

There follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of April through June, 2013. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

There follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of April through June, 2013. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Date	Time Duration	Description
Over 1000 volunteers are expected to donate their time and efforts to clean up local rivers, streams and lakes during the Annual River Festival and Clean-Up Day, at Rennick Riverfront Park in Washington, April 20.	Thursday, April 18 7:45 15 minutes	Event organizer Gloria Atoun Bauermeister represented the dozens of teams, business sponsors and individuals in promoting the festival and clean up day which now includes several educational and activity booths, picnic, T-shirts and the expected 2.5 tons of trash collection.
Executive Director for Franklin County CASA, a court appointed child advocate group of volunteers, explains the importance of awareness and information during Child Abuse Prevention Month in Missouri.	Wednesday, April 17 9:15 45 minutes	Exec. Dir. for Franklin County CASA promotes education and awareness for Child Abuse Awareness Month, emphasizes the need for child advocate volunteers, and the purpose of The Family Fun Day in Pacific April 20.
The Annual Borgia Fest, held at St. Francis Borgia Regional High School in Washington, is a family food, fun, games and music festival promoting Catholic Education. The announcement of an Alumni Association was also discussed.	Friday, April 19 8:35 25 minutes	Moira Vossbrink and members of the Borgia Fest Committee highlight this year's festivities as well as explain the formation of an Alumni Association for SFBRRHS for 2013. Borgia Fest is held this year on April 26-27 on the campus.
Luke Hasenjaeger, Student Council and Leadership Chair explains the purpose of the "Children's Relay For Life" event, held on the campus of Washington High School.	Wednesday, April 24 8:15 15 minutes	Based on the Annual "Relay For Life" week-end event, students at Washington High School raise funds and awareness for child cancer victims for the American Cancer Association.
The Franklin County Developmental Disabilities Resource Board members raise awareness of Autism and services that are offered to Franklin County Families during Autism Awareness Month.	Wednesday, April 24 9:15 45 minutes	Rachel Terbrock, First Steps Program, Colinda Roethemeyer, Service Coordinator, and Kim Helm, Gateway For the Arts Director, collaborate their services and knowledge to inform the public of this growing problem in the county.

Description of Issue	Date	Time Duration	Description
Over 25 health and senior related health vendors participated in this year's Health Fair, sponsored by East Central College, which included health screenings and give-a-ways.	Friday, May 10 7:45 2 1/2 hours	KLPW Radio promoted the health fair by airing The Diane Jones Morning Show on site and talking with various senior and health experts present, including Mercy Clinic and Hospital representatives and Natural Healing Centers.
Franklin County's Crisis Nursery, Grace's Place is located in Washington for the purpose of sheltering children whose parents are in trouble. An effort is made to volunteer and donate needed items for children of all ages.	Monday, May 6 9:15 45 minutes	Executive Director of Franklin County's Grace's Place Amanda Jones explains the purpose and scope of the facility which serves as a crisis nursery and emphasizes what the public can do to help.
Emmaus Homes Annual Bazaar and Quilt Auction attracts thousands. The Main campus is located near Augusta, MO and is sponsored by the Friends of Emmaus.	Thursday, May 16 9:15 45 minutes	Rev. Devon Jones and Kay Huckey are the main organizers of the annual Bazaar, representing Friends of Emmaus. It is an adult homes for the disabled. They explain the booths and food for the May 19 Festival.
The Annual Tram Ride on the Rennick Riverfront Trail has grown into a day of fun, food and entertainment and attracts hundreds of participants. This is an all volunteer function.	Monday, May 20 8:35 25 minutes	Barb Hellmann and Sharon Monzyk, creators and organizers of this popular event for seniors explain how to preregister and take part in this day of fun, games, and food as well as take a guided tour on a tram through the riverfront trail.
Remembering and appreciating our Veterans is a popular ceremony co-sponsored by the Washington American Legion and V.F.W. Each year hundreds of people participate in Memorial Day on the Riverfront.	Monday, May 27 8:00 2 hours	The Diane Jones Morning Show broadcasts live on the riverfront and talks with the keynote speaker as well as other military officials present and then airs live the memorial service, including the wreath drop, and the bell ring for each Veteran lost during the past year.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
The Franklin County Relay For Life will again take place at the Washington Fairgrounds on June 7-8 bringing awareness and remembrance, while raising funds for cancer research.	Thursday, June 6	8:35	25 minutes	2013 Franklin County Relay For Life Event Chairman Wendy Wildberger explains the schedule and purpose of this year's occasion. As a cancer survivor herself, she tells her story and how much the Relay will help in the education, grief process as well as fundraising.
As a public service to surrounding communities, The Diane Jones Morning Show gives local mayors and opportunity to review their city's meeting and projects. The Union Mayor is a monthly guest.	Wednesday, June 12	9:15	45 minutes	Union Mayor Mike Livengood reports the agenda of the most recent Board of Alderman meeting which includes the budget, improvements underway for Denmark Road, Industrial Drive, and the Veteran's Memorial Park expansion.
Veteran's issues are always, including health concerns are readily available and researched by a local Veteran Advocate who has become a monthly guest on the Morning Show.	Friday, June 14	8:35	25 minutes	Mike Pate, a local Veteran Advocate, helps answer questions concerning quality of life issues for Veteran's. He explains where and when to find the needed forms and services offered to all local veterans.
LEO, Labadie Environmental Organization, is a grass roots citizen group opposing the burial of toxic waste in their neighborhood by Ameren U.E.. An upcoming information meeting is being sponsored by Ameren at East Central College.	Thursday, June 20	9:15	25 minutes	Patricia Schuba, spokesperson for LEO, explains the importance of attending the Tuesday, June 25 informational meeting hosted by Ameren to show opposition to waste being buried in the river bottoms near their drinking water.
Washington School Resource Officer Doug Talison is a monthly guest whose purpose is to aid and support school children and teens. He reports on behavior problems, including criminal activity in the area.	Friday, June 28	9:15	45 minutes	Washington Resource Officers council children and teens on a regular basis, working with the schools and parents, to help avoid drug and criminal behaviors. He reports on the trends and statistics in the area.