provide independent living is several homes throughout Franklin County. 80% of their funding is from government sources. The rest must be provided through donation.	Thursday, September 26 9:15 45 minutes	Executive Director from Emmaus Homes Dennis Kramme explains the new independent living homes for residents and the two upcoming fundraising events in November, Taste of Home, and the Tannenbaum Auction. This year, Tannenbaum will take place at N-Sports Complex to accommodate 1000 people.