Recently on the show, We had Jeanette Krupp on the air to talk about her "Bicycle Across the Midwest" event. Throughout her journey, Jeanette spread the info on the dangers of substance abuse and the road to recovery.	October 3rd	7:45am	15 minutes	Jeanette began her journey in Ohio on October 3rd. This cause was created when one of Jeanette's family members was struggling with substance abuse, so she decided to create this journey in the hope of bringing more awareness and the road to recovery after a substance abuse addiction. Through this journey, she was on a mission to tell others who are struggling with addiction that there is hope and that there is the help you need to get over this terrible addiction.
Every month Joel Doepker or Greg Jones with East Central College come on the air to talk about what is going on at the college and all the programs available to residents in the area. Recently, East Central College received a grant from the rock band Metallica as a part of the "Metallica Scholars" program.	October 5th	9-20	35 minutes	The Metallica Scholars program is actually a part of the "All Within My Hands" initiative. Metallica Scholars gives money to colleges like East Central to help with their Career and Technical Education Programs. These programs can include welding, and HVAC. Metallica give these grants to the communities who have supported many of their tours throughout the years.

As we headed into fall this year, many organizations and churches have their annual Fall Festivals. One of these many fall festivals is the Friends of Emmaus Fall Festival, which helps area residents with disabilities get the help they need, whether that is medical costs, or just living costs.	October 24th	7:45	15 Minutes	Devin Jones and Sharon Holmeyer joined Diane to talk about this great event that has been going on for many years. Through the money that they earn from this event, they help residents with disabilities find jobs, housing, and also help them with tasks that can be challenging for them such as shopping. This money also helps transport them to their jobs or wherever they need to go throughout the year.

As a part of KLPW's partnership with the community, we have local students from area schools come on the air to talk about fundraisers and other events going on at their school. This time, we had students from St. Francis Borgia High School come on to talk about their play "Kodachrome".		November 4th 8:40am	20 minutes	Borgia students Maddie Raymond, Emma Coleman, Ellie Bley, and Sara Maurice came in with play director Tim Buchheit to talk about their upcoming play. As well as talking about the play itself, these students also talked about their favorite school subject, lunch, and more. Interviews such as these help residents know not only what is going on at area schools, but also what the future of the area they live in could look like when these students enter the community as an adult.
The Union Middle School Craft Fair is an area tradition that has been going on for many years. Vendors from across the area and even the United States come to this craft fair each year to sell their handcrafted items. As a part of the event, we invite members of the craft fair committee to come on the air to talk about the event and any new items or features to that year's craft fair.	November 7th	9:20	35 minutes	Amanda Sullivan who is the head of the craft fair committee came in to talk about all the vendors that were at the craft fair in 2022. Items featured include roasted nuts, soaps, quilts, and much more. This craft fair helps bring in revenue that is used primarily at UMS but can also be used across the Union RXI School District for many things, such as new computers or new sports equipment.

The Franklin County Humane Society comes on each month to talk about the pets that they have in their care that need a loving and caring home. With many pets being surrendered to the Humane Society after the pandemic, this leads to them not having enough room for all the adoptable pets.	Dec. 14th	8:40	20 minutes	Humane Society Director Laura Amlong came on to talk about the different pets in their care, and how pets are a lifetime commitment, not just a present for the holidays. She also discussed with Diane what the Humane Society needs to take care of the dogs and cats. This includes newspaper, food, chew toys, and more. Through these interviews each month, we hope that a dog or cat finds a forever home with a loving family.
With the holiday season soon approaching and being a season of giving, this is a critical time for organizations such as Fold of Honor, which helps kids and spouses of fallen servicemen and women pay for college and living expenses.	Dec. 21st	9:20	35 minutes	Retired Marine Corps Sgt. Rocky Sickmann was one of the 52 Americans held hostage in Iran for 444 days from 1979-1981. After his release and after his military service, Rocky worked for Anheuser Busch. After his retirement, Rocky began to work with Folds of Honor to help the families of fallen servicemen and women. During the holiday season, it is important that we remember those who are away from their families and those who lost a family member and think of them that much more during this time of year.
