

There follows a listing of the significant local issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of APRIL JULY THROUGH SEPTEMBER, 2019. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

Alternatives To Living In Violent Environments is a crisis Intervention Service that offers sanctuary to families in crisis. Their crisis line, staffed by trained volunteers is available 24 hours a day. Their goal is to restore safety to families.	Wednesday, July 17	8:40	20 minutes	Monthly guest and Crisis Intervention Coordinator Cathy Covington, along with Children's Therapist David Simpson discuss how domestic violence effects children and what he does to limit the damage. They rely on fundraisers and volunteers and discuss the next two events on the agenda. The annual Golf Tournament is Sept. 30 and the Pedal To Peace on Oct. 12.
Reboot Computers and More does more than simply sell computers to Franklin and surrounding Counties. They offer recycling through the MO Dept. of Natural Resources as well as educate the public about virus and lost data issues.	Thursday, July 18	8:15	15 minutes	Computer expert and owner of Reboot Computers in Washington talks about the major virus issues and how to resolve them, what to look for, and how to make your computers and other devices more secure. He also explains his recycling service, and answers questions from callers.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

In February, 2017, Chris Homyk and her husband founded the All Abilities Athletic Program in Franklin County. Their autistic and non-verbal son became the inspiration for the program. Since then, they have expanded the athletic program to serve over 200 special needs children and over 700 volunteers. The program depends on donations and volunteers.	Friday, August 2	8:15	15 minutes Founder Chris Homyk and Epilepsy Foundation representative join the show to highlight upcoming athletic events and encourage special needs children to get involved. Their mission is to offer first class athletics for Pre-K through high school and create an understanding and acceptance, while allowing those with disabilities to gain confidence in themselves.
The Washington Town and Country Fair 2019 took place on the Washington Fair Grounds from August 7-11. KLPW had a strong presence on the grounds throughout the fair updating listeners on the hundreds of events, shows, food, and fun.	Wednesday, August 7 through Friday, August 9 7:40-10:00 am	3 days of broadcasting from the Fair Gounds	Diane was able to interview the heads of the various departments as well as the new queen and court under the KLPW tent on the fairgrounds. For example, she talked with the Fair Chairman, the Chairman of Entertainment, Food, Livestock Showing and Auction, Entertainment Tent, etc.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

Schroeder Drugs has been a landmark in downtown Washington for close to 100 years. It is an independent pharmacy that offers many extra services for the community. They will move to a brand new building and away from the downtown area on August 18. It is quite an historic move and one that will effect the downtown area businesses.	Monday, August 12	7:45	15 minutes	Schroeder Drugs Pharmacist Mark Weidle explains the reason for the move and highlights the new services that will be provided in the new location, such as drive through service, free children's vitamins, delivery service, flu shots, the MAXCARE program and more. He also responds to listener's calls.
The 2019 8th Annual Foodstock Event took place at the Farmer's Market in Downtown Washington on August 24 from 4-11 p.m. The purpose of the event is to collect non-perishable food for local food pantries and collect money donations. This year's event collected and surpassed 4400 pounds of food and over $7,227.	Wednesday, August 14	8:15	15 minutes	Founder and coordinator of Foodstock Patrick O'Donnell and Downtown Washington Board member Carolyn Witt join the show to promote the local bands and their schedule as well as the food and drink provided through The Washington Lion's Club. Proceeds will be divided equally among Loving Hearts Outreach, The St. Francis Borgia Food Pantry and the St. Peter's Food Pantry.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

The third Annual Oxfest Celebration and Benefit took place on Saturday, August 14. It is a family friendly events taking place on the Washington Fairgrounds Main Stage with food and drink available as well as major musical talent. Local businesses and individuals sponsor the event and proceeds are split among the Duane Haddox SFB Scholarship, Whole Kids Outreach, and the WSD Wings Foundation.	Friday, Sept. 6	8:15	15 minutes	What started out just a few year's ago as a memorial bar-b-que for former SFB Athletic Director who died of Diabetes complications, grew to become a major contributor to local children. Oxfest founders Dave Haddox and Kevin Walde, along with Board member Amy Holtmeier review the live musical entertainment, food, drink and other activities provided during this one day event. Ticket can be purchased online.
Foundations For Franklin County Coalition is a group whose mission is to fill the gaps in existing programs while addressing the Opioid crisis and domestic violence in Franklin County.	Wednesday, September 4	8:15	15 minutes	Foundations for Franklin County and the Hope Coalition is sponsoring a PSA 30 second video competition open to Middle and High School students focusing about how drugs impact young lives using six words. Hope Coalition director Julie Hook joined the show to explain.