

There follows a listing of significant issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant local programming treatment of those issues for the period of April through June, 2022. The order does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
Chad Pohlman with the Union Parks Department comes on the show each month to talk about all the fun events that the Parks Department is hosting, as well as what is new in the Parks Department of Union.	April 1st	8:40	25 minutes	Mr. Pohlman joined Diane in April to talk about the upcoming summer. This included talking about job opportunities for young adults. This includes working as a lifeguard at the pool, and helping to work the concession stand at the pool and also at baseball tournaments as well.
Joel Deapker & Greg Jones with East Central College come on the show each month to talk about the importance of getting a college degree as well as talking about the many programs that they have. This includes welding and nursing programs.	April 6th	9:20	30 minutes	Recently, both came on to talk about the colleges' revival of their baseball program. The program had disbanded, but came back to give local athletes the chance to play college baseball. The soccer, softball, volleyball, and now baseball programs give local HS students the ability to play their favorite sports and get a quality education at the same time.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
The Franklin County Humane Society helps animals in need and helps them find a forever home with a loving family. Through volunteers and many other donations, they are able to help these pets from being put down.	April 13th	8:40	20 min	Laura Amlong, the head of Franklin County Humane Society, came on the show to talk about the many animals that they have at the shelter. Due to limited space, the shelter has had to find room for the overwhelming amount of animals that have come in. The Humane Society hopes that through the interviews it will be a call to action for Franklin County residents to adopt more lifelong friends for their family.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
Buddies not Bullies is a local group that brings awareness to a child's mental health and to prevent bullying in schools. In the aftermath of COVID, it is important to talk with kids about their mental health and what is going on at school.	May 4th	9:40	20 minutes	Lisa Bell a psychologist with Buddies not Bullies, came on the air with Diane to discuss their "Give STL" day. Give STL Day is all about giving to local organizations that mean a lot to you and your family. Through Give STL Day, Buddies not Bullies hopes to gain the funds to help as many kids as they possibly can.
The Missouri TEAM Convention was recently held in Washington. With Washington Fire Department being the host, it was quite a big deal due to the fact that WFD is almost all volunteer department which is hard to find these days.	May 5th	8:40	20 minutes	Fire Chief Tim Frankenberg joined Diane on the air before the convention to talk about all the events that happened that weekend. The events included a parade, and firefighters from all across Missouri came to the convention.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
The Washington Historical Society is one of the best Museums in all of Missouri. The society has photos and artifacts and other items that date back to the 1800's. They also host events for local schools to bring in students.	June 13th	8:15	20 minutes	Throughout the year Museum director Katie Dieckhaus hosts many events which includes cemetery tours during Halloween, and also tours of the Museum during the school year. Miss Dieckhaus joins Diane each month to talk about local artifacts in an effort to drive more residents to the Museum.
PreventEd is a local organization that helps local residents overcome their substance abuse. Through different events and fundraisers, they hope that more who have this issue come and seek help to rid themselves of the burden of substance abuse.	June 13th	7:45	15 minutes	Emily Wilkerson and Terisha Friedmann joined Diane on the air to talk more about PreventEd and also to discuss the dangers of substance abuse on yourself and your friends and family. They also discussed how it is important to realize that while you may have a abuse problem, it is fixable and you can go back to being yourself.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
Washington's American Legion Post 2118 has many different events throughout the year, which includes their World War 2 Day as well as their baseball team, which you can watch over at Ronsick Field. In June Mark Kimball came on the show to talk about their "Star Spangled 4th" event.	June 24th	8:15	20 min	The post's Star Spangled 4th includes food, drinks, and fireworks for the families of Washington and surrounding communities. KLPW has always let community members come on the air to talk about their events and the Star Spangled 4th is no different. With coming on the air, the Post hopes that this year's event will be bigger than ever before in previous years.