

There follows a listing of the significant local issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of APRIL THROUGH JUNE, 2019. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

Backpacks for Kids is an annual collection drive held at various locations in the Union area and requires hundreds of local volunteers. All children are able to select a filled backpack before the next school year.

Friday, April 5

8:40

20 minutes

Gene Withrow and Theresa Wolf chair the Backpacks For Kids program that collects school supplies and backpacks for underprivileged and under resourced children. Collection occurs in many locations for donation.

The Corn Cob Pipe Factory on Front Street in Washington is still in operation and has become an historical building and business after 150 years of existence.

Wednesday, April 10

7:45

15 minutes

Shannon Hock and her husband, owners and operators of The Corn Cob Pipe Factory explain the various festivities planned to celebrate the 150th Anniversary which includes food, music and tours and open to the public.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

Franklin County has been in existence for 200 years. It is the second largest county in the state of Missouri, housing the courthouse and municipal departments. The city of Union, along with the Chamber of Commerce has planned many events to celebrate.	Friday, April 12	8:40	20 minutes	Union Chamber of Commerce Director Amanda Day gives the calendar of events planned for the Franklin County Bi-Centennial celebration which lasts throughout the year. Included is a parade, golf tournament, music, food, 5K run and any other events.
--	------------------	------	------------	--

The 24th Annual Franklin County Relay For Life helps raise money for Cancer research as well as helps victims and survivors. This year the event is help on June 14 at the Washington High School Track and Field Arena. It draws hundreds of people each year.	Wednesday, April 17	8:40	20 minutes	Tom Ahold and Wendy Wildberger are co-chairs of this year's event. The luminary memorial walk lasts throughout the night along with speakers who highlight the lives of people who have died of cancer, the strides made in overcoming the disease, and information.
---	---------------------	------	------------	--

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

The owners of a vacant medical building are pursuing the possibility of opening a homeless shelter for Washington and surrounding cities. Since the need is there, the Washington City Council has opened it up for discussion.	Friday, May 10	9:20	40 minutes	Executive Director of the Franklin County Community Resource Board Annie Foncannon, who oversees funds generated by Franklin County Kids joins the show to discuss the pros and cons of opening this facility. The controversy led to postponing the facility until more regulation is possible.
---	----------------	------	------------	--

The Franklin County Master Gardener's organization offers the general public a look at the work of several Master Gardeners in the area by offering a tour of several projects underway.	Thursday, May 16	9:20	40 minutes	Franklin County Gardeners co-chair Karen Leslie discusses the purpose and work of the program as well as the tour schedule. She explains what the public can expect in knowledge and inspiration when buying tickets for this special tour which is offered annually.
--	------------------	------	------------	---

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

Hope Ranch for Franklin, Gasconade, and Osage Counties will open next year to meet the needs of at risk youth in the foster care system within Missouri's 20th Judicial Circuit. The campus will be in Stanton, Missouri and open in phases. It is a non-profit, non-denominational, Christian organization.	Wednesday, May 29	9:20	40 minutes	Jennifer Hope is leading the development of Hope Ranch. She joins the show to talk about the history, purpose and fundraising events leading up to the opening. Previous needs assessments have been completed and show a growing need for such a facility.
Each year, East Central College. is the sponsor and host of a special day for seniors, The ECC Senior Health Expo. The is day provides a wealth of information designed especially for the Senior Community.	Friday, May 17	7:45	2-3 hours	With the help of ECC PR Director Jay Scherder, Diane is able to talk with many specialists who have booths at the Expo, including Medicare and health organizations. She is live on the air outside of the Expo, which is set up in the ECC gym.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

The St. Louis Area American Dairy Council has many educational tools to help families with nutrition gained from milk products. Each month Diane has a nutritionist talk about a specific product and how it enhances the diet of growing children and families.	Monday, June 3	8:20	10 minutes	Nutritionist representing The American Dairy Council Erin McGraw is a monthly guest on the show. She goes into great detail about nutritious snack for summer using cheese and milk.
The Washington Elks provides many events throughout the year showcasing patriotism. An annual event that draws a big crowd is the Annual Flag Day Ceremony, with an inspirational program.	Friday, June 7	8:40	20 minutes	Casey Stick, President of the Washington Elks joins the show to explain the 2019 Flag Day Ceremony which will be at the Washington Riverfront on June 9. Music, speakers, and a special flag ceremony are part of the event.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

The Scenic Regional Library is putting the finishing touches on a new Union facility building as well as providing summer reading program for all ages and special events.	Wednesday, June 5	8:40	20 minutes	Since the passage of a tax increase for Scenic Regional Libraries, many upgrades and new building facilities have been completed. The largest facility is the main library in Union. It should be open and ready for the public by the end of the summer. Director of Scenic Regional Steve Campbell gives the details of the new library, which will include space for meeting and special events.
---	--------------------------	-------------	-------------------	--

Washington Smiles, a local dental medical clinic, prides themselves on new technology in dentistry. They are a full service clinic and like to educate the public about new procedures and remind people of the importance of good healthy teeth.	Friday, June 28	7:45	15 minutes	Dana Cullum and Kayla Strauser, both Washington Smiles Hygienists, talk about a new whitening system, Velscope Cancer Screening procedure, and the relationship between mouth and overall health.
--	------------------------	-------------	-------------------	--