

There follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of January through March 2013.

The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
East Central College, with the main campus located in Union and surrounding satellite campus locations offers new classes and opportunities for all age groups, as PR Director Dot Schowe explains.	Wednesday, Jan. 2	9:15	45 minutes	Public Relations director Dot Schowe gives an overview of the Board of Directors meeting, highlighting the assets of the college which are 57 million dollars, new degrees and technical certificates and how to register for the spring semester.
Washington Tourism has reached an all time high. Mary Beth Rettke, Tourism Director, reports on the transportation and event schedule ahead.	Thursday, Jan. 3	8:35	25 minutes	Tourism in Washington includes a heavy event schedule for the winter and spring months. Mary Beth Rettke reports on Am Track improvements and an increase in passengers, lodging, and wine country tours.
Local author Annette Johnson explains the success of her new book Esteban Gardens and her website and blog at froghavenlady.com.	Wednesday, Jan. 9	9:15	45 minutes	Local author and conservative advocate Annette Johnson promotes her book and artwork and tells her personal story about moving to this community and the beauty she has found here.
The Four River's YMCA offers talented swimmers of all ages the opportunity to compete in a variety of programs. A group of adult members join to Diane to explain the program.	Friday, Jan. 11	8:35	25 minutes	Adult and children's swimming leagues are open to all ages at the Y. Diane and a group of her team members review the practice, hard work, and competition involved as well as the personal satisfaction.
The Flu has hit the area and the average family needs to know the symptoms, ways to avoid it, when to see a doctor, and when to go to the emergency room.	Friday, Jan. 25	8:15	8 minutes	Mercy Hospital in Washington's Emergency Department Medical Director Dr. Brett Riegel explains the symptoms, ways of diagnosing, avoidance tips, medications, and when to seek medical care.
The Washington Lion's Club raises money for many good causes. The next fundraiser is the Superbowl Bar-B-Que.	Monday, Jan. 28	8:35	25 minutes	Dave Polite and Vince Borcharding, Lions Club, promote the Annual Superbowl Bar-B-Q on February 3, and how to pre-order, eat in, or carry out.

Description of Issue	Date	Time Duration	Description
Local therapist and Women's Heart Health Advocate promotes healthy living and gives tips to avoid Seasonal Affective Disorder. She also promotes upcoming lectures on Women's Heart issues during the month of February, Heart Awareness Month.	Monday, Feb. 4 8:35 25 minutes	Local therapist in private practice Betty Werner, gives reasons and help to avoid Seasonal Affective Disorders during this gloomy season, exercise tips, and the unique heart health issues and symptoms in women.
Among the area Superintendent monthly interviews and updates on the morning Show is Dr. Michael Murphy, Superintendent of the St. Clair R-XIII School District.	Monday, Feb. 11 8:35 25 minutes	Dr. Michael Murphy joins Diane to report on the reduced state and Federal assets of the district and how this will effect the overall services. He reports about building maintenance, upcoming projects, and overall student test scores.
A local builder helps promote his current project, Rhine River Condos, located on Front Street in Washington which helps promote Downtown Washington living.	Thursday, Feb. 14 7:45 15 minutes	A major asset to Downtown Washington are the new condos overlooking the Missouri River being sold and under construction. Builder Andy Unerstall is responsible as he explains the benefits.
Each year, East Central College is host facility for local history classes. Sue Blesi is coordinator as she highlights what the classes will cover for the upcoming session.	Monday, Feb. 18 8:35 25 minutes	The Franklin County History Society will again offer a set of expert guest speakers discussing local history from March 7 through April 25. President Sue Blesi promotes this year's session and runs down the topics for the classes.
For the third year in a row, Washington is host to the American Heart Association Heart Walk and awareness campaign for Franklin County. This year it is in conjunction with Mercy Hospital and will be held on Saturday, March 9.	Wednesday, Feb. 20 9:15 15 minutes	Julia Kelley, Service Coordinator the the St. Louis American Heart Association, explains how to get involved as a team in the heart walk fundraiser this year. She also explains the various awareness health booths and free screenings available before the walk.
Washington Mayor Sandy Lucy reports on the many project planned and in progress in Washington as well as highlighting the recent Council meeting.	Thursday, Feb. 21 9:15 45 minutes	The Highway 100 widening, the new planting dividers on east 100, city limit expansion, the Team Track, and dog park, plus Phoenix Center expansion projects are updated.

Description of Issue	Date	Time Duration	Description
United Way of Franklin County Power of the Purse Events are explained by the committee chairs. Besides snacks and purse bidding, the money raised goes to the United Way to benefit many service organization in Franklin County.	Friday, March 1 7:45 15 minutes	For 2013, two Power of the Purse Events will take place, one in Washington and the other in New Haven. Chairpersons Mary Kay Daugherty and Maddie Crawford discuss what goes on during the event and how you can get involved and donate.
The Overseas Mission involves many different doctors from the area who volunteer there time and talents to give medical and life style help to the poor in Honduras and other poverty areas. Mercy Doctor, Dr. Tim Long Coordinates the team.	Friday, March 1 8:15 8 minutes	Dr. Time Long explains the fundraising efforts needed to send a team of doctors overseas to medically help the poverty stricken people of third world nations. Besides money other items, like soap and personal hygiene items are needed. He promotes both in his interview.
The "Joy of Sox" is the first annual event to collect socks for the homeless in the metro area. Homestead at Hickory View retirement facility is hosting the celebration.	Monday, March 4 7:45 15 minutes	Barb Helmann, information Director for Homestead, explains the "Joy of Sox" celebration which includes a Sock Hop with music and food, and sock collection to help the homeless.
The Rotary Club of Washington holds their Radio Auction each year to raise money for the poor. Local merchants and individuals donate hundreds of items for the event which is aired on KLPW live as well as the internet.	Friday, March 8 8:35 25 minutes	Chairperson for this year's Rotary Radio Auction Rodney Stoyer along with Dennis Kiarime, explains how the auction is carried out, which is a three day event. They also promote donations.
Mercy Hospital and clinics along with the City of Washington held a "Wake Up To Washington Health Fair in the City Auditorium on Saturday, March 9 after the Heart Walk in the City Park.	Friday, March 8 9:15 45 minutes	Jamie Kuenzie and other committee members explain what to expect at the health fair, including free samples, nutrition awareness, exercise education, and free health screenings. The collaboration between the city and Mercy is planned to become an annual event.	