

There follows a listing of the significant local issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of January through March, 2019. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

Navigating the Healthcare System is usually a daunting job for Seniors. Selecting the right plan and staying current about changes in those plans requires time and knowledge. As a service to our listeners, Diane has a local couple on the air to answer questions and explain changes in health plans.	Wednesday, Jan. 9 7:45 15 minutes	Jim Ming and Dee Forshoe of Ming Senior Services in Union joins the show to discuss Medicare and Medicaid Plans and what to expect in the coming year. Their expertise in drug plans allows them to give advice and consultation in their office free of charge.
--	---	--

The Franklin County Community Resource Board is the administrator for the Putting Kids First 1/4-cent sales tax measure passed in 2008. The funds are awarded to local agencies providing services to kids and families.	Wednesday, Jan. 16 8:40 20 minutes	Executive Director Annie Foncannon explains the funding and changes for 2019. Services include Counseling, Food Assistance, High Risk Youth programs, substance abuse support and many others.
--	--	--

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

The Franklin County Humane Society in Union is a non-profit independent group that relies on volunteers and donations to care for and adopt animals. They offer a safe, loving environment for 2,000-3,000 animals per year.	Thursday, Jan. 10	8:40	20 minutes	Director Leighanne Hoekel joins the show on a monthly basis to discuss pets ready for adoption, upcoming fundraising events, and the application process which includes a microchip, spay or neuter, and vaccinations.
---	--------------------------	-------------	-------------------	---

The new tax laws will go into effect in 2019, which for some can be a difficult change. Hochschild Bloom of Washington is available to answer questions about the new and simpler form.	Thursday, Jan. 24	8:40	20 minutes	Executive Accountant for Hochschild Bloom Rita Griesheimer takes the time on the air to discuss some of the biggest changes individuals and families will face this year. She does take calls from listeners.
--	--------------------------	-------------	-------------------	--

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

With the area experiencing very cold, snowy, and drastic weather changes, there are certain precautions to consider with your car and your tires.	Friday, Feb. 1	7:45	15 minutes	Steve Narup with Purcell Tire and Auto in Washington explains how to navigate tires in snow and what to do about tire pressure to avoid accidents.
---	----------------	------	------------	--

All of the area's State Representatives are on the show on a monthly basis. Elected in 2018 for the 61st District, Aaron Griesheimer, has already made himself well educated on a number of state issues and concerns.	Monday, Feb. 4	9:20 minutes	40	State Representative Aaron Griesheimer serves on the Budget, Financial Institutions, Transportation, and the Subcommittee on Appropriations in Education Committees. He takes the time to bring listeners up to date on his committees and spends extra time on the state's infrastructure problems with roads and bridges.
--	----------------	--------------	----	---

St. Clair School District Junior High School holds an annual fundraiser for Cancer Research. This involves coaches throughout the district and many students who volunteer their time.	Friday, Feb. 15	8:40	20 minutes	Junior High School Student Paris Perkins and teacher/coach Tim Isrig join the show to help promote the annual Coaches vs. Cancer fundraiser for this year.
--	-----------------	------	------------	--

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

Franklin County United Way helps supports needed services to non-profit agencies in 20 or more surrounding areas, giving $60-70 thousand dollars per year. They foster giving through business and industry donations as well as fund raisers throughout the year under the guidance of the Board and staff.	Friday, March 15	8:40	20 minutes	Executive Director Kim Strubberg and others join the show to talk about "The Power of the Purse" fundraisers on April 4 in New Haven and April 11 in Washington. Six communities host Power of the Purse events where donated handbags are sold through a silent and live auction for the needy.
Downtown Washington, Inc. sponsors a variety of popular activities and events throughout the year from March through December which include everything from Arts Fairs to Sunsets on the Riverfront. One new one that is becoming a favorite is called "Thirsty Thursday."	Monday, March 18	8:15	15 minutes	Downtown Washington Executive Director Bridgette Kelch explains how the participating merchants create fun through store specials, drinks and food and door prizes. The first one is planned for March 21.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

The Franklin County Clerk oversees the smooth operation of voting in Franklin county. Newly elected Clerk Tim Baker explains what voters can expect on their ballots on April 2.	Monday, March 18	8:40	20 minutes	Several Ballot issues and propositions will be on the April 2 options for voters to consider, everything from school no tax increase propositions to voting for new board members. Tim interprets the language of several so voters are not confused about their vote.
---	-------------------------	-------------	-------------------	---

March is National Colorectal Cancer Awareness Month. To help patients understand what they can do to prevent this type of cancer, Mercy Hospital in Washington has initiated an educational campaign.	Thursday, March 21	7:45	15 minutes	Mercy Gastroenterologist Dr. Sheetal Sharma joins the show to talk about the fact that one in 20 people will develop colon or rectal cancer, and steps to take for prevention. He explains the Colonoscopy procedure for removing polyps, which is the best measure to take for prevention along with a good diet.
--	---------------------------	-------------	-------------------	---