

There follows a listing of significant issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant local programming treatment of those issues for the period of January through March, 2022. The order does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
The Union RXI Foundation Raises funds for high school students in the Union RXI school district to go to college through their various scholarships that they hand out to seniors at the end of the school year. Through fundraisers such as the Major Saver Program and the Groundhog Splash, they make sure students have a bright future ahead of them when they go to college.	Jan. 6	8:40	20 minutes	John Devos, a past teacher in the Union RXI School District came on the show to talk about their "Major Saver Card" program. Major Saver Cards have many coupons for local businesses on them for citizens of the community to use. Though this program and many other events like it, the Union RXI Foundation ensures a bright future for the High School seniors in their district with scholarships that help the student chase after their future dreams while in college.
During his time on the air, Dr. Chalk would talk about new variants, and what listeners in the area could do to keep themselves healthy, which involved washing hands frequently, etc. Many listeners commented on social media on how much they enjoyed Dr. Chalk's time on the air.	Jan. 7	8:40	20 minutes	During his time on the air, Dr. Chalk would talk about new variants, and what listeners in the area could do to keep themselves healthy, which involved washing hands frequently, etc. Many listeners commented on social media on how much they enjoyed Dr. Chalk's time on the air.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
Army veteran and former Iran Hostage Rocky Sickmann came on the show to talk about his experiences during the Iran Hostage Crisis and to talk about the organization Folds of Honor. Folds of Honor helps families of Fallen Soldiers financially	Jan. 12	9:20	25 minutes	Along with talking about his experiences, Mr. Sickmann also talked about Folds of Honor, a organization which helps families of fallen service members financially and also helps provide scholarships to the fallen members children and spouse if they are going to/are attending college. Rocky is also a citizen of Krakow Missouri, where KLPW is also located.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
Here 2 Help is a business in the listening area that helps families organize and sell their loved ones belongings after their passing or when they enter a nursing home. With the help of Here 2 Help, families can have a sigh of relief knowing that their families belongings are in good hands.	Feb. 6	8:40	20 minutes	Janet Creason comes on the show each month to talk about the businesses goal of helping families go through their loved ones belongings and help them bring back memories in the process. Many of the unwanted items go to auction or go to the homeless and needy that need these things to survive.
During his time on the air, Dr. Chalk would talk about new variants, and what listeners in the area could do to keep themselves healthy, which involved washing hands frequently, etc. Many listeners commented on social media on how much they enjoyed Dr. Chalk's time on the air.	Feb. 4th	8:40	20 minutes	During his time on the air, Dr. Chalk would talk about new variants, and what listeners in the area could do to keep themselves healthy, which involved washing hands frequently, etc. Many listeners commented on social media on how much they enjoyed Dr. Chalk's time on the air.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
Glenda Volmert with Franklin County CASA comes on the show each month to talk about what CASA is doing to help children in the area who are in tough situations at home.	Feb. 14th	7:45	15 minutes	CASA stands for "Court Appointed Special Advocates for Children". Through different fundraisers and events across the listening area, CASA helps kids whose parents may not be around or around as much due to getting into legal trouble. CASA provides these children clothes, food, and a family that these children can rely on as they go through this rough patch in their life.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
Franklin County Community Resource board is an organization in the listening area that provides help for kids who may be struggling at home. FCCRB provides help for these kids so they can get back on the right track.	Mar. 16th	8:40	20 minutes	FCCRB has a rotating slate of guests that come on the Morning Show. Kim Farris Wilson came on the show in March to talk about what her department does at the FCCRC main office and how FCCRB get kids and their families as a whole on the right track.
[REDACTED]	Mar. 23rd	9:20	30 minutes	In an effort to make local law enforcement as transparent as possible with the community. KLPW decided to make Sheriff Steve Palton a regular guest. Topics discussed include what the department does to strengthen the community, as well as events that the department holds and new equipment that is coming to the department.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
Washington MO has a hidden instrument that not too many know of: The Zither. Zither's were once made in the Washington area, and they have now become a historical staple of the community. The International Zither Players came on the show to talk about the uniqueness of the zither	Mar. 25th	7:45	15 minutes	Tommy Timmerson, a international zither player, came on the show with other local zither players and showcased their skill with this unique instrument. Through this interview, they were able to bring more light to the International Zither Gathering that will take place in the coming weeks. The International Zither players hope that the more light that they shine on this instrument the more players will soon come along.

